Saylan,2019-01-17 Carrying a story to tell is the ancient burden of craftsmen and it is one of the characteristics of the quest to find oneself since a journey requires recognition of the aspects of self and anti self Like the speaker of his poems W B Yeats has something to tell His poetry draws nourishment from the battle between the dichotomies of self and anti self human and divine mind and intellect past and present and body and soul This book covers a selection of Yeats s poems from 1889 to 1939 discussing them within the frame of the quest to find oneself and its gyroscopic transformation The book illustrates that self is not a single entity but has multiple layers and it can be found within the quest in which it experiences a simultaneous transformation with every phase of the antithetical structure of gyroscopic movements In addition the way of the quest is cyclical however it is not a vicious cycle since in life every end is a phase of a beginning and every beginning is a phase of an end Finding List of Books and Pamphlets Buffalo..Public library,1897 Literary Century ,1892 The Literary World ,1875 The Letters of John Greenleaf Whittier: 1828-1845 John Greenleaf Whittier,1975 These letters of a man deeply concerned about his country directly involved in political action and torn as the Civil War approached by the conflict between his abolitionist zeal and his Quaker pacifism letters here collected for the first time and many of them hitherto unpublished shatter the stereotype of Whittier as the good gray poet The many letters to such figures as John Quincy Adams Charles Sumner and William Lloyd Garrison form a detailed record of the abolitionist movement from its inception to its merging with the Free Soil party in the 1850s The first two volumes reproduce all the extant letters from 1828 to 1860 with full annotations The last volume is selective excluding several thousand perfunctory items and including only the historically or biographically interesting letters of the last three decades of the poet s life The Biographical Dictionary of

America ,1904 Lamb's Biographical Dictionary of the United States John Howard Brown,1903 The Cambridge Handbook of American Literature Jack Salzman,1986-08-29 The Cambridge Handbook of American Literature offers a compact and accessible guide to the major landmarks of American literature The Constellational Novel Louis Klee,2025-08-05 A constellational novel is a novel that has an associative essayistic digressive and densely patterned prose form The Constellational Novel aims to shed light on the field of contemporary literature by offering a definitive theory of the constellational novel These novels are recognizable by the presence of a first person narrator committed to drawing affinities and making connections among disparate things Beginning with Marcel Proust Klee s argument focuses on novels published over roughly the last two decades between 2001 and 2020 by writers such as W G Sebald Lisa Robertson Teju Cole Jacqueline Rose and Olga Tokarczuk Strikingly it is often assumed that the attunement of their narrators to an unfolding web of potential interconnections holds an ethical promise of new ways of relating to oneself others and the world Klee considers this implication of ethics and associative form to be peculiar and in some important respects unprecedented in the history of the novel How is recognizing connections between things ethical exactly Could it not simply be the working of a resourceful or possibly even deranged intelligence one that obsessively sees patterns everywhere Why should the value of literature hinge on such an idiosyncratic process And what does finding affinities have to do with the more familiar categories of novelistic form like character and narrative Taking inspiration from the work of Walter Benjamin this book analyzes the distinctive ethics of affinity offered by these novels and thus seeks to clarify one of the most intriguing and consequential developments in the contemporary novel
