From Sign To Image The Moroccan Carpet:

From Sign to Image Abdelkebir Khatibi, Ali Amahan, 1995 This text is among the first to delve deeply into the little known history of Moroccan carpets Among the revelations this book provides is the correction of the widely held belief that no Moroccan or Tunisian carpets predates the 19th century There are three sections covering the historical technical and aesthetic significance of Morocco's carpet weaving heritage The technical and aesthetic sections are the most exhaustive the former covering the three main styles of carpets and the latter exploring the various styles and thoughts that inspire the imagery of the carpets Abdelkébir Khatibi Jane Hiddleston, Khalid Lyamlahy, 2020 Abdelk bir Khatibi is one of the most important voices to emerge from North Africa in postcolonial studies This book is the first to offer a thoroughgoing analysis in English of all aspects of his multifaceted thought as it ranges from Moroccan politics to Arabic calligraphy and from decolonisation to interculturality Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan

Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies The Somali Within Brioni Simone, 2017-07-05 The recent histories of Italy and Somalia are closely linked Italy colonized Somalia from the end of the 19th century to 1941 and held the territory by UN mandate from 1950 to 1960 Italy is also among the destination countries of the Somali diaspora which increased in 1991 after civil war Nonetheless this colonial and postcolonial cultural encounter has often been neglected Critically evaluating Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari's concept of minor literature as well as drawing on postcolonial literary studies The Somali Within analyses the processes of linguistic and cultural translation and self translation the political engagement with race gender class and religious discrimination and the complex strategies of belonging and unbelonging at work in the literary works in Italian by authors of Somali origins Brioni proposes that the minor Somali Italian connection might offer a major insight into the transnational dimension of contemporary Italian literature and Somali culture Dictionnaire berbère

After Orientalism ,2014-11-27

The debate on Orientalism began some fifty years ago in the wake of decolonization While initially considered a turning point Edward Said s Orientalism 1978 was in fact part of a larger academic endeavor the political critique of colonial science that had already significantly impacted the humanities and social sciences In a recent attempt to broaden the debate the papers collected in this volume offered at various seminars and an international symposium held in Paris in 2010 2011 critically examine whether Orientalism as knowledge and as creative expression was in fact fundamentally subservient to Western domination By raising new issues the papers shift the focus from the center to the peripheries thus analyzing the impact on local societies of a major intellectual and institutional movement that necessarily changed not only their world but the ways in which they represented their world World history which assumes a plurality of perspectives leads us to observe that the Saidian critique applies to powers other than Western European ones three case studies are considered here the Ottoman Russian and Soviet and Chinese empires Other essays in this volume proceed to analyze how post independence states have made use of the tremendous accumulation of knowledge and representations inherited from previous colonial regimes for the sake of national identity as well as how scholars change and adapt what was once a hegemonic discourse for their own purposes What emerges is a new landscape in which to situate research on non Western cultures and societies and a road map leading readers beyond the restrictive dichotomy of a confrontation between West and East With contributions by Elisabeth All s L on Buskens St phane A Dudoignon Baudouin Dupret Edhem Eldem Olivier Herrenschmidt Nicholas S Hopkins Robert Irwin Mouldi Lahmar Sylvette Larzul Jean Gabriel Leturcq Jessica Marglin Claire Nicholas Emmanuelle Perrin Alain de Pommereau Fran ois Pouillon Zakaria Rhani Emmanuel Szurek Jean Claude Vatin Mercedes Volait

International African Bibliography ,2000 Learning as Development Daniel A. Wagner,2017-10-04 Learning is the foundation of the human experience It begins at birth and never stops a continuous and malleable link across life stages of human development Disparities in learning access and outcomes around the world have deep consequences for income social mobility health and well being For international development practitioners faced with today s unprecedented environmental and geopolitical pressures learning should be viewed as a touchstone and target for those seeking to truly effect global change This book traces the path of international development work from its pre colonial origins to the emergence of economics as the dominant discipline in the field and lays out a new agenda for policymakers researchers and practitioners from early education through adulthood Learning as Development is an attempt to rethink international education in a changing world Thrown Away Child Louise Allen,2017-12-28 FROM THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Thrown Away Child is a memoir covering Louise Allen s abusive childhood in a foster home how she survived using her love of art as a sanctuary and how she hopes to right old wrongs now by fostering children herself and campaigning for the improvement of foster care services It is a compelling and inspirational story This book gives a voice to the many children who grew up unhappily in care The Physical and Virtual Space of the Consulting Room Deborah Wright,2022-06-27 In this thought provoking book Deborah Wright examines the role of both space and objects as they become manifest in the psychoanalytic process and looks at how the role of the consulting room in the therapeutic process is both primitive and transferential Wright explores spatialisation as simultaneously being a psychological projection of meaning and as physically acting upon the environment utilised to master the undifferentiated relentless internal pressure of instinct Throughout The Physical and Virtual Space of the Consulting Room she considers the spatial aspects of work with patients by foregrounding the importance of the consulting room and its contents including the impact of changes of consulting room travelling and in working virtually Illustrated with clinical material and hand drawn artwork Wright orients the reader in the new territory by going beyond the existing literature that considers the objects and space of the consulting room solely as transferential aspects of the analyst The interdisciplinary approach in this book calls on psychoanalytic theory and technique as well as philosophy history archaeology and anthropology which will be of great interest to all psychoanalytically orientated therapists as well as anyone clinical or non clinical who makes use of psychoanalysis Nancy Bush's Nowhere Bundle:

