Gods Many And Lords Many A Study In The Primal Religions:

Gods Many and Lords Many John Ferguson, 1982 There is a story from the Kalahari Bushmen about creation Mantis the primal preying mantis is the spirit of creation His supreme creation was the Eland But Mantis children watched him secretly and one day when he was away they killed the Eland and ate him Mantis was desolate He went to the scene of the killing and there he found on a bush the indigestible gall of the Eland He told the gall that he would jump on it and pierce it through The gall answered that if he did it would burst open and cover him Mantis was tempted to go away after his children He resisted the temptation leaped upon the gall pierced it through and was swamped in bitter darkness Here as he groped unseeing his grip suddenly lighted upon an ostrich feather He used this to wipe the gall from his face and flung the feather into the sky to be the moon How would you interpret this story John Ferguson uses this creation myth and others like it to introduce us to countless expressions of religious faith in places as diverse as Africa Asia Australasia and America Many who find it difficult even to think of gods many and lords many will still want to try to understand and this book with its thoughtful and challenging question and discussion structure will provide many valuable insights into primal religious thought God Against the Gods Jonathan Kirsch, 2005-01-25 Lively points out that the conflict between the worship of many gods and the worship of one true god never disappeared Publishers Weekly Jonathan Kirsch has written another blockbuster about the Bible and its world David Noel Freedman Editor in Chief of the Anchor Bible Project Kirsch tackles the central issue bedeviling the world today religious intolerance A timely book well written and researched Leonard Shlain author of The Alphabet and the Goddess and Sex Time and Power An intriguing read The Jerusalem Report A timely tale about the importance of religious tolerance in today's world San Francisco Chronicle Kirsch is a fine storyteller with a flair for rendering ancient tales relevant and appealing The Washington Post The Civilization of Illiteracy Mihai Nadin, 1997 Phenomena related to the transition from a literacy dominated civilization to one of various means of expression and communication are at the center of his book The fall of totalitarian regimes the current structural difficulties of the European Community the burden of state bureaucracies the world wide effort of re engineering and the global economy are part of the bigger picture of a necessary development H.H. Farmer's Theological Interpretation of Religion Christopher Hugh Partridge, 1998 Providing a comprehensive survey of H H Farmer's writings this volume pays special attention to his treatment of the relationship of Christianity to other religions Rational Ancestors James Leland Cox, 1998 This text explores the ways in which science as a confession of faith interacts with the faith of indigenous Africans to produce a horizon of understanding Part One contains the author's own analyses and application of theories relevant to the study of African indigenous religions Parts Two and Three are comprised of edited versions of the oral literature and ritual descriptions obtained by phenomenology students in the University of Zimbabwe in 1991 and 1992 Manifesting the Primal Imagination Joshua D. Settles, 2024-09-26 Manifesting the Primal Imagination explores a little known but important aspect of Black American Christianity the primal spirituality of the Black Pentecostal and spiritual church Set against the backdrop of a Christianity believed by many to be synonymous with White Western culture Manifesting the Primal Imagination demonstrates how this image of Christianity came to be and how it is false through a historical and scriptural examination of Christianity itself At a time in which the nature of Christian faith is hotly contested with many rejecting Christianity on the basis of its historical association with White supremacist claims Settles advocates for a rereading of the history of Black American faith in a way that recognizes the importance of the primal imagination to Christianity itself Religions of the World Lewis M.
