Hughes,2023 Taking a logical sequence to follow the journey of the patient from anaesthesia to surgery then on to the post anaesthetic recovery area this new edition of Perioperative Practice provides guidance on all aspect of patient care and support Assessing and Managing the Acutely Ill Adult Surgical Patient Fiona McArthur-Rouse,Sylvia Prosser,2008-04-15 Assessing and managing the acutely ill adult surgical patient focuses on major surgical conditions and interventions commonly encountered in District General Hospitals which potentially require intensive monitoring and intervention. It emphasizes the importance of thorough assessment and interpretation of clinical data and provides the necessary knowledge to help nurses make sense of their findings and to integrate theory and practice in relation to surgical care. Part one addresses principles of surgical care for all patients undergoing surgery including pre operative assessment and preparation, the peri operative period and post operative recovery, post operative pain management and psychosocial aspects of surgery which underpin the knowledge and rationale for practice. Part two considers specific surgical conditions and interventions organised according to surgical specialities. Each chapter considers the underlying patho physiology, investigation and diagnosis, assessment, monitoring and management of common acute surgical conditions within that specialty.

Foundations for Operating Department Practice: Essential Theory for Practice Hannah Abbott, Helen Booth, 2024-03-07. It is my belief that this book should be included on the reading list of all ODP programmes and Perioperative HEI Programmes.

John Dade, RODP PGCMedEd Immediate Past President The Association for Perioperative Practice. This book is suitable for both pre registration learners and post registration practitioners to explore theory and concepts which are related directly to the role of the ODP and the broader scope of professional practice in contemporary healthcare.

Helen Lowes, National AHP Education and Training Lead for Operating Department Practitioners NHS England UK. This book is different to others as it celebrates being an Operating Department Practitioner by staying focused on the things that matter to ODPs in providing patients with a high standard of safe and dignified care. Will be recommended to my Student ODPs.

John Tarrant, Senior Lecturer Faculty of Health Social Sciences Bournemouth University UK. Written by Operating Department Practitioners. ODPs for Operating Department Practitioners: this book is key reading for all ODP students, qualified professionals, practitioners, theatre managers and even surgeons and anaesthetists who wish to better understand the modern role of the ODP. Thoroughly revised and updated.

Foundations for Operating Department Practice 2nd edition supports both pre and post registration ODPs throughout their academic studies and beyond in their professional careers. It covers Working in the Perioperative Team, Research and Evidence Based Practice, Patient Safety, Psychosocial Aspects of Operating Department Practice, Ethics and Legal Frameworks, Reflection, Leadership and Management, Professional Practice, Lifelong Learning and Continued Professional Development. Each chapter gives examples of case studies and pedagogy designed to help ODP students see the relevance of these issues to their everyday practice and enhance learning and study. This book is the first of its kind to bring together the fundamental professional knowledge that supports and underpins the ODPs practice to enable them to deliver effective, compassionate and evidence based care to the patient.

Hannah Abbott is President of the College of Operating Department Practitioners (CODP) and an ODP with clinical and academic experience. She is currently Head of College of Health and Care Professions at Birmingham City University UK. Helen Booth is an ODP with many years experience and was a former senior lecturer and specialised in bioethics. She is currently collaborating with the College of Operating Department Practitioners as a professional advisor and has been instrumental in driving the profession forward
