the ancient divinities Bulletin Italy America Society (New York, N.Y.),1929 From Song to Book Sylvia Huot, 2019-05-15 As the visual representation of an essentially oral text Sylvia Huot points out the medieval illuminated manuscript has a theatrical performative quality She perceives the tension between implied oral performance and real visual artifact as a fundamental aspect of thirteenth and fourteenth century poetics. In this generously illustrated volume Huot examines manuscript texts both from the performance oriented lyric tradition of chanson courtoise or courtly love lyric and from the self consciously literary tradition of Old French narrative poetry. She demonstrates that the evolution of the lyrical romance and dit narrative poems which incorporate thematic and rhetorical elements of the lyric was responsible for a progressive redefinition of lyric poetry as a written medium and the emergence of an explicitly written literary tradition uniting lyric and narrative poetics Huot first investigates the nature of the vernacular book in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries analyzing organization page layout rubrication and illumination in a series of manuscripts She then describes the relationship between poetics and manuscript format in specific texts including works by widely read medieval authors such as Guillaume de Lorris Jean de Meun and Guillaume de Machaut as well as by lesser known writers including Nicole de Margival and Watriquet de Couvin Huot focuses on the writers characteristic modifications of lyric poetics their use of writing and performance as theme their treatment of the poet as singer or writer and of the lady as implied reader or listener and the ways in which these features of the text were elaborated by scribes and illuminators Her readings reveal how medieval poets and book makers conceived their common project and how they distinguished their respective roles The Chicago Theological Seminary Register Chicago Theological Seminary, 1928 Alumni directory issue 1859 1951 v 44 no 4 v 45 no 1 A Social and Religious History of the Jews: Ancient times Salo Wittmayer Baron, 1952 Political Theory for Mortals John Evan Seery, 1996 Among the contemporary political issues that cry out for theoretical articulation Seery suggests are abortion politics ethnic cleansing suicide assistance national reparations environmental degradation and capital punishment The Messianic Apostasy Colin E Davis, 2022-01-06 The Messianic Apostasy A Synopsis of the Historical Deviation of Pauline Orthodoxy provides a reappraisal of early Pauline theology in the context of 1st century Palestine and the Hellenistic world in which Paul lived This scholarly text examines the heretical elements within St Paul s theology in the context of his contemporary Judaism and how the early Christian church of the first three centuries of the Common Era drew its influences from him Theological scholar Colin E Davis investigates the philosophical and religious zeitgeist of the period and Paul's eventual development of the concept of his Christ figure along possible Nazarean lines Among the Gentiles Luke Timothy Johnson, 2009-01-01 Presenting a fresh inquiry into early Christianity and Greco Roman paganism Luke Timothy Johnson begins with a broad definition of religion as a way of life organized around convictions and experiences concerning ultimate power The Voyage and Shipwreck of St. Paul; with Dissertations on the Sources of the Writings of St. Luke, and the Ships and Navigation of the Antients James Smith (of Jordanhill.), 1856 The
