Geopolitical Relations And Regional Cooperation A Study Of South Asia:

Geopolitical Relations and Regional Cooperation Krishan Gopal,1996 South Asia and China Adluri Subramanyam Raju,2021-10-05 This book brings together new perspectives on China's engagement with South Asian countries. It examines emerging trends in the ties between China and South Asia in the geo-political, geo-strategic and geo-economics context and looks at opportunities for collaboration and connectivity between them. Drawing on extensive case studies, this volume discusses issues such as China's overarching Belt Road Initiative (BRI), regional responses and alternatives to BRI, the new politico-economic drivers in the region, India's China puzzle, the Wuhan informal summit, Nepal and its security dilemma in the region, and China's role in peace and stability in Afghanistan. It presents analysis, debates, and the way forward for a comprehensive South Asian regional understanding in the wake of the advancing Chinese presence in South Asia. An important contribution in the study of the developing pan-China South Asia vision, this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of international relations, Chinese studies, Asian studies, defence and strategic studies, regional cooperation, foreign policy, geopolitics, comparative politics, and political studies.

Strengthening Regional Trade Integration in South Asia Owais Hasan Khan,2021-03-05 This book brings forth the philosophical, conceptual, and practical contours of the trade regionalism provisions under the GATT/WTO. It analyses SAARC as the regional integration organisation of South Asia along with identifying major challenges and bottlenecks faced by it in the process of achieving regional integration. It presents ways and methods through which SAARC can be made a more effective regional organisation. The book predominantly focuses on trade regionalism. However, other areas of integration which have impacts on the trade regionalism are also examined, like social and political integrations, etc. The book takes off from the premise that trade regionalism under SAARC has failed and has been marred by political and security concerns among its member nations. It has failed to achieve its objective on all the three counts which are promoting peace, development, and economic cooperation. However, with the developing countries as members, SAARC has great potential for trade integration. Certain structural, normative, and organisation alteration along with favourable ideation can still make SAARC achieve its full potential. The book also deals with the comparative analysis of SAARC regional integration with the regional integration under European Union and ASEAN. Regarding comparative regionalism, the discussion has been confined only to the EU and ASEAN. The EU has been chosen because it is comparatively established as one of the most successful regional organisations in the contemporary world. Whereas ASEAN has been chosen because of its similarity to the SAARC's economy, society, and political structure. The analysis presented in the book is from the perspectives of international law and international relations theories and practice. This book thus is of particular relevance to the students, researchers, academicians, policymakers, and practitioners of international trade law, international relations, and South Asian studies.

The Futures of Borders and Geopolitics in South Asia Amena Mohsin,ASM Ali Ashraf,Niloy Ranjan Biswas,Mohammad Atique Rahman,2024-11-18 This book offers a theory driven and evidence based approach to the study of South Asian borders and geopolitics In the book readers will be particularly interested to see the multiple meanings of borders and territoriality and their effects on border communities The analyses found within chapters show how the statist and territorialist definitions of border and geopolitics have given way to the rise of liberal humane and gendered definitions of borders and geopolitics Individual chapters in this volume employ a wide variety of qualitative research methods with some adopting a mixed method approach by combining quantitative and qualitative data The book would be a useful reference to academics and practitioners with a regional interest in South Asia

