Goethe In English A Bibliography Of The Transitions In The Twentieth Century:

Goethe in English Derek Glass, Martin H. Jones, 2005 This bibliography was commissioned by the English Goethe Society as a contribution to the celebration in 1999 of the 250th anniversary of Goethe's birth. It sets out to record translations of his works into English that have been published in the twentieth century up to and including material published in that anniversary year. It aims to serve as wide a constituency as possible be it as a simple reference tool for tracing a translation of a given work or as a documentary source for specialized studies of Goethe reception in the English speaking world. The work records publications during the century not merely translations that originated during this period. It includes numerous reprintings of older material as well as some belated first publications of translations from the nineteenth century. It shows how frequent and how long enduring was the recourse of publishers and anthologists to a Goethe Victorian in diction a signal factor in perceptions and misperceptions. Derek Glass was putting the finishing touches to the bibliography at the time of his sudden death in March 2004. Colleagues at Kings College London have edited the final manuscript which is now published jointly by the English Goethe Society and the Modern Humanities Research Association both as a worthy commemoration of Goethe's anniversary and as a tribute to Derek himself. Books of 1926(-1928). Cumulated from the Book Bulletin of the Chicago Public Library CHICAGO. Chicago Public Library, 1929 An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: General studies Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known. These include his prose fiction and poetry his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts most notably his painting. It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material all of this in several languages. Organised generically and by subject and individual work the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods. It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material. It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity. The bibliography is published in three parts Volume 2 The Plays 978 0 947623 82 1 and Volume 3 Prose Poetry Miscellaneous 978 0 947623 83 8 are also now available. Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia Norwich. English Literature in Transition, 1880-1920, 1980 St. James Reference Guide to English Literature: 20th century fiction, 1985 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature. The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

Dramatic Bibliography ,1933 Centuries of transition Robert Warnock,George Kumler Anderson,1967 Transnationalism and German-Language Literature in the Twenty-First Century Stuart Taberner,2017-03-01 This book examines how German language authors have intervened in contemporary debates on the obligation to extend hospitality to asylum seekers refugees and migrants the terrorist threat post 9 11 globalisation and neo liberalism the opportunities and anxieties of intensified mobility across borders and whether transnationalism necessarily implies the end of the nation state and the dawn of a new cosmopolitanism The book proceeds through a series of close readings of key texts of the last twenty years with an emphasis on the most recent works Authors include Ter zia Mora Richard Wagner Olga Grjasnowa Marlene Streeruwitz Vladimir Vertlib Navid Kermani Felicitas Hoppe Daniel Kehlmann Ilija Trojanow Christian Kracht and Christa Wolf representing the diversity of contemporary German language writing Through a careful process of juxtaposition and differentiation the individual chapters demonstrate that writers of both minority and nonminority backgrounds address transnationalism in ways that certainly vary but which also often overlap in surprising ways

Criticism, Performance, and the Passions in the Eighteenth Century James Harriman-Smith,2021-03-18 Great art is about emotion In the eighteenth century and especially for the English stage critics developed a sensitivity to both the passions of a performance and what they called the transitions between those passions It was these pivotal transitions scripted by authors and executed by actors that could make King Lear beautiful Hamlet terrifying Archer hilarious and Zara electrifying James Harriman Smith recovers a lost way of appreciating theatre as a set of transitions that produce simultaneously iconic and dynamic spectacles fascinating moments when anything seems possible Offering fresh readings and interpretations of Shakespearean and eighteenth century tragedy historical acting theory and early character criticism this volume demonstrates how a concern with transition binds drama to everything from lyric poetry and Newtonian science to fine art and sceptical enquiry into the nature of the self     The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library,1988
