The "headmaster" of Chartres and the Origins of "Gothic" Sculpture C. Edson Armi, 1994 Professor Armi s study represents a dramatic reconsideration of the origins of Gothic sculpture by employing new methodology and refuting previously accepted theories Despite the aesthetic and historical significance of the Royal Portal no documentation of its design and construction exists Nevertheless over the last century a set of truths about the facade have become accepted Employing a new methodology that overcomes the lack of documents with a revised form of connoisseurship Edson Armi proposes a radically different biography of the Headmaster that has far reaching implications for the study of Gothic sculpture With a new perspective on the most important mid twelfth century portal the book concludes that the style and cultural context of le de France sculpture is less defined and more diverse than previously imagined More importantly the book argues that the forms of art as well as the design and working procedures in the Paris basin can no longer be seen as unique or separate from the practices of provincial French art in the period before 1140 Gothic Sculpture, 1140-1300 Paul Williamson, 1995-01-01 This study examines the development of Gothic sculpture throughout Europe It discusses the most famous monuments such as the cathedrals of Chartres Amiens and Reims Westminster Abbey and the Siena Duomo and less familiar buildings in France England Italy Germany Spain and Scandinavia The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Early Gothic Column-Figure Sculpture in France JanetE. Snyder, 2017-07-05 Richly illustrated Early Gothic Column Figure Sculpture in France is a comprehensive investigation of church portal sculpture installed between the 1130s and the 1170s At more than twenty great churches beginning at the Royal Abbey of Saint Denis and extending around Paris from Provins in the east south to Bourges and Dijon and west to Chartres and Angers larger than life size statues of human figures were arranged along portal jambs many carved as if wearing the dress of the highest ranks of French society This study takes a close look at twelfth century human figure sculpture describing represented clothing defining the language of textiles and dress that would have been legible in the twelfth century and investigating rationale and significance The concepts conveyed through these extraordinary visual documents and the possible motivations of the patrons of portal programs with column figures are examined through contemporaneous historical textual and visual evidence in various media Appendices include analysis of sculpture production and the transportation and fabrication in limestone from Paris Janet Snyder's new study considers how patrons used sculpture to express and shape perceived reality employing images of textiles and clothing that had political economic and social significances American

Gothic: Reflections on Gothic Architectural Scholarship in America, 1925-2025, 2025-08-04 This book chronicles the contributions of American scholars to the study of European Gothic architecture It traces this history through a series of biographical case studies of major figures ranging from Arthur Kingsley Porter to Robert Branner and Jean Bony to Caroline Bruzelius calling attention to their influence as mentors and to the character of their professional networks These biographical chapters are supplemented by thematic essays and a roundtable discussion of current issues in the field Altogether the book explains how working from overseas presents both significant challenges and valuable perspectives allowing American scholars to enrich dialog in the field Contributors are Robert Bork Caroline Bruzelius Meredith Cohen S Diane Daussy Jennifer M Feltman Erin Hulbert Maile Hutterer Matthew Reeve Lisa Reilly Rebecca Smith Zachary Stewart Kyle Sweeney Kristine Tanton Sarah Thompson Arnaud Timbert and Joseph Williams The Virgin of Chartres Margot Elsbeth Fassler, 2010-01-01 Medieval Christians knew the past primarily through what they saw and heard History was reenacted every year in ritual observances particular to each place and region and rooted in the legends of local saints This richly illustrated book explores the layers of history found in the cult of the Virgin of Chartres as it developed in the eleventh and twelfth centuries Focusing on the major relic of Chartres Cathedral the Virgin's gown and the Feast of Mary's Nativity Margot Fassler employs a wide range of historical evidence including local histories letters obituaries chants liturgical sources and reports of miracles leading to a detailed reading of the cathedral s west fa ade This interdisciplinary volume will prove invaluable to historians who work in religion politics music and art but will also serve as a guidebook for all interested Architecture as Experience Dana Arnold, Andrew Ballantyne, 2004-07-31 This book in the history of Chartres Cathedral investigates the perception and appropriation of places across intervals of time and culture The main focus is on bringing together fresh empirical research and animating it with theoretical sophistication Artists of the Middle Ages Leslie D. Ross, 2003-06-30 In the first volume of the Artists of an Era series Leslie Ross examines the identities of artists attributed to the most famous and influential works of medieval art These works are much discussed within the realm of art history yet the identities of medieval artists fall victim to incomplete historical records and often remain enigmatic In ten narrative chapters Ross examines this significant area of the art world including architecture iconography metalwork scribework sculpture even medieval art instruction and summarizes the lives and work of that genre's leading artist or artists Students will learn not only what is factually known of an artist s life as well as what is purely speculative but also the processes used to gather the information and fuel speculation Readers will also gain unique insights into the practices and traditions of medieval art and the role it played within medieval society A timeline chapter bibliographies a list of further resources on medieval art and an index offer additional tools to students of medieval art and art history

In Search of the Unknown in Medieval Architecture John James, 2007-12-31 John James is an Australian architect and medieval historian Since 1969 he has been searching for the origins of the Gothic style beginning with a five year study of Chartres cathedral At that time there were no

coherent techniques for analysing the detailed construction history of existing stone structures This he created He expanded his research to include all the early Gothic churches in the Paris region with a three year survey of over 3500 buildings His most important discovery has been that all churches of this period were constructed in many short campaigns by mobile building teams and that major innovation was more likely to occur in the smaller buildings than in the larger This volume makes available 42 of the author's studies on the development of Gothic architecture in France Functions of the Ruler's Image in the Mediterranean World (11th - 15th Centuries), 2022-01-31 The open access version of this book has been published with the support of the Swiss National Science Foundation The book proposes a reassessment of royal portraiture and its function in the Middle Ages via a comparative analysis of works from different areas of the Mediterranean world where images are seen as only one outcome of wider and multifarious strategies for the public mise en sc ne of the rulers bodies Its emphasis is on the ways in which medieval monarchs in different areas of the Mediterranean constructed their outward appearance and communicated it by means of a variety of rituals object types and media Contributors are Michele Bacci Nicolas Bock Gerardo Boto Varela Branislav Cvetkovi Sofia Fern ndez Pozzo Gohar Grigoryan Savary Elodie Leschot Vinni Lucherini Ioanna Rapti Juan Carlos Ruiz Souza Marta Serrano Coll Lucinia Speciale Manuela Studer Karlen Mirko Vagnoni and Edda Vardanyan Medieval Art Marilyn Stokstad, 2018-05-04 This book teaches the reader how to look at medieval art which aspects of architecture sculpture or painting are important and for what reasons It includes the art and building of what is now Western Europe from the second to the fifteenth centuries

The Eye and the Beholder Hannelore Hägele, 2014-06-02 In The Eye and the Beholder the author singles out a topic already touched upon in her previous book Colour in Sculpture By raising the question of how significant the colouring of the eye is to figurative representations of the late medieval and early modern period Hannelore H gele examines the different solutions open to the sculptor which vary depending on historical and cultural parameters. The created eye must suit purpose and style She discusses a number of unusual aspects of this sculpted eyes in antiquity the art and craft of polychromy partial polychromy emotions and expressions the gaze and the glance from the sculpted eye to colour and the glass eye and what the eye cannot see Dr H gele asks whether advances in optics and other sciences or theological concepts such as the eye of God and the inner eye determined the way in which eyes were perceived and represented It is the beholder whether as maker or viewer who engages with and judges the worth of any creative effort and what it contributes to an understanding of the seen and the unseen The illustrations and the many coloured plates accompanying the text offer an overview of the subject
