Marco Cascella

From The East Conflict And Partition In Cyprus:

From the East Costas Yennaris, 2003 This account of Turkish policy towards Cyprus since the 1950s was first published in Greece to considerable critical acclaim What makes the book of such particular interest is the author's detailed study often from primary sources of Turkish ambitions to create a legal basis for the Turkish Cypriots demand for separate self determination and sovereignty The often painful consequences of cultivating mistrust between the Turkish and Greek Cypriot population are fully explained The author also considers the implications of creating reunification of Cyprus as a bi communal member state of the European Union where the human rights of all Cypriots are fully safeguarded Protectorate Cyprus

Gail Dallas Hook, 2015-02-17 A strategic outpost in the Eastern Mediterranean Cyprus was vital to British imperial ambitions in the East as the Ottoman Empire grew increasingly fragile in the nineteenth century Here Gail Dallas Hook describes the British occupation of Cyprus from 1878 to 1914 during which British government science and capital investment were installed alongside a new British colonial community building British Cyprus long before the island became a formal part of the British Empire Protectorate Cyprus further demonstrates how the British attempted to bring good government to Cyprus yet failed to resolve the issues of Muslim and Greek Orthodox divisions It is a unique representation of Britain's informal empire before World War I that has been little studied Protectorate Cyprus is a crucial addition to the history of the British Empire Modern Conflict in the Greater Middle East Spencer C. Tucker, 2017-04-17 This reference work covers the history of Middle East nations addressing military political diplomatic and ideological trends in each respective country and enabling readers to better understand the factors behind the crises shaping the Middle East today Modern Conflict in the Greater Middle East A Country By Country Guide is a concise reference for students exploring the importance of each nation state in the Middle East and their level of involvement in major conflicts in the region It supplies the broad historical background necessary for readers to understand each country's unique role in the conflicts that have characterized the region since the end of World War I The book also enables readers to grasp the various motives and ideologies that have shaped each nation's military objectives and to appreciate the political and social climates of each of these countries that propelled them into various wars The book presents a chapter by chapter discussion of the origins and impacts of war on specific Middle Eastern countries giving readers an in depth understanding of the global importance of the conflicts within the region These chapters along with detailed timelines sidebars and primary source documents will help readers grasp the connections between individuals developments and conflicts in the Middle East and events and developments such as European imperialism World Wars I and II U S foreign policy during and after the Cold War the formation of the state of Israel Arab nationalism the emergence of the oil industry in the region and the origins of radical Islam Museums and Photography Elena Stylianou, Theopisti Stylianou-Lambert, 2016-12-08 Museums and Photography combines a strong theoretical approach with international case studies to investigate the display of death in various types of museums history anthropology art ethnographic and science museums and to understand the changing role of photography in museums Contributors explore the politics and poetics of displaying death and more specifically the role of photography in representing and interpreting this difficult topic Working with nearly 20 researchers from different cultural backgrounds and disciplines the editors critically engage the recent debate on the changing role of museums exhibition meaning making and the nature of photography They offer new ways for understanding representational practices in relation to contemporary visual culture This book will appeal to researchers and museum professionals inspiring new thinking about death and the role of photography in making sense of it Middle East Conflicts from Ancient Egypt to the 21st Century Spencer C.

Zones of Conflict Vassilis K. Fouskas,2003-02-20 The US has major interests in the Balkans the Greater Middle East and the Eurasian zone which determine its political and military strategies in the region What are these interests and what strategies are used to ensure that they are maintained Examining the balance of power between the US the EU and key EU states Vassilis Fouskas offers a critique of US foreign policy and its underlying motivations Fouskas argues that the major US objectives include control over gas and oil producing zones safe transportation of energy to Western markets at stable prices and the elimination but not destruction of America s Eurasian competitors He asserts that US foreign policy is therefore driven by the desire to maintain a strategic partnership with key EU states while preventing the emergence of an alternative coalition in Eurasia capable of challenging US supremacy How does the US manage its interests in Eurasia and what are the particular strategies the EU has elaborated so far to deal with America s supremacy Has US foreign policy undergone a dramatic U turn after the end of the Cold War or for that matter after September 11th What are the roles of Germany France Britain and Turkey and how do EU Cyprus relations affect the balance of power This book tackles these questions and argues that the emergence of a social democratic administration in Eurasia is a feasible alternative to American unilateralism
