Advances in Pacific Basin Business, Economics and Finance Cheng-Few Lee, Min-Teh Yu, 2025-05-05 Advances in Pacific Basin Business Economics and Finance APBBEF is a peer reviewed journal published by Emerald Publishing and is designed to focus on interdisciplinary research in finance economics and management among Pacific Rim countries The Pacific Basin Cooperative Concept Sir John Grenfell Crawford, 1980 Paper presented at the 13th annual meeting of PBEC held in Sydney 1980 Economic Development and Cooperation in the Pacific Basin Hiro Lee, David W. Roland-Holst, 1998-09-28 First published in 1998 this volume brings together contributions from leading economic analysts around the Pacific Basin reporting on their research into three of the most important issues facing the region trade investment flows and the environmental effects of economic growth Each of these issues has important domestic and multilateral ramifications and the Pacific Basin s status as the world s most dynamic economic region makes this analysis relevant to policy makers and researchers in all countries The collection is unusual in offering appraisals from economists representing the principal economies of the region Among other contributions in the book are insights into the forces animating regional trade and investment detailed assessment of leading East Asian economies such as those of China Indonesia Japan Korea and Singapore and innovative research on economy environment linkages The Pacific Ranginui Walker, William M. Sutherland, 1988

APEC and the Construction of Pacific Rim Regionalism John Ravenhill, 2001 The Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC grouping is the first comprehensive economic arrangement to link countries from around the Pacific Rim Since its establishment in 1989 APEC has graduated from a ministerial level gathering of nine countries to an institution that stages annual summits has a permanent secretariat and whose twenty one members have committed themselves to establishing free trade in the region A decade after its foundation however members have been increasingly frustrated with the grouping s progress In this timely book John Ravenhill examines the reasons for APEC s establishment its evolution and the causes of its failures His conclusions address central questions in international relations about international collaboration and regionalism The book will interest all those concerned with broader questions about regional economic and political cooperation

Asia-Pacific Diplomacy Lawrence T. Woods, 2011-11-01 The emergence of Asia Pacific regionalism as witnessed by the increasing influence of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation forum and the annual ASEAN Post Ministerial Conference highlights one of the major trends in late twentieth century geopolitics and international relations Asia Pacific Diplomacy traces the evolution of the Pacific economic cooperation movement by examining the diplomatic contributions of three international nongovernmental organizations INGOs the scholarly Pacific Trade and Development Conference PAFTAD the business oriented Pacific Basin Economic Council PBEC and the multipartite academic business and government Pacific Economic Cooperation Council PECC Lawrence Woods also provides a historical perspective by assessing the work of the Institute of Pacific Relations forerunner of the INGOs This book makes an important contribution to the study of international political and economic institutions It argues that as the regional cooperation movement expands at the governmental level an understanding of the nongovernmental roots of that movement is required if the diplomatic contributions of the INGOs are to be retained

Trade and Structural Change in Pacific Asia Colin I. Bradford, Jr., William H. Branson, 2007-12-01 The rapid development of Pacific Asia over the past twenty years offers an excellent opportunity to analyze the dynamics of economic growth Trade and Structural Change in Pacific Asia explores the nature and causes of changes that have occurred in the economic structure of Pacific Asia the relationship between these changes and economic growth and the implications of these changes for trading relationships Themes in the research reported here includes the sectoral composition of output and trade rates of structural change in production and exports and their relation to economic growth the effect of abundant resource endowments on industrialization and manufactured exports the nature of the mix between active government policies and market forces and the balance between demand determined and supply determined industrialization and exports Many of the issues explored have important implications for United States foreign economic policy and the volume includes a look at the basic economic and political forces influencing shifts in United States trade policy in the postwar period A timely and informative analysis the volume probes the causes and consequences of economic growth in Pacific Asia focusing on the interaction of exports of manufactured goods and the developmental process The results reported contribute to ongoing research in structural change and economic policy and will be important to economists working on empirical patterns in international trade and the process of economic development

Pacific Economic Co-operation Sir John Grenfell Crawford, Greg F.-H. Seow, 1981 Japan and the Asian Pacific Region Masahide Shibusawa, 2018-02-21 This book first published in 1984 examines the spectacular economic growth of the Asia Pacific region in the 1970s and 1980s How did a group of non Western nations in an area plagued by war achieve such success so quickly Japan was the driving force in the region and a dominant influence on the world economy but had no clearly defined role in the politics of the region or the world This book considers Japan's position the problems it faced and how it perceived and responded to events in the region It provides clues to understanding the basic pattern of Japan's relations its evolving role in the region and the world and how this role might develop in the future
