From peddlers to merchant princes Penrose Scull,1967 On the Word of a Jew Nina Caputo,Mitchell B. Hart,2019-01-14 Fourteen essays examining the dynamics of trust and mistrust in Jewish history from biblical times to today What if anything does religion have to do with how reliable we perceive one another to be When and how did religious difference matter in the past when it came to trusting the word of another In today s world we take for granted that being Jewish should not matter when it comes to acting or engaging in the public realm but this was not always the case The essays in this volume look at how and when Jews were recognized as reliable and trustworthy in the areas of jurisprudence medicine politics academia culture business and finance As they explore issues of trust and mistrust the authors reveal how caricatures of Jews move through religious political and legal systems While the volume is framed as an exploration of Jewish and Christian relations it grapples with perceptions of Jews and Jewishness from the biblical period to today from the Middle East to North America and in Ashkenazi and Sephardi traditions Taken together these essays reflect on the mechanics of trust and sometimes mistrust in everyday interactions involving Jews Highly readable and compelling this volume marks a broadly significant contribution to Jewish studies through the underexplored dynamic of trust Rebekah Klein Pej ov author of Mapping Jewish Loyalties in Interwar Slovakia An exemplary compendium on how to engage with a major concept trust while providing load of gripping new information new theorization of otherwise well covered material and meticulous attention to textual and sociological sources Gil Anidjar author of Blood A Critique of Christianity Fables Of Abundance Jackson Lears,1995-11-03 Fables of Abundance ranges from the traveling peddlers of early modern Europe to the twentieth century American corporation exploring the ways that advertising collaborated with other cultural institutions to produce the dominant aspirations and anxieties in the modern United States The Early Republic and Antebellum America Christopher G. pricing in business to business settings The Routledge Companion to Marketing History D.G. Brian Jones, Mark Tadajewski, 2016-01-29 The Routledge Companion to Marketing History is the first collection of readings that surveys the broader field of marketing history including the key activities and practices in the marketing process With contributors from leading international scholars working in marketing history this companion provides nine country specific histories of marketing practice as well as a broad analysis of the field including the histories of advertising retailing channels of distribution product design and branding pricing strategies and consumption behavior While other collections have provided an overview of the history of marketing thought this is the first of its kind to do so from the perspective of companies industries and even whole economies The Routledge Companion to Marketing History ranges across many countries and industries engaging in substantive detail with marketing practices as they were performed in a variety of historical periods extending back to ancient times It is not to be missed by any historian or student of business Roads Taken Hasia R. Diner, 2015-01-01 Between the late 1700s and the 1920s nearly one third of the world's Jews emigrated to new lands Crossing borders and often oceans they followed paths paved by intrepid peddlers who preceded them This book is the first to tell the remarkable story of the Jewish men who put packs on their backs and traveled forth house to house farm to farm mining camp to mining camp to sell their goods to peoples across the world Persistent and resourceful these peddlers propelled a mass migration of Jewish families out of central and eastern Europe north Africa and the Ottoman Empire to destinations as far flung as the United States Great Britain South Africa and Latin America Hasia Diner tells the story of millions of discontented young Jewish men who sought opportunity abroad leaving parents wives and sweethearts behind Wherever they went they learned unfamiliar languages and customs endured loneliness battled the elements and proffered goods from the metropolis to people of the hinterlands In the Irish Midlands the Adirondacks of New York the mining camps of New South Wales and so many other places these traveling men brought change to themselves and the families who later followed to the women whose homes and communities they entered and ultimately to the geography of Jewish history

