From The Old Marketplace:

From the Old Marketplace Joseph Buloff, 1991 A young Jewish boy ethe old much fought over city of Vilnius ethe rumblings and then the reality of World War I eall combine in this book to create a striking historical document of a period during which Europe and the Western world were changed forever In the streets and alleys of Vilnius actor Joseph Buloff came of age learning the arts of shape altering necessary for survival during successive occupations by Cossacks Germans Bolsheviks and Poles it is this fascinating vanished milieu that he brings to life in From the Old Marketplace For a little boy the old marketplace was full of enchantment a world in itself and Buloff brilliantly describes the eccentric inhabitants who peopled his childhood Berchick the orphan Barve s son the intellectual and historian the starveling Matzek Arkashka the Cossack Joseph s mother the saintly yet practical Sarah and his father Benjamin who made a fortune in America and lost it again in Europe The boy came to realize his own Jewishness when Russian persecution forced the Jews to make the synagogue the center of their world He was driven by brutality hunger and ostracism to transform himself in spirit into the imaginary Chantille Jeantaigne Delacroix scourge of evil avenger of his people Conqueror of Death Joseph s accounts of daily life under unbelievably hard circumstances range from down to earth facts to soaring flights of fantasy eand his desperate acting in order to stay alive brought him his true vocation first on the scrounging amateur stage and then in the professional theatre Restore Georgetown Public Market United States. Fodor's Travel Publications, 2007 Suggests lodging food and sightseeing highlights along with travel tips and cultural information Cultural Contact and the Making of European Art since the Age of Exploration Mary D. Sheriff, 2010-06-21 Art historians have long been accustomed to thinking about art and artists in terms of national traditions This volume takes a different approach suggesting instead that a history of art based on national divisions often obscures the processes of cultural appropriation and global exchange that shaped the visual arts of Europe in fundamental ways between 1492 and the early twentieth century Essays here analyze distinct zones of contact between various European states between Asia and Europe or between Europe and so called primitive cultures in Africa the Americas and the South Pacific focusing mainly but not exclusively on painting drawing or the decorative arts Each case foregrounds the centrality of international borrowings or colonial appropriations and counters conceptions of European art as a pure tradition uninfluenced by the artistic forms of other cultures The contributors analyze the social cultural commercial and political conditions of cultural contact including tourism colonialism religious pilgrimage trade missions and scientific voyages that enabled these exchanges well before the modern age of globalization Contributors Claire Farago University of Colorado at Boulder Elisabeth A Fraser University of South Florida Julie Hochstrasser University of Iowa

Christopher Johns Vanderbilt University Carol Mavor University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Mary D Sheriff University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Lyneise E Williams University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Casting the Art of Rhetoric with Theater and Drama Adrienne E. Hacker Daniels, 2025-06-12 Casting the Art of Rhetoric with Theater and Drama Taking Center Stage explores rhetoric and theater as they relate to one another developing the understanding of rhetoric as theory and praxis This book addresses rhetorical themes and cultural resonances as well as the oft overlooked symbiosis of rhetoric and theater Rather than addressing audiences as either observers of rhetorical artifacts or theatrical performance this work demonstrates the intersection of the two which strengthens theatrical events and their cultural significance Overall the volume showcases the many ways in which an understanding of the relationship between rhetorical and poetic theories can benefit dramatic convention and the breaking thereof Hidden in Plain View Jacqueline L. Tobin, Raymond G. Dobard, 2011-05-25 The fascinating story of a friendship a lost tradition and an incredible discovery revealing how enslaved men and women made encoded quilts and then used them to navigate their escape on the Underground Railroad In Hidden in Plain View historian Jacqueline Tobin and scholar Raymond Dobard offer the first proof that certain quilt patterns including a prominent one called the Charleston Code were in fact essential tools for escape along the Underground Railroad In 1993 historian Jacqueline Tobin met African American quilter Ozella Williams amid piles of beautiful handmade quilts in the Old Market Building of Charleston South Carolina With the admonition to write this down Williams began to describe how slaves made coded quilts and used them to navigate their escape on the Underground Railroad But just as quickly as she started Williams stopped informing Tobin that she would learn the rest when she was ready During the three years it took for Williams s narrative to unfold and as the friendship and trust between the two women grew Tobin enlisted Raymond Dobard Ph D an art history professor and well known African American quilter to help unravel the mystery Part adventure and part history Hidden in Plain View traces the origin of the Charleston Code from Africa to the Carolinas from the low country island