The Future Church of 140 BCE Bernard J. Lee, 1995 A century and a half before the time of Jesus a movement of educated Jewish laity initiated a profound transformation of Judaism Bernard Lee uses this as a metaphor for a hidden revolution in the U S Catholic Church today the development of a lay interpretation of Catholic Christian identity He proposes an ecclesiology that believes that the Spirit is God's gift to the entire people of God without privilege or prejudice Accordingly some form of dialogic community is ecclesologically appropriate to give the lay experience of faith a legitimated voice in the telling of the Catholic story i e a place in the interpretive structure of Catholic community BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by

The Metaphorical Society Daniel Rigney, 2001-03-21

This book introduces the novice reader to modern social theory through the creative exploration of eight major metaphors that have shaped Western understandings of human society Rigney vividly yet concisely examines each major theoretical perspective in sociology including functionalism conflict theory rational choice and symbolic interactionism He shows how each of these theories is rooted in a particular metaphorical tradition Over decades and centuries Rigney argues social theorists have variously likened societies to organisms and living systems to machines battlefields legal systems marketplaces games theatrical productions and discourses Most interestingly Rigney deftly shows how nearly all Western social theories fit with one or more of the metaphors He emphasizes a humanistic understanding of society with an emphasis on the creative agency of social actors and communities The book offers students a rich understanding of social theory yet it is simultaneously concise and broad ranging allowing instructors to further pursue detailed exploration of any perspectives they choose

What are They Saying about Theological Reflection? Robert L. Kinast, 2000 Theological reflection is a form of theologizing that begins with lived experience correlates this with the sources of Christian faith and draws out concrete implications for praxis Robert Kinast finds five distinct types of theological reflection from within this common form ministerial spiritual wisdom feminist inculturation and practical theology Each of these styles is analyzed in terms of the type of experience it favors the way it connects this experience to theology and what sort of praxis it envisions The end result is a succinct overview of this wide ranging and diverse approach to theology BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Salomon, 2003-08      Once a Christian Wayne Talbot, 2017-07-11 You worship what you do not know we know what we worship for salvation is of the Jews But the hour is coming and now is when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth for the Father is seeking such to worship Him God is Spirit and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth John 4 22-24 Jesus spoke these words to a Samaritan woman but the author believes that they should be directed to Christians of all denominations Jesus preceded these words by stating that the hour is coming when you will neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem worship the Father Central to the prophecies is a return to Jerusalem from where the Father will be worshipped forever Why would Jesus contradict the Father Contradictions such as these were largely responsible for the author doubting the authenticity of the texts or if the texts are authentic then one must doubt the claims of Jesus being the prophesied Messiah There were two key issues that the author sought to resolve separately 1 Does Christianity truly follow the footsteps of Jesus of Nazareth or did Rome invent its own Jesus a man who never was and 2 Was Jesus the prophesied Jewish mashiach of the kingly line of David Other contentious issues would resolve from those two Resulting from wide ranging research the author concluded that neither Christian precept was true Believing in God and walking away from Christianity was his only choice      Critical Intersections M.D. Litonjua, 2006-06-19 Life is all about intersections Living is where sorrow meets joy where pain encounters ecstasy where the weakness of the flesh is buoyed by the strength of faith where love conquers all doubts and betrayals Marriage is for better and worse for richer and poorer in sickness and health it is for life and death Spirituality is the arduous integration of lifes dispositions and tendencies of ones urges and habits for the whole to reach out in transcendence to ones fellow human beings and to God Growth to Christian maturity is actualizing the intersecting because cruciform demands of love of God and love of neighbor which follows the path that leads from Good

Friday to Easter Sunday Academic life is also becoming one of intersections After the increasing structural differentiation and functional specialization characteristic of modernity academic disciplines are critically intersecting and cross fertilizing with each other for integration enrichment and further enlightenment The behavioral sciences need genetics and biology for a more adequate explanation of human behavior Homo oeconomicus of neoclassical economics is complemented by the realities of power of homo sociologicus Theology calls on the social sciences in addition to its ancient ancilla philosophy to make moral sense of social and global problems Interdisciplinary courses try to make connections between the disciplines students have studied and to integrate the breadth and the depth of knowledge they have been exposed to Freedom and necessary interrelationship between sensus fidelium tradition Scripture theology and the magisterium Ormond Rush provides fresh perspectives on a number of issues He proposes that tradition and Scripture are the products of the sensus fidelium and that the inspiration of Scripture is best understood in terms of the Holy Spirit working through the sensus fidelium In addressing the role of the sensus fidei in the lives of individual believers the book provides a unique approach to the way Christians make sense of their faith within the diverse contexts of daily life It shows how the imaginative capacity of the sensus fidei forms a foundational notion for understanding the diversity of spiritualities inculturations and contextualizations of the Gospel in the history of the church up to the present This ecclesial activity of interpreting the Christ event through the sensus fidelium enables the church to proclaim the Gospel in new times and cultures throughout history The Eyes of Faith proposes that for an effective teaching of the faith to contemporary Christians the distinctive roles of the magisterium and of theology must be conceived primarily in terms of and in relationship to the ecclesial Spirit given capacity of the sensus fidelium

Roots for Radicals Edward T. Chambers, 2018-01-25 The successor to the legendary activist Saul Alinsky, Edward T. Chambers pioneered a set of principles and practices that have guided community organizations throughout the US and the world. Roots for Radicals remains his definitive reflection on these fundamental principles of community activism: how as public citizens we can navigate the gap between the world as it is and as it should be, between self-interest and self-sacrifice, and in doing so create lasting change for our communities. In the face of the increasingly turbulent politics of the 21st century, Chambers's book has never been more relevant. AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program, American Academy of Religion, Meeting, 1996
