Gods World And The Great Awakening Limits And Renewals 3:

God's World and the Great Awakening Stephen R. L. Clark, 1991 In God's World and the Great Awakening Professor Clark's main concern is with the way we can turn aside to the Truth from the normal delusions of self concern He restates a traditional Neoplatonic metaphysics as the proper context for scientific and religious practice and defends a serious Platonic realism against both scientism and anti realism Neither scientism which identifies Truth with what can be revealed to the objectifying gaze nor fashionable anti realism which equates Truth simply with what we choose to take seriously offer an adequate ground for our scientific or religious faith The primary faith of humankind is that there is a real world which is more than an obsequious shadow of our desires and fancies and this real world can be discovered through right reason The defence of this faith requires a properly worked Platonic metaphysic of just the kind discernible in Christian orthodoxy The other two volumes are Civil Peace and Sacred Order 1989 and A Parliament of Souls 1990

The One, the Three and the Many Colin E. Gunton, 1993-07-29 This study offers a theological analysis of and response to the modern world and is at once a theology of culture and of creation In the first half of the book Gunton expounds some of the distinctive and often contradictory features of modern culture It emerges that modern culture far from being unique in its difficulties reflects similar inadequacies in ancient thought The distinctive pathos of modernity is to be found in one unique feature namely the displacement of God that is a mark of all realms of life The roots of the problem are sought beyond the Enlightenment where they are often located in the combination of platonism and Christian theology which dominated medieval Christian thought At the heart of the matter is a deficient because of an inadequately trinitarian understanding of creation and creation's God The second half of the book develops a powerful theology of creation where due weight can be given to both universal and particular both society and the individual

Understanding Friendship Gary Chartier, 2022 Understanding Friendship illustrates friendship as an expression of Christian love that can enrich one's life and be socially culturally and politically significant The book examines what friendship is how its distinctive moral status can be supported by multiple approaches to Christian ethics and its part in Christian spirituality

The Analogy of Love Gary Chartier, 2015-11-09 This book offers an overview of Christian theology organized around the twin themes of divine and human love The book covers the traditional theological topics as well as basic questions of theological method It seeks to integrate a focus on love throughout While love is regularly canvassed as a dominant theme in Christian thought it has rarely been the focus of Christian theological construction or a constraint on theological formulation The book seeks to suggest chapter by chapter how a given topic relates to the broad theme of love The book is written in a way designed to make it accessible to university students and educated laypersons At the same time it takes positions on controverted scholarly issues and the methodological approach outlined at the beginning will be of interest to academic theologians

Christianity and the Nation-State Gary Chartier, 2023-07-27 A theological affirmation of liberalism that critiques state authority proposes an alternative and offers suggestions for life under state rule Realism & Antirealism William P. Alston, 2002 Throughout the past century a debate has raged over the thesis of realism and its alternatives In this volume of original essays a group of philosophers explores the ongoing controversy Introducing Radical Orthodoxy James K. A. Smith, 2004-12 Provides a helpful overview of Radical Orthodoxy highlights its areas of agreement with Reformed theology and assesses its value as a truly postmodern theology
