From The Ancien Regime To The Popular Front:

The French Revolution Gary Kates, 1998 Gary Kates The French Revolution is a collection of key papers at the forefront of current research on the French Revolution. Kates contributes a clear and thorough introduction which contextualizes the historiographical controversies surrounding the Revolution, weaving them into a sophisticated narrative. Taken together, the pieces challenge orthodox assumptions concerning the origins, development, and long-term historical consequences of the Revolution, including the inevitability of the Terror, subsequent issues for nineteenth-century French history, the intellectual connection, the late role of Napoleon, and the feminist dimension. Contributors include Albert Soboul, Colin Lucas, Keith Michael Baker, William H. Sewell Jr., Colin Jones, Timothy Tackett, John Markoff, Lyn Hunt, and Olwen Hufton. Spain in International Context, 1936-1959 Christian Leitz, David Dunthorn, 1999-09-01 This collection of articles covers a crucial period of Spain's history from the rise of Franco to the crucial Stabilization Plan of 1959. Separated into four chronologically divided sections, it focuses largely on the international reactions to and the involvement of other powers in the Spanish Civil War, including an examination of French and British reactions to the situation in Spain and Soviet, German, and Italian involvement, and the period of the Second World War with a particular focus on Spain's relations to the Axis and Vichy France, especially during the period of 1940-41 when a Spanish entry into the war was most likely. The fate of the Spanish refugees and exiles in Britain and France is also highlighted, as is Spain's international position in the aftermath of the Second World War and particularly the attitude of the former Allies: Britain, France, the Soviet Union, and the USA. The volume ends with Spain's response to the unfolding economic co-operation and integration in Western Europe. The Working Class and Politics in Europe and America 1929-1945 Stephen Salter, John Stevenson, 2014-09-25 This volume contains a series of essays which examine various regimes and working classes of such countries as Italy, France, Poland, the USA, the Soviet Union, and Great Britain in the early 20th century. French Foreign and Defence Policy, 1918-1940 Robert Boyce, 2005-06-20 With contributions from leading scholars in the field, this book examines France's strategies for protection against Germany and appeasement during this period and places interwar relations in a larger European context. Managing the Franc Poincaré Kenneth Mouré, 2002-04-30 An explanation of France's deflationary policy during the Depression. Léon Blum Joel Colton, 1987 John Colton is a meticulous researcher and a fine craftsman. In his political biography of Leon Blum, these two qualities are beautifully blended: none of the available evidence appears to have been overlooked, and the enormous mass of variegated material has been transmuted into a polished, richly tapestried and absorbing narrative. The Making of a Fiscal-Military State in Post-Revolutionary France Jerome Greenfield, 2022-09-01 Drawing on a wide range of archival and published documents, this book explains how the French Revolution of 1789 transformed the French state and its fiscal system, and how further reforms in the nineteenth century created a durable post-revolutionary state. Instead of presenting the nineteenth-century French state as primarily the creation of the Revolutionary and Napoleonic era, as most scholars have done Jerome Greenfield emphasises the importance of counter revolution after 1815 in establishing a stable durable state capable of surviving revolutions in 1830 and 1848 intact The years 1815 1870 thus marked a crucial period in the development of the French state not least in stimulating the economic interventionism for which it became notorious and facilitating the resurgence of France as a great power after Napoleon's defeat at Waterloo The Cambridge History of Eighteenth-Century Political Thought Mark Goldie, Robert Wokler, 2006-08-31 Publisher description Hearings Before the Committee on Un-American Activities, House of Representatives, Eighty-fourth Congress, Second Session Estados Unidos.
