From Private To Public A Feminist Exploration Of Early Mothering:

From Private to Public Amy Rossiter, 1988 Feminists have forced us to critically re assess several pertinent issues relating to women In From Private to Public A Feminist Exploration of Early Mothering Amy Rossiter considers the contradictions of early mothering Including her own experience as a first time mother as well as those of three other women Rossiter keenly analyzes social factors that make early mothering both a joyous and an oppressive experience Incisive and invaluable From Private to Public is both for women who are mothers and for anyone who wants to understand the experience of early mothering

Mothering in Marginalized Contents: Narratives of Women Who Mother In the Domestic Violence Caroline Mcdonald-Harker, 2016-02-01 This book provides a rare and in depth examination of the narratives experiences and lived realities of abused mothers a group of women who despite being the victims are often criticized vilified and stigmatized for failing to meet dominant ideologies of what a good mother is should be because they have lived and mothered in domestic abuse relationships Based on a qualitative research study conducted with 29 abused mothers residing in abused women s shelters in Calgary Alberta this book highlights the ways that these mothers experience the dominant ideology of intensive mothering negotiate the resulting discourses of the good and the bad mother and ultimately find ways to exercise agency resistance and empowerment in and through their mothering This book discusses how abused mothers engage in empowered mothering by constructing valued fortified and liberating identities for themselves as mothers in the face of an ideology of intensive mothering that delegitimizes and subjugates them These mothers are not passive victims but rather are active agents who resist and question the idealized standards of intensive mothering as being restrictive and unachievable who view their mothering in a positive light even though they have lived and mothered in social milieus deemed outside the boundaries of acceptable mothering and who uphold that they are indeed worthy mothers despite their stigmatized status Particular attention is given to the ways that intersections of gender race and social class shape and influence abused mothers constructions of their mothering identities This book calls into question the false notion that there is only one standard one definition and one social location in which effective mothering is performed It is a voice against the judgment of mothers a call to end the oppressive and restrictive bifurcation of mothers into categories of either good or bad mothers and an attempt to re envision a more inclusive understanding of mothering This book is a movement towards the empowerment of all mothers regardless of differences in their lives and social circumstances

Feminism, Psychoanalysis, and Maternal Subjectivity Alison Stone, 2013-03-01 In this book Alison Stone develops a feminist approach to maternal subjectivity Stone argues that in the West the self has often been understood in opposition to the maternal body so that one must separate oneself from the mother and maternal care givers on whom one depended in childhood to become a self or in modernity an autonomous subject These assumptions make it difficult to be a mother and a subject an autonomous creator of meaning Insofar as mothers nonetheless strive to regain their subjectivity when their motherhood seems to have compromised it theirs cannot be the usual kind of subjectivity premised on separation from the maternal body Mothers are subjects of a new kind who generate meanings and acquire agency from their position of re immersion in the realm of maternal body relations of bodily intimacy and dependency Thus Stone interprets maternal subjectivity as a specific form of subjectivity that is continuous with the maternal body Stone analyzes this form of subjectivity in terms of how the mother typically reproduces with her child her history of bodily relations with her own mother leading to a distinctive maternal and cyclical form of lived time

Public Power, Private Interests and Where Do We Fit In? Edmund F. Byrne,1998 All over the world the statues of Mary are miraculously crying In the meantime a journalist in Washington D C is diverted away from her own personal demons when she takes it upon herself to question why the Vatican is not declaring these occurrences as miracles after witnessing the unexplainable phenomena herself The journalist suspects her nightly barrage of haunting nightmares about the violent murders of countless women from five thousand year old priestesses to women accused of being witches in the seventeenth century may have something to do with the answer as she investigates the biggest story of her life Women all over the world in the 21st century are feeling the awakening as the discovery of ancient artifacts are disproving the beliefs set forth by patriarchal religions for thousands of years When the journalist receives a visitation from a beautiful Goddess who at first appears to be the Virgin Mary she suddenly realizes that an ancient religious and political cover up has grossly distorted some very important historical truths As the journalist investigates and begins to publicly write about what she has uncovered death threats and terror follow next as powerful members of the world's patriarchal religions and the age old male run organizations that support them fight viciously to keep one of the world's oldest and most deceptive societal form of control against women hidden from the world But as intimidation and threats increase so too do the miracles and visitations from the real Sleeping Goddess as she awakens once again to bless and protect the world while igniting the hearts and souls of oppressed women everywhere
