Fustat On The Nile The Jewish Elite In Medieval Egypt:

Fustat on the Nile Elinor Bareket, 1999 The book discusses Jewish leadership in Egypt and Palestine during the eleventh century The struggles for power between the leaders of the local communities and the traditional centers of Jewish authority all brought to light by documents from the Cairo Geniza Medieval Hebrew Poetry in Muslim Egypt Joachim J.M.S. Yeshaya, 2010-11-11 Moses ben Abraham Dar born in Alexandria into a family of Moroccan Jewish immigrants lived in Egypt in the middle of the twelfth century Though he visited Damascus and Jerusalem he spent most of his professional life as a physician and poet in the Karaite community of Fus Cairo This study offers an annotated edition of secular poems taken from the earliest manuscript NLR Evr I 802 dated to the fifteenth century The Hebrew text and Judaeo Arabic heading of each poem are provided in the original order attested in the manuscript The introduction to this edition seeks to evaluate Dar s poetry in the light of the Andalusian Hebrew poetical tradition and within the context of Hebrew literary activity in the Muslim East This learned book displays sound rigorous scholarship in the best tradition of the philological historical method It also provides solid ground for further work by scholars with different agendas different scholarly interests and different methodologies in the study of medieval Hebrew poetry On all accounts it is a welcome and most valuable addition to the field Esperanza Alfonso CCHS CSIC Yeshaya s work is an excellent contribution to the study of both medieval Hebrew poetry and Karaitica showing Dar to be a central representative of Hebrew poets writing in the Muslim East and most importantly a charming author whose Karaiteness only adds to the attraction Riikka Tuori Poverty and Charity in the Jewish Community of Medieval Egypt Mark R. Cohen, 2009-01-10 What was it like to be poor in the Middle Ages In the past the answer to this question came only from institutions and individuals who gave relief to the less fortunate This book by one of the top scholars in the field is the first comprehensive book to study poverty in a premodern Jewish community from the viewpoint of both the poor and those who provided for them Mark Cohen mines the richest body of documents available on the matter the papers of the Cairo Geniza These documents located in the Geniza a hidden chamber for discarded papers situated in a medieval synagogue in Old Cairo were preserved largely unharmed for more than nine centuries due to an ancient custom in Judaism that prohibited the destruction of pages of sacred writing Based on these papers the book provides abundant testimony about how one large and important medieval Jewish community dealt with the constant presence of poverty in its midst Building on S D Goitein s Mediterranean Society and inspired also by research on poverty and charity in medieval and early modern Europe it provides a clear window onto the daily lives of the poor It also illuminates private charity a subject that has long been elusive to the medieval historian In addition Cohen s work functions as a detailed case study of an important phenomenon in human history Cohen concludes that the relatively narrow gap between the poor and rich and the precariousness of wealth in general combined to make charity one of the major agglutinates of Jewish associational life during the medieval period Medieval Multilingual Manuscripts Michael Clarke, Máire Ní

Mhaonaigh,2022-04-04 Manuscripts provide rich documentary evidence for understanding the history of cultural life across the breadth of Europe and Asia down through the Middle Ages Many illustrate engagement between and across languages in both similar and contrasting ways from east to west The demarcation of manuscript studies into single language academic disciplines has often obscured this reality privileging one constituent part or contributing language from each manuscript rather than exploring the combination as a nuanced and complex whole This volume seeks to examine manuscripts as integrally united artefacts respecting the diversity of their constituent elements Case studies are presented of twelve manuscripts with evidence for various levels of inter language exchange and collision from horizons as diverse as the Atlantic West Carolingian Europe the Byzantine world the Silk Road cultures and east Asia The essays function individually as discrete contributions but together they highlight a range of overlapping themes illustrating language interaction in global religions pedagogical exchange and secular society building The analogies as well as the concrete points of connection between them underline the value of a cross disciplinary approach

The Historiography of Islamic Egypt (c. 950-1800) Hugh Kennedy,2021-10-01 History writing in Islamic Egypt was highly developed and no country in the Middle East has a richer or more developed tradition This book is a collection of essays by leading scholars in the field examining different authors their works and the intellectual climate in which they flourished Due prominence is given to the great historians of the Mamluk period c 1260 1517 but also to the less well known writers of the Ottoman period The essays are also enlivened by insights into personalities and customs of the time This book will be of interest to historians of the Islamic world in mediaeval and modern times and to all those who are concerned with history writing as an intellectual discourse

The Historiography of Islamic Egypt Hugh N. Kennedy,2001-01-01 This collection of essays discusses the rich and varied tradition of history writing in mediaeval and early modern Egypt providing new insights into the works and the lives and outlooks of their authors

A Civil Society with no Hierarchy Ilie Badescu,Joseph Livni,2023-04-24 Ilie Badescu and Joseph Livni follow the footsteps of two giants who pioneered the field H H Stahl of Romania who studied the sociology of communal societies and D J Elazar of the United States who studied the political science of covenantal societies This collection sheds light on obscure corners of the field gathering up thoughts and concepts of many other sources of past and contemporary research in the field In this volume the reader will find answers to difficult questions like How did acephalous societies penetrate civilization How did they manage to preserve their egalitarian ethos Why did powerful hierarchies work in partnership with them And most importantly how did covenantal societies work around the constraints of a civilized reality The history of civilization consists of various degrees of stratified configurations ranging from oligarchic city states to powerful pyramidal empires

