God Is Love A Study In The Theology Of Karl Rahner:

God is Love Mark Lloyd Taylor,1986 This book offers a critical appraisal of the theology of Karl Rahner with particular attention to the account of the phrase God is love Beginning with a review of Rahner's understanding of God and the problematic nature of God in contemporary theology Mark Taylor uses process philosophy to define God as essentially love of others This work represents both a contribution to the secondary literature on Rahner and a creative effort to discern divine reality from the perspective of Christian theology

God is Love Mark Lloyd Taylor,1983 The Reality of Love Ingvald Rosok,2018-01-12 Love is one and love is all we need This book argues against the traditional theological view that God's love differs from human love If God is love and love is one we will find God embodied in all kinds of genuine love experiences By analyzing Karl Rahner's theology of love the author explores how God penetrates and embraces the whole of reality suggesting implications for Christian spirituality and spiritual direction

The Analogy of Love Gary Chartier,2015-11-09 This book offers an overview of Christian theology organized around the twin themes of divine and human love The book covers the traditional theological topics as well as basic questions of theological method It seeks to integrate a focus on love throughout While love is regularly canvassed as a dominant theme in Christian thought it has rarely been the focus of Christian theological construction or a constraint on theological formulation The book seeks to suggest chapter by chapter how a given topic relates to the broad theme of love The book is written in a way designed to make it accessible to university students and educated laypersons At the same time it takes positions on controverted scholarly issues and the methodological approach outlined at the beginning will be of interest to academic theologians

Graham Greene's Catholic Imagination Mark Bosco,2005-02-17 Much has been written about Graham Greene's relationship to his Catholic faith and its privileged place within his texts His early books are usually described as Catholic Novels understood as a genre that not only uses Catholic belief to frame the issues of modernity but also offers Catholicism's vision and doctrine as a remedy to the present crisis in Western civilization Greene's later work by contrast is generally regarded as falling into political and detective genres In this book Mark Bosco argues that this is a false dichotomy created by a narrowly prescriptive understanding of the Catholic genre and obscures the impact of Greene's developing religious imagination on his literary art

The Dynamics of Grace Stephen J. Duffy,2007-11-01 The doctrine of grace concerning the healing freeing and empowering presence of the Spirit in human life is central in Christianity This readable yet in depth historical and interpretive study retraces the long trajectory of the theology of grace as thinkers grappled with the mystery that envelops the interplay between God's life with us and our common life together Retrieving the rich symbols of the Christian past and reinterpreting them within their own cultural context theologians in different eras shaped the development of a Christian anthropology that plays upon all the registers of the greatness and misery of the human condition The presuppositions questions and benchmark anthropologies of early Christianity Augustine Aquinas Luther Trent and Rahner are critically analyzed in light of recent historical studies and in light of a new climate of ecumenical convergence The exploration ends by probing the anthropology of contemporary liberation theologies that mark another turning point in the tradition by breaking grace out of the realm of privacy and into the sociopolitical arena Augustine and Postmodernism John D. Caputo, Michael J. Scanlon, 2005-03-10 Scanlon and Mark Vessey Indiana Series in the Philosophy of Religion Merold Westphal general editor

Evolution Bradford McCall, 2020-07-15 Should we attempt to understand macro evolutionary biology in the twenty first century as secular or sacred This book will attempt to answer this question by exploring the secular evolutionary worldview the author's view of kenotic causation Whitehead's views on chance Derrida's views on non human animals a statement upon the God of chance and purpose Augustine's various theologies of creation a decidedly non dualistic macro evolution a provocative thesis regarding evolutionary Christology the connection between kenosis and emergence and an explication of both Anders Nygren and Thomas Jay Oord's views of love in the contemporary environ It also develops the author's personal view regarding necessary kenotically donated and self giving love and argues that kenosis and emergence can add to the discussion of understanding the theology science love symbiosis It advocates and explicates herein a monistic process based view of the overlapping relationship between theology and science Research in the Social Scientific Study of

Religion, Volume 14 Ralph L. Piedmont, David O. Moberg, 2021-10-01 Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion RSSSR publishes reports of innovative studies that pertain empirically or theoretically to the scientific study of religion including spirituality regardless of their academic discipline or professional orientation It is academically eclectic not restricted to any one particular theoretical orientation or research method Most articles report the findings of quantitative or qualitative investigations but some deal with methodology theory or applications of social science studies in the field of religion The Thomist, 1992 A speculative quarterly review Analytic Christology and the Theological Interpretation of the New Testament Thomas H. McCall, 2021-03-04 This study draws upon the resources of both contemporary analytic theology and the theological interpretation of the New Testament in order to investigate a set of important issues in Christology It is the first work in analytic Christology to draw upon both recent scholarship in biblical studies and recent contributions to analytic philosophy and theology Thomas H McCall explores the themes of union with Christ and the faith of Christ as these are developed by the apocalyptic and New Perspective interpreters of Pauline theology The volume offers a careful analysis of recent dogmatic proposals about the identity of Christ and the doctrine of election and provides an examination of debates over the subordination of the Son in Hebrews It also probes the relationship of the incarnate Son to his Father in Johannine theology McCall presents an exegetically grounded theological engagement with recent work on the place of logic in the doctrine of the incarnation Most Moved Mover Clark H. Pinnock, 2019-10-01 In 1994 Clark Pinnock along with four other scholars published The Openness of God which set out a new evangelical vision of God one centered on his open relational and responsive love for creation Since then the nature of God has been widely discussed throughout the evangelical community Now Pinnock returns with Most Moved Mover to once again counter the classical deterministic view of God and defend the relationality and openness of God This engaging defense of openness theology begins with an analysis of the current debate followed by an explanation of the misconceptions about openness theology and a delineation of areas of agreement between classical and openness theologians Most Moved Mover is for all evangelicals regardless of their viewpoint as it lays out the groundwork for future discussions of the open view of God

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool, 2010-01-01 This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human s infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice

Love as Common Ground Paul S. Fiddes, 2021-09-23 This book explores the way in which the study and practice of love creates a common ground for different faiths and different traditions within the same faith For the contributors common ground in this context is not a minimal core of belief or a lowest common denominator of faith but a space or area in which to live together consider together the meaning of the love to which various faiths witness and work together to enable human flourishing Such a space the contributors believe is possible because it is the place of encounter with the divine This book is the fruit of a Project for the Study of Love in Religion which aims to create this space in which different traditions of love converge from Islam Judaism and the Christianity of both East and West Tools employed by the contributors in exploring this space of love include exegesis of ancient texts theology accounts of mystical experience philosophy and evolutionary science of the human Insights about human and divine love that emerge include its nature as a form of knowing its sacrificial and erotic dimensions its inclination towards beauty its making of community and its importance for a just political and economic life

Karl Rahner and Ignatian Spirituality Philip Endean SJ, 2004-08-05 Karl Rahner SJ 1904 1984 perhaps the most influential figure in twentieth century Roman Catholic theology believed that the most significant influence on his work was Ignatius Loyola's Spiritual Exercises This book casts significant new light on Rahner's achievement by presenting it against the background of the rediscovery of Ignatian spirituality in the middle decades of the twentieth century It offers a fresh and contemporary theological interpretation of Ignatian retreat giving illuminating the creative new departures this ministry has taken in the last thirty years as well as contributing to the lively current debate regarding the relationship between spirituality and speculative theology
