Germany 2000 Years:

Germany Kurt F. Reinhardt, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1950 edition Germany: From the Nazi Era to German unification Kurt Frank Reinhardt, Gerhart Hoffmeister, 1992 Germany Kurt F. God Blew, and They Were Scattered Book II Genevieve Tallman Arbogast, 2006-06 Continuing with the saga of the family Taelmann anglicized to Talman Tallman Tollman Talma etc GOD BLEW AND THEY WERE SCATTERED BOOK II Peter s People The Colonial Years the author Genevieve Tallman Arbogast has from extant records laced together events that would have defined the lives of descending generations This narrative begins in Denmark in Schleswig Holstein As the map changes years later with the end of the Thirty Years War 1614 1648 Denmark will be sharing a political life in common with Germany and Sweden as will the formerly independent city state of Hambrough However when the allied families of Talman and de Lichte arrived in Schleswig Holstein it was under the jurisdictional rule of a German prince Duke John Adolphus who would within five years of their arrival ascend to the throne of Scandinavia as Christian IV of Denmark For the purposes of this undertaking however it will suffice to say that Holstein s records then and now can claim a German heritage The allied families of Taelmann and de Lichte arrived in Schleswig Holstein about 1583 following their narrow escape from the Spanish Netherlands Prior to their migration they had been threatened by the rejuvenated Spanish Inquisition revived during the Counter Reformation movement of the Catholic Church in the sixteenth century As disclosed in Book I the Jesuits of that movement were responsible for the burnings of so many so called Protestant heretics that their crimes against humanity have been compared to that of Hitler s modern day holocaust As time elapses the children of the next generation are caught up in the wars of Scandinavia which evolves to eventually draw them into the conflicts of the Thirty Years War As might be expected several members of the Taelmann family are lost on the battlefield As a result the elder Peter Taelmann tries to convince his fourth generation sons to leave Schleswig for opportunities in the New World That begins an adventure for young Peter Taelmann Talman which in 1647 takes him to the Island of Barbados where he accepts a position on Island Plantation under the employ of Philip Hill During his tenure of almost three years in the capacity of physician and apothecary he strives to rehabilitate abused and injured African captives who are being brought to the island by Captain le Blanc the slaver The care for work agreement between the planter and the captain of the Africaneer makes it possible for failing Island Plantation to continue growing tobacco The struggle to return the traumatized victims to health while running a plantation brings many poignant moments introducing such delightful characters as Matilda Prissy and Mingoe Rudie Braithewaite and his wife Evie who operate a tavern on the wharf at Surinam bring color to the narrative as they introduce the young physician to the island and its history before they become victims of the burgeoning slavery business As matters become intense on the island safety for the inhabitants of Island Plantation becomes a concern Mistress Hill urges her husband to return with her and their daughter to their former home in Newport Rhode Island However obsessed with the idea of again making the plantation profitable Hill instead begins to search for backing to convert his cash crop from tobacco to sugar cane Those plans include the development of a shipping service necessary to transport sugar and its by products to the North American mainland for exportation to Europe In the interim the young physician becomes attracted to the planter s beautiful daughter and as the attraction is reciprocal Miss Ann manipulates Peter into riding with her to exercise her father s thoroughbred horses As he is taught the skills of an equestrian many evenings are spent riding along a sandy stretch of beach which separates Island Plantation from the Atlantic Ocean T Germany 2000 Years Vol 1 The Rise and Fall of the "Holy Empire". Kurt F. Reinhardt,1961 GERMANY'S END Augustin Ostace,2018-12-12 It is rational or irrational to believe toward an End of Germany If the people of German what really has remained out of Germany after the World War Two is very determined to do so and wants to fulfill it the author is enforced to recognize it and to sign it despite of his singular protesting against it The History is always merciless as well as with individual and national and the big mistakes of Germans particularly in the last century through Worls War One World War Two and World Emigration War Three throughout of their two Millennia long history will be costly paid by the whole of Germany and by the whole of Europe Teutonologist
