Heart Of Gold People And Places Of Otago:

Arawata Bill (4th edition) Ian Dougherty, 2019-09-12 This is the story of a pioneering folk hero. It is a colourful tale of adventure, discovery and survival in the remotest areas of New Zealand's Southern Alps. William James O'Leary was a man of humble origins. His lifetime 1865-1947 spanned a period of New Zealand history when the country was searching for homegrown heroes in whose lives the young nation could discover clues to the question of its identity. The decades O'Leary spent in the unforgiving mountain country of North West Otago and South Westland prospecting for gold and other minerals and making new tracks in unexplored areas was bound to be regarded with envy and admiration by townsfolk. The myth-making process was assisted when the nickname Arawata Bill stuck but it is the man's astonishing feats of endurance, tenacity and charming eccentricity which capture the imagination. Add in the mystery of a lost ruby mine, a seaboot full of gold sovereigns and the aura of secrecy surrounding the quest for precious metal and you have the stuff of which legends are made. Generations of New Zealand schoolchildren are familiar with Denis Glover's poem Arawata Bill yet the subject of that work was only loosely based on William O'Leary. The man himself in his solitary and self-effacing way was both smaller and greater than the legend. He emerged as one of those archetypal New Zealanders who helped to define a distinctive nationality. In this fully revised and updated biography Ian Dougherty has separated the man from the myth with a warmly human portrait of an ordinary man who lived an extraordinary life. Heart of Gold Ian Dougherty, 1998 Rugged beauty of Otago and the culture that drives this the most Scots of the New Zealand provinces New Zealand Books in Print 2004 Thorpe-Bowker Staff, 2004-06 Directory containing updated bibliographic information on all in print New Zealand books. 33rd edition of an annual publication.
