UPDATED illustrations include photographs of common nursing skills Foundations of School Counseling Cher N. Edwards, Mary Amanda Graham, 2022-10-31 Interweaves the perspectives of school counseling educators with those of practitioners in the trenches

This foundational text for school counselors in training is the only book to have chapters coauthored by counselor educators and practicing school counselors. It delivers easily accessible information based on a scholarly foundation of best practice recommendations from the field and research-based data-driven content including school counseling interventions, issues for professional practice, and a toolkit of helpful resources. The book is distinguished by its in-depth examination of the day-to-day role of the school counselor in elementary, middle, and high school settings, often a different reality than the recommended practice by the ASCA National Model, along with a commitment to cultural competency and social justice throughout. Providing a platform for the contributions of historically underrepresented voices, the text links theory and practice to provide readers with tangible and concrete strategies to implement. It covers the nuts and bolts of school counseling interventions, including individual, group, classroom guidance, and crisis intervention. Each chapter begins with a K-12 student testimony to highlight the impact of school counseling interventions and to promote a better understanding of student needs. This strengths-based text also examines a variety of contemporary topics that strongly affect students, including an entire chapter on LGBTQIA issues and coverage of Anti-Racism policies and Virtual Counseling. Additional features include Voices from the Field and Practical Applications that demonstrate real scenarios in practice. Instructor's will also have access to the Instructor's Manual, Test Bank, and chapter-based PowerPoint presentations.

Key Features: Merges the perspectives of counselor educators with the frontline experiences of practicing school counselors. Examines in depth the day-to-day responsibilities of the school counselor. Grounded in a scholarly foundation of research-based best practice recommendations. Delivers student testimony about how school counseling has affected them. Includes illustrative case studies and challenging discussion questions. Details school counseling interventions and other practical applications. Embraces a commitment to cultural competency and social justice throughout.

Foundations of Art Therapy Meera Rastogi, Rachel P. Feldwisch, Michelle Pate, Joseph Scarce, 2022-06-30 Foundations of Art Therapy

Theory and Applications is an essential and comprehensive introduction to the field of art therapy that blends relevant psychological and neuroscience research theories and concepts and infuses cultural diversity throughout each chapter. The text includes full color photos, informative charts, and case examples and is divided into four parts beginning with the basics of art therapy knowledge and concluding with professional practices in art therapy. The fundamentals of art therapy section includes coverage of art therapy founders, art materials, multicultural perspectives, intersections with neuroscience, and research methods. An overview and in depth explorations of different theoretical approaches to the practice of art therapy are covered in the second part of the book. A bio psycho social approach integrates current research on art therapy with specific populations: children, mental health, older adults, and trauma. The book concludes with art therapy professional practices in group, concepts, community based art therapy, and developing a career in the field. Each chapter contains chapter objectives, practical applications, ethical considerations, reflection questions, experiential exercises, and a list of terms. The unique practical and interdisciplinary approach of this text provides a solid base for understanding the field of art therapy and is well suited for use in undergraduate art therapy courses. This book will appeal to those who want an introduction to the field, theories, research, and practice, and those seeking a comprehensive understanding on the foundations of art therapy. Full color photos, informative charts, and case examples. Definitions, key details, and clear explanations of major concepts. Evidence based research and attention to diversity, equity, inclusion, and justice in each chapter. Reader experiential activities and reflection questions to enhance deeper levels of processing. Instructor resources that include chapter outlines, experiential classroom activities, and lecture enhancements, multiple choice and short answer questions for each chapter.

Neuroscience-Informed Counseling Thomas A. Field, Laura K. Jones, Lori A. Russell-Chapin, 2024-03-28. As professional counselors learn more about neuroscience, they need guidance on how to integrate this new knowledge into counselor education and counseling practice with clients. The purpose of this updated edition is to provide a comprehensive resource for translating and applying neuroscientific concepts to the theory and practice of counseling. The authors provide guidance as to how counselors integrate neuroscience into their work with the hope of better understanding and identifying methods for effectively and responsibly incorporating key principles of neuroscience into the profession. This new edition incorporates the 2024 CACREP Standards as markers of learning to ensure that CACREP accredited programs have the information needed to apply neuroscientific concepts to all the major areas of counseling practice. This volume addresses the 2024 entry level educational standards of the main accrediting body of the counseling profession, CACREP. Each of the eight common core areas of counseling knowledge and skills are covered: professional counseling orientation, social and cultural foundations, human growth and development, career development, helping relationships, group counseling and group work, testing and assessment, research and program evaluation. Several 2024 CACREP Standards that are integrated into the eight common core standards such as the impact of crises, disaster, and traumatic events, the neurobiology of addictions, wellness, and optimal performance and psychopharmacology are also addressed Some chapters also focus on doctoral level 2024 CACREP standards for counselor education and supervision To purchase print copies please visit the ACA Store Reproduction requests for material from books published by ACA or any other questions about ACA Publications should be directed to publications@counseling.org ACA no longer provides complimentary print desk copies Digital evaluation copies may be requested from Wiley by clicking the link above and completing the details about your institution and course Foundations of Mental
