From Verismo To Experimentalism:

From Verismo to Experimentalism Sergio Pacifici, 1970 From verismo to experimentalism; essays on the modern Italian Sergio Pacifici, 1970 Understanding Luigi Pirandello Fiora A. Bassanese, 1997 This is an introduction to the life and literary contributions of a Nobel Prize winner and one of Italy's most distinguished writers Luigi Pirandello It evaluates the significance of his influence on 20th century literature

The Cambridge History of Italian Literature Peter Brand, Lino Pertile, 1999-08-28 Italy possesses one of the richest and most influential literatures of Europe stretching back to the thirteenth century This substantial history of Italian literature provides a comprehensive survey of Italian writing since its earliest origins Leading scholars describe and assess the work of writers who have contributed to the Italian literary tradition including Dante Petrarch and Boccaccio the Renaissance humanists Machiavelli Ariosto and Tasso pioneers and practitioners of commedia dell'arte and opera and the contemporary novelists Calvino and Eco The Cambridge History of Italian Literature sets out to be accessible to the general reader as well as to students and scholars translations are provided along with a map chronological chart and substantial bibliographies

Calvino and the Age of Neorealism, 1990-08 Italo Calvino's reputation as one of the great writers of our century rests chiefly on his allegorical fables and fantastic narratives whose inventiveness irreverence and elegant style are universally admired In this study the author focuses on Calvino's first novel The Path to the Nest of Spiders 1947 because in it she discerns a critical point of origin for Calvino's entire ethics of writing She shows how in The Path he challenges the poetics of objectivity of the Italian neorealists movement and offers a complex and ironic representation of the anti-Fascist armed resistance in Italy Situating Calvino's early work in its historical and cultural context the author reassesses Italian neorealism in terms of the theories and critical debates about realism of such critics as Lukacs Sartre Brecht Adorno and Barthes She analyzes neorealism's narrative practices and cultural and political implications while setting neorealism in the context of the resistance and the postwar Reconstruction in Italy and giving readings of major neorealist texts novels by Pavese and Vittorini films by Rossellini Visconti and others as well as relatively obscure minor ones The heart of the book consists of readings of The Path from four different but intersecting critical perspectives formalist narratological sociohistorical psychoanalytic and Bakhtinian The readings assess the importance of Calvino's beginnings for the body of his work and incorporate relevant references to his later fiction and critical essays Out of these multiple readings the ironic estrangement of the real through the act of writing itself emerges as his key narratological strategy

Italian Neorealism Charles L. Leavitt IV, 2020-07-02 This book seeks to redefine recontextualize and reassess Italian neorealism an artistic movement characterized by stories set among the poor and working class through innovative close readings and comparative analysis

The Folklore of Consensus Marcia Landy, 1998-05-28 Marcia Landy's The Folklore of Consensus examines the theatricality in the Italian popular cinema of the 1930s and early 1940s arguing that theatricality was a form of politics a politics of style While film critics no longer regard the commercial films of the era as mere propaganda they continue to regard the cinema under fascism as escapist diverting audiences from the harsh realities of life under fascism The Folklore of Consensus problematizes the notion of escapism examining the complexity that redeems the films from frivolity and evasion It shifts the focus from a preoccupation with cinema as the public and spectacular purveyor of fascinating fascism to a more immediate and intimate terrain that bears on formulations about the role of mass culture then and now Tradition, Modernity, and Postmodernity in Arabic Literature Issa J. Boullata, Kamal
