He Can Who Thinks He Can Orison Swett Marden, 2020-11-02 It is astonishing how the world makes way for a resolute soul and how obstacles get out of the path of a determined man who believes in himself There is no philosophy by which a man can do a thing when he thinks he can't What can defeat a strong man who believes in himself and cannot be ridiculed down talked down or written down Poverty cannot dishearten him misfortune deter him or hardship turn him aside's breadth from his course Whatever comes he keeps his eye on the goal and pushes ahead What would you think of a young man ambitious to become a lawyer who should surround himself with a medical atmosphere and spend his time reading medical books Do you think he would ever become a great lawyer by following such a course No he must put himself in a law atmosphere go where he can absorb it and be steeped in it until he is attuned to the legal note He must be so grafted upon the legal tree that he can feel its sap circulating through him How long will it take a young man to become successful who puts himself in an atmosphere of failure and remains in it until he is soaked saturated with the idea How long will it take a man who depreciates himself talks failure thinks failure walks like a failure and dresses like a failure who is always complaining of the insurmountable difficulties in his way and whose every step is on the road to failure how long will it take him to arrive at the success goal Will anyone believe in him or expect him to win Taken from He Can Who Thinks He Can written by Orison Swett Marden
