El hombre duplicado José Saramago, 2003

Conversations in Philosophy Ed Brandon, Roxanne Burton, F.

Ochieng'-Odhiambo, 2015-10-05 The collection of essays in this anthology is divided into three categories namely social epistemology epistemology and freedom respectively The first category addresses questions related to the social dimensions of knowledge Various issues are interrogated including the lack of attention to testimony in much standard philosophizing the need for advocacy and the role of history making in social reconstruction The second category deals more directly with some of the concepts that generally crop up in the theory of knowledge provoking questions such as How much do we really know about each other What is the content of the knowledge we think we have and how far does it depend upon our social being What is the relationship between knowledge and truth Essays in the third category deal with the concept of freedom both at a personal and a social level and discuss dilemmas such as To what extent are some of the arguments put forward in favour of genetic determinism flawed or sensible Does the idea of genetic influence pose a threat to freedom What is the area within which the subject is or should be left to do or be without interference from other persons In this era of globalization is cosmopolitanism or communitarianism by itself sufficient for promoting freedom Conversations in Philosophy Knowledge and Freedom is the second book in a series based on a selection of papers presented at the annual Cave Hill Philosophy Symposium The first book Conversations in Philosophy Crossing the Boundaries published in 2008 also by Cambridge Scholars Publishing consisted of essays that revolved around the question of the nature and meaning of philosophy This second volume of Conversations in Philosophy offers a careful and balanced examination of many issues that recur in discussions on knowledge and freedom The essays are thoughtful provocative and challenging Ficción histórica y realidad literaria Olga Hinojosa Picón, 2010 Percibir la realidad en consonancia con los parámetros que imponen determinados sistemas políticos implica acatar típicamente unas leyes que adquieren de esta forma validez universal Unas leyes que garantizan la convivencia pacífica entre los ciudadanos que conforman la cultura de una zona geográfica concreta Pero qué ocurre cuando un individuo entra en conflicto con su entorno inmediato Cuando decide alzar su voz para cuestionar la legitimidad de la verdad en la que hasta ese momento ha basado su existencia Cuando además sus argumentos ponen en entredicho la solidez de las estructuras en las que se asienta la sociedad en la que se encuentra inmerso Y qué sucede cuando se cuestiona la validez de esa realidad recurriendo a la ficción La búsqueda de respuestas a estas cuestiones constituye el hilo conductor del presente volumen que tomando como referencia las tres primeras novelas de Monika Maron Flugasche Die berl uferin y Stille Zeile Sechs surgidas en la década de los ochenta del siglo pasado en la Alemania oriental se propone mostrar cómo la literatura puede proyectar un mundo alternativo al real no necesariamente más ficticio Con ese fin la aproximación a la obra literaria se realiza desde una perspectiva neohistoricista deteniéndose en aspectos como la crisis de identidad del personaje de ficción y sus conexiones con el autor el conflicto entre las diferentes versiones de la realidad
