M Bougherira, 2004-08-02 This book by providing an up to date systematic analytical account on transformations in Algeria makes a valuable contribution to the literature on this country that has not yet received much attention in the Anglo American academy Its distinctive feature is that it entirely focuses on Algeria thus departing from existing studies dealing with the entire geographical area of North Africa or the Maghreb

Annuaire Europeen 2000/European Yearbook 2000 Francis Rosensteel, 2001-07-01 The year 2000 s most significant international event was almost certainly neither political nor military but scientific the announcement in June that the human genome had been almost totally decoded Future generations may well see this as a major turning point opening the way to radical changes in diagnosis prognosis and medical treatment Often compared with the space programme this vast enterprise still generates misgivings this new power which human beings now have to modify the genetic heritage of living creatures raises fundamentally new ethical questions and society as a whole will have to find the answers In fact the accelerating pace of scientific and technical progress seems to be reviving atavistic anxieties some rational others less so Recent public health crises including the mad cow disease scare which lasted into 2000 have fuelled these fears The public s rejection of GMOs Genetically Modified Organisms verging on a crusade in some countries tells its own story As regards conflict 2000 saw the Middle East peace process grind to a halt and the Intifada resume In Europe the situation in Kosovo and Chechnya both the scenes of fighting in 1999 stayed precarious Peace and democracy did score some successes however particularly in Europe the centre left s victory in Croatia sweeping former President Tudjman s party off the scene the democratic party s triumph in Bosnia and the fall of the Milosevic regime in Serbia

Integrating Africa Martin Welz, 2012-10-02 The African Union AU is a continental organization that comprises every African state except for Morocco is indeed a pioneering undertaking Its ambitious aim is to integrate all member states with the ultimate goal of forming the United States of Africa Despite several attempts to build a union the AU has remained an intergovernmental organization one reason being a perceived unwillingness of the AU states to pool their national sovereignties This study seeks to comprehend why Africa s integration process has not moved towards a supranational organization using a novel approach It shifts the usual perspective away from the organization level and provides the first comprehensive and systematic analysis of the AU from the perspective of the states themselves It includes 8 comprehensive case studies Algeria Burkina Faso Ethiopia Mauritius South African Swaziland Uganda and Zimbabwe to help understand their foreign policy and provide key

African Industrial Development and European Union Co-operation Francis Matambalya, 2014-08-27 Of the 54 African states only South Africa is categorised by the United Nations Industrial Development Organization UNIDO amongst industrialised countries The economic activities in Africa are still dominated by the production and trade of agricultural and mineral commodities This situation is in spite of the longstanding Africa European Union EU co operation which intends among other things to support Africa's industrialisation endeavours Imperatively a long road to substantive levels of industrialisation still lies ahead of most African countries This raises the question as to what role the international community could and should play in the twenty first century to provide the support needed to expedite Africa's industrial transformation This book argues that to supplement the initiatives of each African country international partnerships of both a North South and South South nature will serve better purposes if they are leveraged to develop productive capacities in African economies In order to enable the African countries to leverage their traditional partnership with the EU for industrialisation a paradigm shift is obligatory A feasible model should emulate the Japanese led flying geese model and the Chinese led bamboo capitalism model

Enhancing Regional Governance and Multilateral Cooperation in Maghreb Andrea Ranelletti, 2018-09-28. L'ambizione di questo volume è presentare nuovi paradigmi di analisi del processo di integrazione regionale nel 17 Maghreb da un punto di vista politico-economico e della gestione della sicurezza. Frequentemente trascurata nell'ambito degli studi comparativi regionali, il regionalismo maghrebino rappresenta un fenomeno complesso che può fornire interessanti informazioni sulle intersezioni dei fattori domestici e internazionali che danno forma alle fortune economiche, agli interessi nell'ambito della sicurezza e sulle attività culturali degli attori politici. Katzenstein 1996: 5. Frequently neglected in the field of comparative regionalist studies, Maghrebi regionalism represents a complex phenomenon which could provide interesting information concerning the intersection of the international and domestic factors that shape the economic fortunes, security interests and cultural activities of political actors. Katzenstein 1996: 5.

Multilateralism in the 21st Century Caroline Bouchard, John Peterson, Nathalie Tocci, 2013-08-15. This volume focuses on multilateralism in the 21st century and examines how and how effectively the EU delivers on its commitment to effective multilateralism. Presenting results generated by MERCURY, an EU research programme into multilateralism, this book addresses a central research question: does the EU deliver on its commitment to effective multilateralism? Globalisation has created powerful new incentives for states to cooperate and has generated renewed interest in multilateralism. While a large body of work exists on multilateralism as a concept, it continues to be ill-defined and poorly understood. This book sheds new light on 21st-century multilateralism by exploring conceptual approaches as well as generating innovative empirical knowledge on its practice. Research on EU external relations has increasingly focused on the concept of effective multilateralism. Yet the application of this concept as a guiding principle of EU foreign policy in non-security policy areas has rarely been examined. This book explores whether the EU is pursuing effective multilateralism in specific policy areas including trade, climate change and conflict resolution and distinct geographical and institutional settings both internal to the EU and in specified regions. International organisations (IOs) and bilateral partnerships. This book offers evidence-based, actionable policy lessons from Europe's experience in promoting multilateralism. The European Union and Multilateralism in the 21st Century will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations, international organizations and European Union politics and foreign policy.

The Challenge of Differentiation in Euro-Mediterranean Relations Esther Barbé, Anna Herranz-Surrallés, 2013-09-13 The tension between the aim of creating sustainable multilateral region building dynamics and the need to find more differentiated and flexible forms of cooperation has been ever present in Euro Mediterranean relations The proliferation of different and partially overlapping initiatives in recent years the Euro Mediterranean Partnership the European Neighbourhood Policy and the Union for the Mediterranean is a plain expression of this tension The 2011 episodes of regime change in the Arab world have once again placed the debate about differentiation in EU's relations with Southern and Eastern Mediterranean Countries at the top of the Union's foreign policy agenda This book contributes to theoretical and practical debates on whether differentiation processes can aid or hinder policy convergence processes and region building efforts more widely The contributions to this collection assess the actual significance and consequences of differentiation in Euro Mediterranean relations through sector specific in depth analyses covering issue areas as varied as environmental policy migration foreign and defence policy trade energy civil protection and democracy promotion The particular angle and comprehensive analysis of this book will make it of great interest for both scholars and policy makers alike in a moment when Euro Mediterranean are in need of a thorough rethink This book was based on a special issue of Mediterranean Politics
