Heart Of Darkness And The End Of The Tether:

Heart of Darkness & The End of the Tether Joseph Conrad, 1968 Youth - Heart of Darkness - The End of the Tether Joseph Conrad, 2020-09-17 This vintage book contains three short stories written by Joseph Conrad. These stories do not share the same narrative but do share a theme: the stages of life. Youth focuses on a young man's first sea voyage to the East. Heart of Darkness concerns a particularly unenlightened maturity, and The End of the Tether deals with the old age of an ex-military man. Conrad's masterful writing has influenced many important twentieth-century writers and artists, including T.S. Eliot, Jorge Luis Borges, and Werner Herzog. This text is highly recommended for fans of Conrad's seminal work and it would make for a worthy addition to any collection. This antiquarian volume is being republished now in an affordable modern edition complete with a specially commissioned biography of the author.

Heart of Darkness - Ed. Goonetilleke - Second Edition Joseph Conrad, 1999-08-16 The story of Marlow travelling upriver in central Africa to find Kurtz, an ivory agent consumed by the horror of human life as he is by physical illness, has long been considered a classic and continues to be widely read and studied. This edition, edited by one of the leading figures in the Conrad controversy, includes an introduction and explanatory notes as well as a fascinating variety of contemporary documents that help to set this extraordinary work in the context of the period from which it emerged. The introduction and bibliography have been updated, and two new appendices have been added: the second of these is a selection of Alice Harris's extraordinary but little-known photographs documenting the horrors of colonialism in turn-of-the-century Congo.

Youth: A Narrative (Includes Heart of Darkness) Joseph Conrad, 2017-12-06 Youth is an autobiographical short story by Joseph Conrad. Written in 1898, it was first published in Blackwood's Magazine and included as the first story in the 1902 volume Youth: A Narrative and Two Other Stories. This volume also includes Heart of Darkness and The End of the Tether, stories concerned with the themes of maturity and old age respectively. Youth depicts a young man's first journey to the East. It is narrated by Charles Marlow, who is also the narrator of Lord Jim and Chance. The narrator's introduction suggests this is the first time chronologically the character Marlow appears in Conrad's works. The author comments that he thinks Marlow spells his name this way. Similar to Joseph Conrad's better-known Heart of Darkness, Youth begins with a narrator describing five men drinking claret around a mahogany table. They are all veterans of the merchant navy. The main character, Marlow, tells the story of his first voyage to the East as second mate on board the Judea. The story is set twenty-two years earlier when Marlow was 20. Joseph Conrad was a Polish-British writer regarded as one of the greatest novelists to write in the English language.

Conrad's Marlow Paul Wake, 2013-07-19 Various descriptions of the average pilgrim, a wanderer, and a Buddha preaching in European clothes: Charlie Marlow is the voice behind Joseph Conrad's Youth (1898), Heart of Darkness (1899), Lord Jim (1900), and Chance (1912). Conrad's Marlow offers a comprehensive account and critical analysis of one of Conrad's most celebrated creations, asking both who and what is Marlow: a character or a narrator, a biographer or an autobiographical screen, a messenger or an interpreter, a bearer of truth.

Youth: a Narrative, and Two Other Stories Joseph Conrad, 2023-12-14 In Youth: a Narrative and Two Other Stories Joseph Conrad explores the themes of adventure, idealism, and the disillusionment that often accompanies the passage of time. Through the eyes of a young protagonist aboard a steamship headed to the East, Conrad employs a rich and evocative literary style that captures both the excitement of youth and the bitter wisdom of experience. The narrative weaves a tapestry of nostalgia reflecting on the allure of uncharted territories and the harsh realities of human endeavors set against the backdrop of the late 19th-century maritime world. This collection masterfully blends psychological depth with vivid descriptive imagery, showcasing Conrad's hallmark themes of existential struggle and the darker facets of human nature. Joseph Conrad, a Polish-born novelist and short story writer, drew upon his own extensive experiences at sea, which deeply influenced his literary works. His precarious navigation through diverse cultures and his introspective worldview fueled his fascination with the dichotomy of idealism and reality. Writing during a period marked by colonial expansion and rapid technological change, Conrad's insights into the human condition remain strikingly relevant, making his narratives rich with philosophical undertones. An essential read for both literary enthusiasts and casual readers, Youth: a Narrative and Two Other Stories offers a poignant meditation on the complexities of youth and the often harsh truths of life. Conrad's work invites readers to reflect on their own journeys, seeking meaning amidst chaos, making this collection a timeless exploration of the human spirit.

Heart of Darkness Joseph Conrad, 2012-08-28 In a novella which remains highly controversial to this day, Conrad explores the relations between Africa and Europe. On the surface, this is a horrifying tale of colonial exploitation. The narrator, Marlow, journeys on business deep into the heart of Africa. But there he encounters Kurtz, an idealist apparently crazed and depraved by his power over the natives, and the meeting prompts Marlow to reflect on the darkness at the heart of all men. This short but complex and often ambiguous story which has been the basis of several films and plays continues to provoke interpretation and discussion Heart of Darkness grew out of a journey Joseph Conrad took up the Congo River the verisimilitude that the great novelist thereby brought to his most famous tale everywhere enhances its dense and shattering power Apparently a sailor's yarn it is in fact a grim parody of the adventure story in which the narrator Marlow travels deep into the heart of the Congo where he encounters the crazed idealist Kurtz and discovers that the relative values of the civilized and the primitive are not what they seem Heart of Darkness is a model of economic storytelling an indictment of the inner and outer turmoil caused by the European imperial misadventure and a piercing account of the fragility of the human soul Heart of Darkness - Ed. Goonetilleke - Third Edition Joseph Conrad, 2020-07-21 The first incarnation of this Broadview edition of Heart of Darkness appeared in 1995 the second in 1999 both were widely acclaimed and the Goonetilleke Heart of Darkness remained for many years one of Broadview's best selling titles For the third edition the book has been completely revised and updated to take account of the scholarship of the most recent generation The introduction has been extensively rewritten and the appendices of contextual materials thoroughly overhauled The two previous editions of the Goonetilleke Heart of Darkness included a substantial selection of documents on the history of Benin ranging from excerpts taken from Olaudah Equiano's eighteenth century narrative to documents concerning the Benin massacre of 1897 Those documents concerning a neighboring Bantu society were included in large part because of the paucity of known late nineteenth century documents concerning the Congo by black Africans or indeed by black observers of any nationality In place of those Benin related materials this new edition includes substantial excerpts from George Washington Williams's Letter to Leopold II as well as substantial excerpts from an extraordinary document not included in any other edition of Heart of Darkness but discussed extensively in two groundbreaking twenty first century works of scholarship David Van Reybrouck's Congo The Epic History of a People and Maya Jasanoff's The Dawn Watch Joseph Conrad in a Global World the autobiography of Disasi Makulo Makulo grew up near the shore of the Congo River in the 1880s and early 1890s was enslaved by notorious ivory dealer Tippu Tip and then was taken under the wing of Henry Morton Stanley Makulo's account substantial excerpts of which are here translated into English for the first time opens an unprecedented window on life in the equatorial forest of the Congo in the late nineteenth century