Nowhere to Run, Nowhere to Hide & Nowhere Safe Nancy Bush, 2013-10-01 Some Secrets When Liv Dugan ducks out of work for lunch it's just an ordinary day When she returns she stumbles onto a massacre All her colleagues at Zuma Software have been shot Only luck has left Liv unscathed and that might be running out Will Follow You Liv suspects the shootings are tied to her past and to the package she recently received from her long dead adoptive mother Sensing she's being followed Liv jumps into a stranger's car and orders him to drive Her hostage complies listening carefully as her story unwinds Skeptical at first he ultimately begins to believe all Liv's fears are justified To Your Grave Together Liv and her unlikely confidant try to uncover the truth about her adoptive family her birth parents and her troubled childhood Because somewhere in Liv's past is a secret worth killing for and a nightmare she can never outrun There Are Sins Do unto others Carefully he carves the words into their flesh The victims are all young brunette pretty But she's the one he really wants The others are just a way to ease the rage that has festered for years until the only thing that calms him is his knife slicing through skin You Never Live Detective September Rafferty Nine to her friends recognizes the artwork that arrives in the mail She created it back in second grade Now a killer's words are slashed across it in what looks like blood He knows her September's investigation leads to her old classmate Jake Westerly She wants to believe Jake is innocent But trusting anyone could be her last mistake To Regret Every slight every slur he remembers them all They turned him into a monster and now they will suffer for it Starting with September he'll show them that the past can never stay hidden and the time of vengeance is at hand The Guilty She senses their twisted desires before she meets them It's as if fate is helping her stop these monsters from preying on others the way she was preyed upon And after she has delivered brutal justice she'll let the whole world see their guilt Will Atone I must pay for what I've done The first victim naked bound frozen to death wore the note strung around his neck Now there's another note this one attached to Detective September Rafferty's own stepbrother Stefan survives but September is sure he knows more than he's saying Someone is eliminating suspected sexual predators And the only thing more dangerous than a madman is a killer who's ruthlessly sane

Nowhere to Hide Nancy Bush, 2011-10-24 THERE ARE SINS Do unto others Carefully he carves the words into their flesh The victims are all young brunette pretty But she's the one he really wants The others are just a way to ease the rage that has festered for years until the only thing that calms him is his knife slicing through skin YOU NEVER LIVE Detective September Rafferty Nine to her friends recognizes the artwork that arrives in the mail She created it back in second grade Now a killer's words are slashed across it in what looks like blood He knows her September's investigation leads to her old classmate Jake Westerly She wants to believe Jake is innocent But trusting anyone could be her last mistake TO REGRET Every slight every slur he remembers them all They turned him into a monster and now they will suffer for it Starting with September he'll show them that the past can never stay hidden and that the time of vengeance is at hand Pulse pounding Readers will tear through the pages Publishers Weekly

A Return to the Object Susanne Küchler, Timothy Carroll, 2020-11-26 This book draws on the work of anthropologist Alfred Gell to reinstate the importance of the object in art and society Rather than presenting art as a passive recipient of the artist's intention and the audience's critique the authors consider it in the social environment of its production and reception A Return to the Object introduces the historical and theoretical framework out of which an anthropology of art has emerged and examines the conditions under which it has renewed interest It also explores what art does as a social and cultural phenomenon and how it can impact alternative ways of organising and managing knowledge Making use of ethnography museological practice the intellectual history of the arts and sciences material culture studies and intangible heritage the authors present a case for the re-orientation of current conversations surrounding the anthropology of art and social theory This text will be of key interest to students and scholars in the social and historical sciences arts and humanities and cognitive sciences Too

Many Sparrows in Zaragoza Justin Fenech, 2013-04 How far can the good life go before it turns bad This is the moral issue Nadi the young psychologist from Malta is made to face when she visits her old friend in Zaragoza What starts off as a relaxing holiday soon becomes a revelation The charismatic Maltese ex-pat Luis her host in Zaragoza has stumbled upon a lifestyle replete with eccentricities and the imagination He is living a hedonistic aesthetic liberal life with a group of like-minded Spaniards A group of young people rebelling against life's boring routine They want to enrich their lives with constant beauty inspired by Romans Greeks nature al Andalus theatre and everything else life has to offer Nadi is instantly taken in She adopts Luis lifestyle But at what cost In a time when traditional values and modern principles are colliding more and more this is a relevant examination of moral values in the 21st century All in the backdrop of rich charming and regal Zaragoza Imagined Museums Katarzyna Pieprzak, 2010-01-01 Imagined Museumsexamines the intertwined politics surrounding art and modernization in Morocco from 1912 to the present by considering the structure of the museum not only as a modern institution but also as a national monument to modernity asking what happens when museum monuments start to crumble In an analysis of museum history exhibition policy the lack of national museum space for modern art and postmodern exhibit spaces in Morocco Katarzyna Pieprzak focuses on the role that art plays in the social fabric of a modernizing Morocco She argues that the decay of colonial and national institutions of culture has invited the rethinking of the museum and generated counter-museums to stage new narratives of art memory and modernity Through these spaces she explores a range of questions How is modernity imagined locally How are claims to modernity articulated How is Moroccan modernity challenged globally In this first cultural history of modern Moroccan art and its museums Pieprzak goes beyond the investigation of national institutions to treat the history and evolution of multiple museums from official state and corporate exhibition spaces to informal popular street level art and performance spaces as cultural architectures that both enshrine the past and look to the future
