Performative monuments Mechthild Widrich, 2024-07-30 This book answers one of the most puzzling questions in contemporary art how did performance artists of the 60s and 70s famous for their opposition both to lasting art and the political establishment become the foremost monument builders of the 80s 90s and today Not by selling out nor by making self undermining monuments This book argues that the centrality of performance to monuments and indeed public art in general rests not on its ephemerality or anti authoritarian rhetoric but on its power to build interpersonal bonds both personal and social Specifically the survival of body art in photographs that cross time and space to meet new audiences makes it literally into a monument The argument of the book spans art in Austria the former Yugoslavia and Germany Valie Export Peter Weibel and the Viennese Actionists working in Austria and abroad Marina Abramovic Sanja Ivekovic and Braco Dimitrijevic working in Yugoslavia and abroad and Joseph Beuys and Jochen Gerz working in Germany and abroad These artists began by critiquing monumentality in authoritarian public space and expanded the models developed on the streets of Vienna Munich Rome Belgrade and Zagreb to participatory monuments that delegate political authority to the audience Readers interested in contemporary art politics photography and performance will find in this book new facts and arguments for their interconnection

The Rise and Fall of American Art, 1940s-1980s Catherine Dossin, 2016-03-03 In The Rise and Fall of American Art 1940s 1980s Catherine Dossin challenges the now mythic perception of New York as the undisputed center of the art world between the end of World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall a position of power that brought the city prestige money and historical recognition Dossin reconstructs the concrete factors that led to the shift of international attention from Paris to New York in the 1950s and documents how peripheries such as Italy Belgium and West Germany exerted a decisive influence on this displacement of power As the US economy sank into recession in the 1970s however American artists and dealers became increasingly dependent on the support of Western Europeans and cities like Cologne and Turin emerged as major commercial and artistic hubs a development that enabled European artists to return to the forefront of the international art scene in the 1980s Dossin analyses in detail these changing distributions of geopolitical and symbolic power in the Western art worlds a story that spans two continents forty years and hundreds of actors Her transnational and interdisciplinary study provides an original and welcome supplement to more traditional formal and national readings of the period

Art Journal , 1960 Utopia and Dissent in West Germany Mia Lee, 2019-01-22 Just as Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was seeking re election on a campaign of no experiments art avant garde groups in West Germany were reviving the utopian impulse to unite art and society Utopia and Dissent in West Germany examines these groups and their legacy Postwar artists built international as well as intergenerational networks such as Fluxus which was active in Düsseldorf Wiesbaden and Cologne and the Situationist International based in Paris These groups were committed to undoing the compartmentalization of everyday life and the isolation of the artist in society And as artists recast politics to address culture and everyday life they helped forge a path for the West German extraparliamentary left Utopia and Dissent in West Germany traces these connections and presents a chronological map of the networks that fed into the extraparliamentary left as well as a geographical map of increasing radicalism as the locus of action shifted to West Berlin These two maps show that in West Germany artists and their interventions in the structures of everyday life were a key starting point for challenging the postwar order

Choice , 1997 Artbibliographies Modern , 1998 Art Works Alistair Hicks, Mary Findlay, Friedhelm Hütte, 2001 British and German artists from Gerhard Richter to Damien Hirst have helped to define the last forty years of art Starting with Zero and Pop and ending with Sensation artists and Ultra modernists Art Works offers a unique fully illustrated survey of contemporary art Drawn from one of the world's largest and most comprehensive collections of works on paper that of Deutsche Bank this book contains many pieces by famous artists such as Francis Bacon Georg Baselitz Sigmar Polke Joseph Beuys and R B Kitaj as well as by emerging artists such as Stepanek and Maslin and Susan Derges most of which have remained unpublished until now The 48 000 works on paper now owned by Deutsche Bank have been bought for the staff and not as investments The experience of working in a building with pieces by major contemporary artists is very different from perhaps more rewarding than a brief visit to a museum The purpose of the collection as well as offering a history of recent art is to introduce staff to the work of young artists and to emphasize that art can play an important part in a working environment Here for the first time the disparate parts of the collection are brought together in a single book With over 250

colour illustrations specially commissioned artists statements and a survey of the collection by art critic and curator Alistair Hicks Art Works paints a vivid picture of the art of our time BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved ARTnews ,1995 Sigmar Polke Margit Rowell,Sigmar Polke,Michael Semff,Bice Curiger,Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.),1999 Sigmar Polke s thirty five year career during which he has produced a vast range of work in all mediums has earned him a reputation as one of the most significant artists of his generation Born in 1941 he began his creative output around 1963 in Dusseldorf during a time of enormous social cultural and artistic changes in Germany and elsewhere Few of his works demonstrate more vividly his imagination sardonic wit and subversive approach than the drawings watercolors and gouaches produced during the 1960s and early 1970s Embedded in these images are incisive and parodic commentaries on consumer society the postwar political scene in Germany and classic artistic conventions
