Exorcism! Peter Underwood, 1990 Throughout history the practice of exorcism has been used for the purpose of driving out evil spirits and demons though to possess human beings and the places they inhabit But there are more startling instances where exorcism has been used to cure a trawler that seemed to be cursed to expel demons from Bram Stoker's black vampire dog even to rid Loch Ness and the Bermuda Triangle of their evil ambience Peter Underwood explores this frightening ritual in relation to witches vampires and animals while his far flung researches have unearthed dramatic cases in Morocco Egypt South Africa and the United States as well as the British Isles Is the rite an archaic throwback wrongly employed in cases of mental disturbance which would be better served by psychological counselling or is evil indeed a living force which can be overcome by the power of good Exorcism offers some thought provoking insights into a mysterious and powerful phenomenon

Nights in Haunted Houses Peter Underwood, 1994 The eerie quiet and disorientating darkness of the night have long been associated with the terror of the unknown In the cold light of day it is all too easy for sceptics to dismiss apparently inexplicable events but in the dead of night when faced with the evidence of their senses and those of other perfectly rational people it is far more difficult to ignore the facts however disturbing they may be Peter Underwood is Britain's leading ghost hunter For over thirty years in his position as President and Chief Investigator of the Ghost Club of Great Britain he was actively involved in undertaking night vigils and carrying out research into ghosts and paranormal activity in controlled scientific conditions In this unique volume of largely unpublished accounts of nocturnal investigations he guides you on a chilling tour of the most haunted houses in Great Britain Among others we encounter the headless Blue Lady and disturbing inexplicable odour of lavender of Bovey House in Devon the happy spirits monk of Bromfield Manor Shropshire who chuckles with delight when noticed and the strange disembodied voices footsteps and unnatural coldness of Newark Park Gloucestershire In Nights in Haunted Houses Peter Underwood vividly records terrifying accounts of ghostly encounters in locations as diverse as a farmhouse a church a castle and a council house and builds a convincing catalogue of evidence for the existence of ghosts
