Economics Against The Grain Volume:

Macroeconomic Instability and Coordination Axel Leijonhufvud, 2000 Axel Leijonhufvud has made a unique contribution to the development of macroeconomic theory This volume draws together his insightful essays dealing with the extremes of economic instability great depressions high inflation and the transition from socialism to a market economy In several of the papers Leijonhufvud brings a neo institutionalist perspective to the problems of coordination in economic systems The papers within Macroeconomic Instability and Coordination some of them already considered classics deal with the questions that dominated Leijonhufvud s interest throughout his career as an economist what are the limits to an economy s capacity to coordinate the activities of its members How does the behavior of the system change under extreme conditions In what ways does its performance depend upon the institutions that govern the market process The Economics of Imperfect

Knowledge G. B. Richardson, 1998-01-01 G B Richardson s writings although from 1953 to 1972 are still very relevant to modern economics The central theme of this book of his papers is that the knowledge upon which business decisions are taken is limited and uncertain and that the availability of it is affected by market structure The Theory of International Trade John Somerset Chipman, 2008-01-01 John Chipman is one of the most esteemed economists working in international trade theory Presented in two volumes this work presents Chipman s survey articles on the theory of international trade The papers explore the evolution of thought from classical to new classical and on to modern theory Variants in Economic Theory Hal R. Varian, 2000-02-24 Hal Varian in the course of a long and distinguished career has made a seminal contribution to many branches of economics His pathbreaking work on the development of economic theory finance industrial organization and econometrics is represented in this important new collection of key articles published over the last twenty years Exemplary Economists: North America Roger Backhouse, Roger Middleton, 2000-01-01 Focuses on leading economists who were born or have spent the greater part of their lives in America On the Foundations of Monopolistic Competition and Economic Geography Buford Curtis Eaton, Richard G. Lipsey, 1997 On the Foundations of Monopolistic Competition and Economic Geography presents important work by B Curtis Eaton and Richard G Lipsey on product differentiation including studies of spatial differentiation and the industrial structures that give rise to this phenomenon The book opens with an introductory overview essay and explains why the authors reject the neoclassical competitive vision of the economy The essays included cover issues such as the theory of multinational plant location product differentiation monopoly models of value theory capital with special reference to entry and exit barriers and entry equilibrium the existence of pure profit and the theory of market preemption This volume will be welcomed by academics and researchers interested in the microeconomic issues of competition monopoly firm behaviour and markets Economic Institutions and the Demand and Supply of Labor Orley Ashenfelter, 1997 This is the third of three volumes containing published and unpublished economic papers of Orley Ashenfelter written between 1966 and 1995 The volumes begin with an interview in which Professor Ashenfelter covers highlights of his professional life a discussion of many of the essays and papers featured in these volumes and his reflections on the development of economics over the course of his career Education Training and Discrimination and Employment Labor Unions and Wages are the companion volumes to Economic Institutions and the Demand and Supply of Labor which together provide a distinguished collection of Ashenfelter's essays

The Selected Essays of Richard G. Lipsey: Microeconomics, growth and political economy Richard G. Lipsey, 1997 Keeping the Water Flowing Kendra Okonski, Mohit Satyanand, 2007 Contributed articles chiefly with reference to India includes articles on water resources development in various countries of the world including India

Macroeconomic Issues from a Keynesian Perspective A. P. Thirlwall, 1997 This important volume brings together 22 major essays written by A P Thirlwall over the last 30 years in the field of macroeconomics and in particular on multiplier analysis unemployment inflation growth and the balance of payments These outstanding essays make pioneering contributions such as the input output formulation of the foreign trade multiplier the derivation and use of the dynamic Harrod foreign trade multiplier the measurements of types of unemployment the estimation of regional Phillips curves and the formalization of Kaldor's model of regional growth rate differences Many of the essays are written from a Keynesian perspective and the recent revival of interest in Keynesian economics means that the essays are as relevant today as when they were written especially those on the nature of unemployment the causes of inflation and the link between the balance of payments and economic growth Macroeconomic Issues from a Keynesian Perspective will be of interest not only to professional economists but also to policymakers in developed and developing countries for the insights it provides into the functioning of the macroeconomy