Mama Learned Us to Work Lu Ann Jones, 2003-10-16 Farm women of the twentieth century South have been portrayed as oppressed worn out and isolated Lu Ann Jones tells quite a different story in Mama Learned Us to Work Building upon evocative oral histories she encourages us to understand these women as consumers producers and agents of economic and cultural change As consumers farm women bargained with peddlers at their backdoors A key business for many farm women was the butter and egg trade small scale dairying and raising chickens Their earnings provided a crucial margin of economic safety for many families during the 1920s and 1930s and offered women some independence from their men folks These innovative women showed that poultry production paid off and laid the foundation for the agribusiness poultry industry that emerged after World War II Jones also examines the relationships between farm women and home demonstration agents and the effect of government sponsored rural reform She discusses the professional culture that developed among white agents as they reconciled new and old ideas about women's roles and shows that black agents despite prejudice linked their clients to valuable government resources and gave new meanings to traditions of self help mutual aid and racial uplift Pioneers, Engineers, and Scoundrels Beverly Rae Kimes, 2004-11-30 2005 Thomas McKean Memorial Cup Winner Voted most important original research in automobile history by The Antique Automobile Club of America Best Of Books Winner 2005 International Automotive Media Awards Author Beverly Rae Kimes 2005 International Automotive Media Award for Lifetime Achievement Honorary This cast of characters provides the lens through which award winning author Beverly Rae Kimes focuses on the early years of the American automobile industry While some names Ford Dodge Buick and more are easily recognized this book also introduces snapshots of lesser known but vitally important actors in this dramatic saga The famous the infamous and the unknown are brought together by their common dedication to this great invention and united by the fascinating stories that characterize each person The Mom & Pop Store Robert Spector, 2010-09-07 Business journalist Robert Spector grew up working in his family's butcher shop in Perth Amboy New Jersey where he learned invaluable lessons about the independent retail business Mom pop stores have always brought people together fostering a sense of neighborhood identity and camaraderie and are the glue that connects people in big cities and small towns alike Long fascinated by the direct connection people feel as merchants and customers when they do business in neighborhood stores at shops that are not super sized but human sized and responding to the growing buy local movement across the country Spector set out to discover the state and the state of mind of independent retailing in America From a specialty soda pop shop in Los Angeles to a florist shop in Dayton Ohio from a bakery in Chicago to a bookstore in Washington State mom pop store owners shared their stories with him revealing the spirit and tenacity of the small business owner dealing with frustration and defeat as well as triumph and success Spector also interweaves the history of independent retailing The Mom Pop Store reflects the story of this country for it embraces and cross references every ethnic group and virtually every element of our society Ladies on the Lot Helene M. Lawson, 2000-05-30 In this unique and lively ethnography of women who sell cars sociologist Helene M Lawson and the Ladies on the Lot take readers behind the scenes of one of the last bastions of a predominantly male workplace the car dealership Linking the women's own stories within the broader framework of gender and occupation Lawson presents an engaging and important case study on the impact of gender differences and behavior in the workplace In doing so Ladies on the Lot makes an original contribution to the field and will be of interest for a wide variety of courses including gender and occupations the sociology of work the sociology of women and various courses in women's studies and qualitative methods Virtualism James G. Carrier, Daniel Miller, 2020-08-25 We live in a time of economic virtualism whereby our lives are made to conform to the virtual reality of economic thought Globalization transnational capitalism structural adjustment programmes and the decay of welfare are all signs of the growing power of economics one of the most potent forces of recent decades In the last thirty years economics has ceased to be just an academic discipline concerned with the study of economy and has come to be the only legitimate way to think about all aspects of society and how we order our lives Economic models are no longer measured against the world they seek to describe but instead the world is measured against them found wanting and made to conform This profound and dangerous change in the power of abstract economics to shape the lives of people in rich and poor countries alike is the subject of this interdisciplinary study Contributors show how economics has come to portray a virtual reality a world that seems real but is merely a reflection of a neo classical model and how governments the World Bank and the IMF combine to stamp the world with a virtual image that condemns as irrational our local social and cultural arrangements Further it is argued that virtualism represents the worrying emergence of new forms of abstraction in the political economy of which economics is just one example

Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. From Peddlers To Merchant Princes A Hist : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. From Peddlers To Merchant Princes A Hist : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Popen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