Essays on South Asian Society, Culture and Politics (II) Bernt Glatzer, 2021-10-11 No detailed description available for Essays on South Asian Society Culture and Politics II      The Geopolitics of Energy in South Asia Chowdhury Ishrak Ahmed Siddiky, 2021-07-29 This book examines the relation between energy and politics in South Asia and explores the geopolitics surrounding energy security in the region Analyzing energy security and the scramble for resources in South Asia the book highlights the important role of energy in light of the rapid economic growth of South Asian countries The book analyzes the current energy security status of the countries in South Asia their strengths and weaknesses and the policies that need to be implemented in order to ensure their energy security Focusing on Bangladesh as a case study the author argues that the country is geographically important both in respect to its energy resources and as an energy hub The author applies a novel analytical framework to measure the energy security of the region and examines the role of the US and China in this geopolitical scenario A new assessment of energy security issues and the geopolitical aspect of energy security this book will be of interest to researchers in the fields of energy studies and security International Relations South Asian Studies and Asian Politics      The Geopolitics of Australia's Regional Relations D. Rumley, 2001-06-30 The origins of this book go back 30 years to the stimulation and interest generated by the political geography seminars led by John House at the University of Newcastle Upon Tyne I was very fortunate to graduate among its extremely capable sporty and enthusiastic class of 68 from where several academic geographers emerged Equally fortunately some of them and their predecessors had already blazed a trail to undertake graduate studies in Canada At the University of British Columbia I was supervised at different times by Julian Minghi and Victor Prescott both of whom are not only extremely capable academics but are also very fine people I owe an enormous debt to John Julian and Victor and to the British and Canadian taxpayers who provided financial support for my University studies In 1974 I began an academic career at the University of Western Australia where I have been ever since save for a two year period from 1991-3 as Professor of Australian Studies in the Department of International Relations at the University of Tokyo Viewing Australia and the Asia Pacific region from this different perspective within an extremely supportive Japanese environment had a profound impact I am especially grateful for the support provided by so many Japanese academic colleagues and friends beginning as early as 1976 Three individuals deserve special mention for their help guidance and enduring friendship George Ohshima Hiroshi Tanabe and Akihiro Kinda      The Geopolitics of Energy in South Asia Marie Lall, 2009 Energy security has become a central concern for all the countries in the Asian region and the search for sufficient sources of energy to fuel economic growth has drastically influenced relations among the South Asian countries as well as their respective relations with their neighbours China Myanmar Iran and Afghanistan The recent nuclear deal between India and the US is also indicative of how energy and power politics are linked and how these new inter linkages underlie relations between states This book aims to give a South Asian perspective on the geopolitics of energy with a central focus on India The chapters address how India s global and regional foreign policy making has changed in light of India s search for energy and how this is affecting the relationship on a global level between India and the US as well as on a regional level between India and the other Asian countries The book also offers views from Pakistan and Bangladesh as well as how this shifting reality is affecting relations between India and Southeast Asia

Asian Geopolitics and the US-China Rivalry Felix Heiduk, 2021-07-22 This book analyses the ways in which foreign policy actors in Asia have responded to the emerging great power conflict between the US and the People s Republic of China focusing on medium and small states across the Indo Pacific The book offers a much needed counterpoint to existing analyses on the Indo Pacific and China s BRI and presents a new perspective by examining how great power politics are locally reinterpreted conditioned or at times even contested It illustrates the policy level challenges which the US China rivalry poses for established political and economic practices and outlines how these challenges can be best addressed by smaller states and their societies A timely assessment of the power play in the Indo Pacific with the angle of Sino American rivalry this book makes an important contribution to the study of Political Science International Relations Asian Studies and Security Studies Chapter 10 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license ITJEMAST 11(3) 2020 , International Transaction Journal of Engineering Management Applied Sciences Technologies publishes a wide spectrum of research and technical articles as well as reviews experiments experiences modelings simulations designs and innovations from engineering sciences life sciences and related disciplines as well as interdisciplinary cross disciplinary multidisciplinary subjects Original work is required Article submitted must not be under consideration of other publishers for publications Framing Asian Studies Albert Tzeng, William L Richter, Ekaterina Koldunova, 2018-01-12 This book explores the interconnection between geopolitical context and the ways this context frames our knowledge about Asia highlighting previously neglected cause effect relations It also examines how various knowledge institutions promote and shape Asian Studies The authors seek to explain why Asian Studies and its subfields developed in the way they did and what the implications of these transformations might be on intellectual and political understandings of Asia The book not only builds on the current debates on the decolonization and de imperialization of knowledge about Asia it also proposes a more multifaceted view rather than just examining the impact of the West on the framing of Asian Studies Global

International Relations in Southeast Asia Chanintira na Thalang, Yong-Soo Eun, 2024-08-02 This edited volume explores the contours of Global International Relations IR in terms of teaching and research in Southeast Asia and China with the purpose of revealing existing and hidden pre theories conceptual frameworks and theoretical contributions to Global IR rooted in local histories contemporary experiences and indigenous thought The exploration is conducted within a context where scholars across regions are progressively taking strides to reshape IR which has long gravitated towards Western experiences thought and knowledge into a more inclusive discipline Otherwise known as the Global IR project these efforts aim not only to amplify marginalized voices and experiences but also introduce new conceptual and theoretical tools derived from a diverse range of experiences While some of these insights provide new understandings others offer useful implications that transcend national and regional boundaries fostering crossregional discussions about the diverse realities within our world An essential read for scholars and students of IR with an interest in Global IR IR theory in general and the development of IR in parts of Southeast Asia
