Security: China's Conditional Multilateralism and Great Power Entente Jing-dong Yuan, According to Dr Jing dong Yuan China now recognizes that multilateral engagement is unavoidable and indeed can be useful in advancing China's interests. China's embrace of multilateralism however varies depending upon the particular forum and specific issue. Furthermore Dr Yuan contends China remains leery of entering into arrangements that might constrain its independence and flexibility. This change in China's attitude toward multilateralism is a significant one that has important implications for U.S. national security strategy and for U.S. interests in the Asia Pacific.

Asia-Pacific Regional Security Assessment 2017 Tim Huxley, William Choong, 2023-05-31 This book offers an analysis of the four central regional security themes relevant to the policy focussed discussions at the annual IISS Shangri La Dialogue. Namely: The evolving roles of the United States and China in Asia Pacific security; Responses by the US and regional states to regional security tensions particularly in the South China Sea; Emerging security questions relating to nuclear weapons, missiles and military cyber capabilities; The prospects for regional security cooperation including the challenges for the ASEAN centred architecture.

Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Werner Draguhn, Eva Manske, Jürgen Rüland, 2013-04-03 The Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) was founded in 1989. Since then the forum has developed into a major player in tripartite relations between North America, East Asia and Europe. The Seattle and Bogor Summits were landmark events suggesting to many observers a gravitational shift in the world economy and world politics. Yet the Asian financial crisis had a sobering effect on high flying expectations as APEC contributed little to crisis management. In the light of such contradictory performance distinguished scholars here examine APEC's achievements and failures, its role and functions in international relations, its linkages with regional organisations and the interplay between the forum and national interests of major factors in the region.

ASIA-PACIFIC REGIONAL SECURITY ASSESSMENT 2025 The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), 2025-05-28 The Asia Pacific Regional Security Assessment (APRSA) examines key regional security policies and challenges relevant to the proceedings of the IISS Shangri La Dialogue Asia's premier defence summit convened by the International Institute for Strategic Studies. It is published and launched at the Dialogue and the issues analysed within its covers are central to discussions at the event and beyond. This twelfth edition of the APRSA covers six chapters and is written by 21 IISS experts from across its offices in London, Berlin, Manama, Washington and Singapore and includes original maps, graphs, charts and tables. The chapters collectively examine how major security policies and trends across the Asia Pacific are often significantly shaped by seemingly non-security dynamics from industrial globalisation to domestic and bureaucratic politics. The special topic chapter this year will examine defence industrial partnerships involving regional and extra regional powers in the Asia Pacific as well as their aims and challenges. The other five chapters cover the following topics: The second Trump administration's redrawing of the international security landscape; Japan's concerns over the growing ties between China, North Korea and Russia; Emerging underwater security trends in the Asia Pacific; Military cyber maturity in the Asia Pacific.