Gullah peoples to free blacks living in the cities of the North and shows how three people from completely different backgrounds pieced together one amazing American story With a new afterword Illustrations and photographs throughout including a full color photo insert Ancient Kanesh Mogens Trolle Larsen, 2015-09-17 The ancient Anatolian city of Kanesh present day Kltepe Turkey was a continuously inhabited site from the early Bronze Age through Roman times The city flourished c 2000 1750 BCE as an Old Assyrian trade outpost and the earliest attested commercial society in world history More than 23 000 elaborate clay tablets from private merchant houses provide a detailed description of a system of long distance trade that reached from central Asia to the Black Sea region and the Aegean The texts record common activities such as trade between Kanesh and the city state of Assur and between Assyrian merchants and local people The tablets tell us about the economy as well as the culture language religion and private lives of individuals we can identify by name occupation and sometimes even personality This book presents an in depth account of this vibrant Bronze Age Anatolian society revealing the daily lives of its inhabitants Jewish Culture and Urban Form Małgorzata Hanzl, 2022-09-26 Across a range of disciplines urban morphology has offered lenses through which we can read the city Reading the urban form when conflated with ethnographic studies enables us to return to past situations and recreate the long gone everyday life Urbanscapes the artefacts of urban life have left us the story portrayed in the pages of this book The notions of time and space contribute to depicting the Jewish Polish culture in central Poland before the Holocaust The research proves that Jewish society in pre Holocaust Poland was an example of self organising complexity Through bottom up activities it had a significant impact on the unique character of the spaces left behind Several features confirm this influence Not only do the edifices both public and private convey meanings related to the Jewish culture but public and semi private space also tell the story of long gone social situations The specific atmosphere that still lingers there recalls the long gone Jewish culture with the unique settlement patterns indicating a separate spatial order The Author reveals to the international cast of practitioners and theorists of urban and Jewish studies a vivid and comprehensive account This book will appeal to researchers and students alike studying Jewish communities in Poland and Jewish Polish society and urbanisation as well as all those interested in Jewish Polish Culture The Linguist Ellah Etemadi, 2011-07-13 The author born in Afghanistan escaped his country of origin after the invasion of the red army to become a US citizen He had no idea that one day after three decades he will go back to Afghanistan This time to serve the US Army in hopes of helping both the US and Afghanistan But was that ever possible The I. L. Peretz Reader I. L. Peretz, 2013-10-15 These short works from a master of Jewish literature offer a brilliantly evocative tribute to a bygone era Publishers Weekly Isaac Leybush Peretz is one of the most influential figures of modern Jewish culture Born in Poland and dedicated to Yiddish culture he recognized that Jews needed to adapt to their times while preserving their cultural heritage and his captivating and beautiful writings explore the complexities inherent in the struggle between tradition and the desire for progress This book which presents a memoir poem travelogue and twenty six stories by Peretz also provides a detailed essay about Peretz s life by Ruth R Wisse This edition of the book includes as well Peretz s great visionary drama A Night in the Old Marketplace in a rhymed performable translation by Hillel Halkin Lords and Towns in Medieval Europe Howard B. Clarke, Annegret Simms, 2017-07-14 This volume is based on possibly the biggest single Europe wide project in urban history In 1955 the International Commission for the History of Towns established the European historic towns atlas project in accordance with a common scheme in order to encourage comparative urban studies Although advances in urban archaeology since the 1960s have highlighted the problematic relationship between the oldest extant town plan and the actual origins of a town the large scale cadastral maps as they have been made available by the European historic towns atlas project are still necessary if we want to understand the evolution of the physical form of our towns By 2014 the project consisted of over 500 individual publications from over 18 different countries across Europe Each atlas comprises at least a core map at the scale of 1:2500 analytical maps and an explanatory text The time has come to use this enormous database that has been compiled over the last 40 years This volume itself based on a conference related to this topic that was held in the Royal Irish Academy in Dublin in 2006 takes up this challenge The focus of the volume is on the question of how seigneurial power influenced the creation of towns in medieval Europe and of how this process in turn influenced urban form Part I of the volume addresses two major issues the history of the use of town plans in urban research and the methodological challenges of comparative urban history Parts II and III constitute the core of the book focusing on the dynamic relationship between lordship and town planning in the core area of medieval Europe and on the periphery In Part IV the symbolic meaning of town plans for medieval people is discussed Part V consists of critical contributions by an archaeologist an art historian and an historical geographer By presenting case studies by leading researchers from different European countries this volume combines findings that were hitherto not available in English A comparison of the English and German bibliographies attached to this volume reveals some interesting insights as to how the focus of research shifted over time The book also shows how work on urban topography integrates the approaches of the historian archaeologist and historical geographer The narrative of medieval urbanization becomes enriched and the volume is a genuine contribution to European studies Vienna to Salzburg Robert I. C. Fisher, 2005 Suggests lodging food and sightseeing highlights along with travel tips and cultural information

