Spectacular Nature Susan G. Davis, 2023-09-01 This is the story of Sea World a theme park where the wonders of nature are performed marketed and sold With its trademark star Shamu the killer whale as well as performing dolphins pettable sting rays and reproductions of pristine natural worlds the park represents a careful coordination of shows dioramas rides and concessions built around the theme of ocean life Susan Davis analyzes the Sea World experience and the forces that produce it the theme park industry Southern California tourism the privatization of urban space and the increasing integration of advertising entertainment and education The result is an engaging exploration of the role played by images of nature and animals in contemporary commercial culture and a precise account of how Sea World and its parent corporation Anheuser Busch succeed Davis argues that Sea World builds its vision of nature around customers worries and concerns about the environment family relations and education While Davis shows the many ways that Sea World monitors its audience and manipulates animals and landscapes to manufacture pleasure she also explains the contradictions facing the enterprise in its campaign for a positive public identity Shifting popular attitudes animal rights activists and environmental laws all pose practical and public relations challenges to the theme park Davis confronts the park's vast operations with impressive insight and originality revealing Sea World as both an industrial product and a phenomenon typical of contemporary American culture Spectacular Nature opens an intriguing field of inquiry the role of commercial entertainment in shaping public understandings of the environment and environmental problems This is the story of Sea World a theme park where the wonders of nature are performed marketed and sold With its trademark star Shamu the killer whale as well as performing dolphins pettable sting rays and reproductions of pristine natural worlds t Proceedings of the ...
