Fudge, 2003 Grounded in primary source research this boldly revisionist book examines the doctrine of salvation in Oneness Pentecostalism United Pentecostal Church from its origins through its several developmental stages The gradual rise of a literal interpretation of Acts 2:38 eliminated a tradition of doctrinal diversity within Oneness thought which regarded salvation as occurring at repentance prior to water and Spirit baptism With this development a main link to the wider stream of evangelical Christianity was severed The water and Spirit theology resulted in a form of Christianity which does not necessarily require the cross in any meaningful sense for salvation This study recovers the lost theological tradition associated with important figures such as Howard A. Goss, A. D. Gurley, W. M. Greer, C. H. Taddon, Wynn T. Stairs, Earl Jacques, E. P. Wickens, John Paterson and the Pentecostal Church Incorporated Combining traditional historical methodology and theological research with the principles of a broadly based oral history this study argues for a theological diversity within the history of Oneness Pentecostalism and in so doing bridges an important gap in the history and theology of the United Pentecostal Church

The Great Revival John B. Boles,2014-07-11 Drawing upon the religious writings of southern evangelicals John Boles asserts that the extraordinary crowds and miraculous transformations that distinguished the South s First Great Awakening were not simply instances of emotional excess but the expression of widespread and complex attitudes toward God Converted southerners were starkly individualistic interested more in gaining personal salvation in a hopelessly evil world than in improving society As Boles shows in this landmark study the effect of the Revival was to throw over the region a conservative cast that remains dominant in contemporary southern thought and life