The Birth of the Metropolis Jörg Oberste, 2021-10-11 Between 1150 and 1350 Paris grew from a mid sized episcopal see in Europe to the largest metropolis on the continent The population rose during these two centuries from approximately 30 000 to over 250 000 inhabitants The causes and consequences of this demographic explosion are thoroughly examined for the first time in this book by Jörg Oberste As it turns out the management of urban space is key to understanding one of the most dynamic processes of urbanisation in pre modern Europe Who decides on the new construction of streets squares and houses From whence does the multitude of new inhabitants come What are the consequences of this massive wave of immigration on urban society the economy and the keeping of the peace What kind of self understanding evolves from the heterogeneous construct of the rapidly growing city and what kind of external perceptions is late medieval Paris able to create When does the myth of the magical city on the Seine Heinrich Heine perpetuated to the present day come to be born Oberste's extensive investigation of the pertinent and wide ranging medieval sources sheds new light on these and other questions related to the significant expansion of the City of Lights in the Middle Ages The Boston Cooking-School Magazine of Culinary Science and Domestic Economics, 1899

Theatermachine Magda Romanska, Kathleen Cioffi, 2020-04-15 Theatermachine Tadeusz Kantor in Context is an in depth multidisciplinary compendium of essays that examine Kantor's work through the prism of postmemory and trauma theory and in relation to Polish literature Jewish culture and Yiddish theater as well as the Japanese German French Polish and American avant garde Hans Thies Lehmann's theory of postdramatic theater and contemporary developments in critical theory particularly Bill Brown's thing theory Bruno Latour's actor network theory and posthumanism provide a previously unavailable vocabulary for discussion of Kantor's theater Competition in the New Electronic Market United States. Congress. House. Committee on Commerce. Subcommittee on Finance and Hazardous Materials, 2000 Jews and Ukrainians in Russia's Literary Borderlands Amelia Glaser, 2012-02-22 Studies of Eastern European literature have largely confined themselves to a single language culture or nationality In this highly original book Glaser shows how writers working in Russian Ukrainian and Yiddish during much of the nineteenth century and the early part of the twentieth century were in intense conversation with one another The marketplace was both the literal locale at which members of these different societies and cultures interacted with one another and a rich subject for representation in their art It is commonplace to note the influence of Gogol on Russian literature but Glaser shows him to have been a profound influence on Ukrainian and Yiddish literature as well And she shows how Gogol must be understood not only within the context of his adopted city of St Petersburg but also that of his native Ukraine As Ukrainian and Yiddish literatures developed over this period they were shaped by their geographical and cultural position on the margins of the Russian Empire As distinctive as these writers may seem from one another they are further illuminated by an appreciation of their common relationship to Russia Glaser's book paints a far more complicated portrait than scholars have traditionally allowed of Jewish particularly Yiddish literature in the context of Eastern European and Russian culture Fodor's Essential Europe Fodor's Travel Guides, 2014-06-24 Written by locals Fodor's travel guides have been offering expert advice for all tastes and budgets for 80 years With its sophisticated culture rich history and abundant beauty both natural and man made the continent is a top destination for travelers But for those with limited time who want more guidance on must sees this book covers the top spots and must see sights in 24 countries This travel guide includes Dozens of maps A 16 page color insert with a brief introduction and spectacular photos that capture the top experiences and attractions throughout Europe Hundreds of hotel and restaurant recommendations with Fodor's Choice designating our top picks Multiple itineraries to explore the top attractions and what's off the beaten path Coverage of Austria Belgium Croatia Czech Republic France Germany Greece Hungary Ireland Italy The Netherlands Portugal Scandinavia and the Baltic States Slovenia Spain Switzerland Turkey and United Kingdom Planning to focus your trip more Check out Fodor's country and city guides across the continent including Croatia England France Germany Greece Italy Ireland Portugal Scotland Spain Switzerland as well as Amsterdam London Paris Prague Rome Vienna and more