Byzantine Jewry in the Mediterranean Economy Joshua Holo,2009-11-12 Using primary sources Joshua Holo uncovers the day to day workings of the Byzantine Jewish economy in the middle Byzantine period Built on a web of exchange systems both exclusive to the Jewish community and integrated in society at large this economy forces

a revision of Jewish history in the region Paradoxically the two distinct economic orientations inward and outward simultaneously advanced both the integration of the Jews into the larger Byzantine economy and their segregation as a self contained body economic Dr Holo finds that the Jews routinely leveraged their internal even exclusive systems of law and culture to break into occasionally to dominate Byzantine markets In doing so they challenge our concept of Diaspora life as a balance between the two competing impulses of integration and segregation The success of this enterprise furthermore qualifies the prevailing claim of Jewish economic decline during the Commercial Revolution

The Poet and the World Joachim Yeshaya, Elisabeth Hollender, Naoya Katsumata, 2019-07-08 A collection of seventeen essays on pre modern Hebrew poetry in honor of Wout van Bekkum The articles in this volume all seek to examine how the religious cultural and social context in which the poet functioned impacted on and is visible either explicitly or more elliptically in their poetical oeuvre For this purposes a broad understanding of world has been accepted including both the natural world and the constructed one society culture language as well as the spiritual and emotional world History a pillar of the man made constructed world has been used to determine the boundaries from Late Antiquity to the Middle Ages and in instances where the topic connects to older traditions to Early Modern Judaism i e pre modern Hebrew and Aramaic poetry The articles in this volume in the breadth of their temporal and spatial range and their multiplicity of approaches and methodologies highlight the richness of contemporary scholarship on Hebrew poetry The volume invites the reader to engage with this astonishing body of poetry while providing a glimpse into the world of the pay anim and the cultures and societies from which they drew their ininspiration and to which they made such important contributions

Historical Dictionary of Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt, Jr., 2023-07-25 Egypt is the world's oldest continuous country with a recorded past of over 6 000 years Often invaded conquered and occupied by foreign armies Egypt has never lost its identity The Egyptians of today although they have changed their language once and their religion twice descend mainly from the Egyptians who built the Giza Pyramids and the Temple of Karnak who served Alexander the Great and his heirs who submitted to Augustus Caesar and raised much of the grain that fed the Roman Empire who started Christian monasticism and the veneration of the Virgin Mary and who advanced and sustained Muslim learning in what is now the world's oldest functioning university. It was and is one of the most important countries in the world. Historical Dictionary of Egypt Fifth Edition contains a chronology, an introduction and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has more than 600 cross-referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics, economy, foreign relations, religion and culture. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Egypt.

From Scrolls to Scrolling Bradford A. Anderson, 2020-06-22 Throughout history the study of sacred texts has focused almost exclusively on the content and meaning of these writings. Such a focus obscures the fact that sacred texts are always embodied in particular material forms, from ancient scrolls to contemporary electronic devices. Using the digital turn as a starting point, this volume highlights material dimensions of the sacred texts of Judaism, Christianity and Islam. The essays in this collection investigate how material aspects have shaped the production and use of these texts within and between the traditions of Judaism, Christianity and Islam from antiquity to the present day. Contributors also reflect on the implications of transitions between varied material forms and media cultures. Taken together, the essays suggest that materiality is significant for the academic study of sacred texts as well as for reflection on developments within and between these religious traditions. This volume offers insightful analysis on key issues related to the materiality of sacred texts in the traditions of Judaism, Christianity and Islam, while also highlighting the significance of transitions between various material forms, including the current shift to digital culture.

Early Medieval Rome and the Christian West, 2021-10-01 This illustrated book is a coherently conceived collection of interdisciplinary essays by distinguished authors on the city of Rome and its contacts with western Christendom in the early Middle Ages c. 500-1000 AD. The first part integrates historical, archaeological, numismatic and art historical approaches to studying the transition of the city of Rome from Antiquity to the Middle Ages and offers groundbreaking new analyses of selected sites and problems. Attention is given to the economic, social, religious and cultural history of the city. In the second part of the volume, historical, archaeological, liturgical and palaeographical approaches address Rome's contacts and influence in Latin Christendom in this period, with particular regard to Rome's place within Italian politics and its cultural influence in Carolingian Francia and Anglo-Saxon England.

The Medieval Islamic Hospital Ahmed Ragab, 2015-10-14 The first monograph on Islamic hospitals, this volume examines their origins, development, architecture, social roles and connections to non-Islamic institutions.

The Oxford Handbook of the Abrahamic Religions Adam Silverstein, Guy G. Stroumsa, Moshe Blidstein, 2015-10-01 The Oxford Handbook of the Abrahamic Religions includes authoritative yet accessible studies on a wide variety of topics dealing comparatively with Judaism, Christianity and Islam as well as with the interactions between the adherents of these religions throughout history. The comparative study of the Abrahamic Religions has been undertaken for many centuries. More often than not, these studies reflected a polemical rather than an ecumenical approach to the topic Since the nineteenth century the comparative study of the Abrahamic Religions has not been pursued either intensively or systematically and it is only recently that the comparative study of Judaism Christianity and Islam has received more serious attention This volume contributes to the emergence and development of the comparative study of the Abrahamic religions a discipline which is now in its formative stages This Handbook includes both critical and supportive perspectives on the very concept of the Abrahamic religions and discussions on the role of the figure of Abraham in these religions It features 32 essays by the foremost scholars in the field on the historical interactions between Abrahamic communities on Holy Scriptures and their interpretation on conceptions of religious history on various topics and strands of religious thought such as monotheism and mysticism on rituals of prayer purity and sainthood on love in the three religions and on fundamentalism The volume concludes with three epilogues written by three influential figures in the Christian Jewish and Muslim communities to provide a broader perspective on the comparative study of the Abrahamic religions This ground breaking work introduces readers to the challenges and rewards of studying these three religions together
