God's Word Calls and Nourishes John Farrelly,2003      The Trinity John M. Farrelly,2005-01-04 The mystery of the Trinity is the central Christian belief that defines God s essence God s ongoing love for humanity and saving grace Yet over the past few centuries especially in the West Christians have either ceased believing in the Trinity or simply no longer recognize its relevance in their ecclesial or individual lives Written in an ecumenical spirit that engages contemporary questions and theological viewpoints The Trinity Rediscovering the Central Christian Mystery articulates the mystery of the Trinity for people formed by modern historical consciousness science awareness of the equal dignity of men and women and respect for world religions By first identifying contemporary problems with the Christian proclamation of the Trinity in our culture and major differences among modern theologians John Farrelly OSB explores Scripture the life and message of Jesus Christ the various stages of the development of Trinitarian doctrine in Christian History the relation of the Trinity to creation and salvation the generation of the Son from the Father within the Trinity and the procession of the Holy Spirit from Father and Son and the meaning of three persons in one God He concludes by reflecting on the implications this renewed theology of the Trinity has for ecclesiology and Christian spirituality in our twenty first century world especially in relation to other world religions      [God Is With Us - \[Large Print\]](#) Robin Wilson,2019-09-03 God Is With Us originally published in 2016 invites you to explore your longing for God s presence through a study of the lectionary Bible readings for Advent and Christmas The hope of Advent is the fulfillment of that longing we await the coming of Jesus as Immanuel God With Us Each week s Scriptures call us to praise God as we actively await the coming of Christ and prepare our hearts and lives for his arrival Through the readings we hear the invitation to claim and celebrate the new hope we have in Jesus Christ The season of Advent offers opportunities to prepare for God s coming in human form in the infant Jesus and for the fulfillment of God s kingdom with the second coming of Christ Hope is the focus of Advent worship study and prayer We will discover the light that began in the manger which continues as we look forward with hope to Christ s return God Is With Us is based on the Revised Common Lectionary Scriptures for church year A the first of a three year cycle of Bible readings The study includes commentary and reflection on readings from the Old Testament the Gospels and the Epistles It offers the opportunity to explore these Bible readings in a five session study It will help participants understand appreciate and engage in meaningful and joyous celebrations of Advent and Christmas and to live each day in God s hope through Jesus Christ      A Year of Grace, Volume 1 Bo Giertz,Bror Erickson,2019-06-07 These sermons are taken from various stages in Bo Giertz pastoral career from his time as a parish pastor his time as a bishop and his time in retirement He adapted the homiletical style of Henric Schartau whose homiletical style informs the novel The Hammer of God Schartau would preach in a manner that expounded on the text before applying it to people who might find themselves in three different spiritual conditions sometimes this is referred to as an Ordo Salutis These three would be that of an unbeliever a newly awakened Christian or young believer and that of a mature believer This has met with some controversy over the years as it was often identified with pietism however Bo Giertz is aware of the pitfalls of this approach and turns the method in a matter that emphasizes the strengths When it comes to the order of grace Bo Giertz would say that it is not the order that matters but the grace     The Word in and Out of Season: Homilies for the Sundays of Advent and Lent Richard Viladesau,1996 The fourth in this series of homily collections offers inspiring homilies for the Advent and Lent seasons     The Advent of God's Word Rev. Brokhoff,1995 Wrinkled Wrappings is a series of pulpit messages for Advent and Christmas carved from the pen and emanating from the heart of a distinguished preacher whose messages inspire hope in the hearts of believers Brokhoff is especially skilled at relating biblical stories to modern life The flowing style of these sermons is peppered with gripping illustrations that catch us where we are and carry us along as he shines the light of God s word into our lives Sermons are based on texts from Mark Luke John and Isaiah Sermon titles include You re Going To Have A Baby Good News For Bad Times God With A Human Face Happy Next Year John R Brokhoff is former professor of Homiletics at Candler School of Theology Emory University He has served parishes in Pennsylvania North Carolina Georgia and Virginia He has authored nearly thirty books with CSS Publishing Company including most recently Pray Like Jesus and Lectionary Preaching Workbook Series IV Cycles A B and C     Conversing with God in Advent Stephen J. Binz,2012-08-01 Lectio divina is an ancient spiritual practice that can help us to hear God speaking to us through the words of Scripture In recent times Pope Benedict XVI and a synod of bishops have recommended that lay people pray with the Scriptures using this method In this book respected biblical scholar Stephen J Binz chooses the first Mass reading and the gospel reading for each Sunday in cycles A B and C during Advent as well as for the major feast days in the Christmas season Then he leads readers through the steps of lectio divina reading meditation prayer contemplation and action by suggesting themes and verses on which to focus     Songs for a Savior David M. Oliver,2003-07 This comprehensive resource of five sermons with complete worship services provides a solid thematically integrated worship and preaching program for Advent and Christmas Eve. It celebrates the deep songs of faith that result from personal encounters with Jesus Christ. The four Advent messages examine biblical personalities revealing in their experiences real struggles as well as profound joy. You'll explore how Zechariah wrestled to believe what the angel told him concerning the birth of his son, how the prophets searched for God's Word of hope in times of personal and social ferment, how Mary was willing to sacrifice her life for God's purpose, and how the birth of Jesus heralded by the angels and confirmed by the shepherds combined fear and joy with divine music. In the final sermon for Christmas Eve, Oliver links those accounts with our contemporary lives by asking what our personal response will be to the birth of the Savior. Will we allow a song of faith to arise in our lives, in our families, churches, and community? Illustrated with poignant stories and anecdotes, the sermons in Songs For A Savior invite us to hear again the truly good news that our song of faith is not so much what we create for God as how we respond to meeting the Savior and receiving God's gift of salvation through Jesus. Songs For A Savior comes from the heart of one who knows the Savior. Oliver offers these worship resources from his years of helping persons discover the Savior. The liturgies develop a theme for each Sunday, and the sermons weave biblical truths into the complexities of our modern lives, enabling new insights and personal convictions. Congregations experiencing Songs For A Savior will grow in their commitment to love and serve the Savior.

William R. Harvey, Pastor Emeritus, Church of the Savior, Canton, Ohio. David M. Oliver holds an M.Div. degree from Duke University Divinity School and a D.Min. degree in Spiritual Formation from Asbury Theological Seminary. God's New Possibility James L. Killen, 2013. We live in a God-invaded world. This simple truth is easy to forget when we peer wide-eyed into a world filled with chaos, terror, and war. But when we embrace the kingdom of God as an ever-present reality, one filled with new possibilities rooted in the good news of Christ, we become molders and shapers of human history. God's New Possibility offers a bold invitation to believe and proclaim that God is indeed at work, calling us to participate in His plan of transforming the world. God's New Possibility reflects upon the seasons of Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany, unpacking the truths of a divine hope ushered into the world through the infant Christ. In seventeen sermons, James L. Killen Jr. reminds us that we serve a living and breathing God, one who became visible through Jesus and remains tangible through His Church. This is the evidence of a heavenly kingdom manifested through God's all-consuming presence and redemptive call, a kingdom that offers a new possibility here for us in each present moment of our lives. The rich narratives of holy love found within the pages of Killen's sermons remain emphatic: God's love is not waiting for us at the borders of heaven; rather, He has already unleashed His redeeming love upon His world, and it is a love that calls all who proclaim His son as Lord and Savior to take an active role in spreading the good news of salvation.
