Healing Church: Abigail Rian Evans,2000-01-07 What role can churches and religious organizations play in health care today Abigail Rian Evans answers this question and others in this valuable guide to practical programs for health ministries Beginning with a survey of the history of health ministry in the church Evans demonstrates that what is needed is not to invent health ministries but to recapture the spirit of the church as a health institution both spiritual and physical She then goes on to show what practical programs exist in the world today and why these programs are important for the church to embrace and develop Comprehensive in scope this is an important resource for any individual or institution looking to develop or enhance a health ministry program The Healing Church Abigail Rian Evans,1999 Teaching Religion and Healing Linda L. Barnes,Inés Talamantez,2006-10-26 Publisher description Healing in the Gospel of Matthew Walter T. Wilson,2014 Walter Wilson adopts an interdisciplinary approach to the healing narratives in the Gospel of Matthew combining the familiar methods of form redaction and narrative criticisms with insights culled from medical anthropology feminist theory disability studies and ancient archaeology to understand the New Testament s longest and most systematic account of healing Matthew chapters 8 and 9 Close exegetical readings culminate in a final synthesis of Matthew s understanding of healing how Matthew s narratives of healing expose the distinctive priorities of the evangelist and how these priorities relate to the theology of the Gospel On Moral Medicine M. Therese Lysaught,Joseph Kotva,Stephen E. Lammers,2012-07-20 In print for more than two decades On Moral Medicine remains the definitive anthology for Christian theological reflection on medical ethics This third edition updates and expands the earlier awardwinning volumes providing classrooms and individuals alike with one of the finest available resources for ethics engaged modern medicine Good Is the Flesh Jean Margaret Denton,2005 Building Healthy Communities Through Medical-Religious Partnerships Richard G. Bennett,W. Daniel Hale,2009-09 This innovative approach to the development of community based health education and patient advocacy programs offer valuable guidance for religious and medical leaders interested in developing partnerships between health systems and religious congregations Richard G Bennett and W Daniel Hale discuss a range of medical topics and provide practical information on establishing partnerships identifying resources that can be obtained from local and national organizations and training volunteers to assist others in navigating our complex health system In showing that these programs can be successful in bringing appropriate care to people who are often overlooked the authors pay special attention to the challenges and opportunities presented by our aging and increasingly diverse population from back cover Essential Parish Nurse Deborah Patterson,2003-01-01 The Essential Parish Nurse is a practical and useful resource for churches that are interested in developing a parish nurse program Covering a broad range it discusses the need for such ministry a brief history of parish nursing the role of the parish nurse and other matters of interest to those wishing to establish such a ministry This valuable resource includes an appendix with sample materials needed to start a parish nursing

Charismatic Pastoral Care of the Terminally Ill and Chronically Disabled

Jomon K. John, 2016-09-02 Healing of the sick is a prominent theme in the biblical narratives. However, when it comes to caring for the chronically and terminally sick, there are no clear directives in the New Testament describing how the church may minister to them. There are significant differences in the way many churches approach this matter. Even among the charismatic churches that believe that the gifts of the Holy Spirit, including miraculous healing, are available to present-day believers, there are differences in the way the sick are cared for. This book investigates the pastoral challenges with regard to chronic infirmities and terminal illnesses in a charismatic church context. This is undertaken with the understanding that many who are chronically and terminally ill in this context present poor medical prognosis and have remained unhealed in spite of prayers. Clear foundational values are drawn for defining the pastoral challenges and objectives. Three true cases present in public domain are presented and analyzed to identify the challenges. The pastoral care objectives are defined and strategies are drawn to meet these. The findings and conclusions would be relevant to the pastors, the sick, and those who care for them, and indeed the whole church. The author is personally involved in the care of the sick as a practicing surgeon as well as a pastor. Being a pastor in a charismatic church that believes in praying for miraculous healing of the sick and practicing modern medicine, the author is faced with the challenges of pastoral care for those with poor medical prognosis who remain unhealed in spite of believing in prayers; they are very close to his heart. The author provides the foundational principles and goals in the pastoral care of such situations and outlines the strategies for doing so without compromising the conviction that Jesus Christ still heals the sick.

Keeping Faith in Faith-Based Organizations Dean Pallant, 2012-03-05 The world's poorest people are struggling to access quality, affordable health care. Change is urgently required. Faith-based organizations deliver more than 40 percent of health services in many of the poorest places. This book argues FBOs can and must deliver quality health services without sacrificing their faith in the process. Dean Pallant asks an awkward question: If its faith does not drive an FBO, whose faith does? Pallant visited Salvation Army health ministries in more than forty countries in four years, and this book records his global reflections structured around a practical theological model of enquiry. His goal is to identify a faithful future for hundreds of Salvation Army hospitals and clinics and thousands of congregation-based health ministries. Pallant finds answers in the work of Karl Polanyi, John Wesley, Stanley Hauerwas, William Booth, and Luke Bretherton, among others. Pallant challenges the bio-medical definition of health and proposes a comprehensive appreciation of people as healthy persons, the people God created us to be. Pallant's proposals are bold and far-reaching for the Salvation Army and other FBOs. They are insightful and challenging for everyone of whatever faith committed to improve the health of the poorest people.

Redeeming Marketplace Medicine Abigail Rian Evans, 2008-04-01 Asserting what most Americans already suspect: that corporate-based managed care places profits over patient care, theologian Abigail Rian Evans points out that medical experts have reduced health care to medical treatment under arrangements with health insurance plans and HMOs Her reasoned practical alternative engages Christian theology proposing a much broader concept of health care An important contribution to a critical discussion      Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume Two Victor I. Ezigbo,2015-12-31 Should Christianity s theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine      Introducing Christian Theologies II Victor I Ezigbo,2016-08-25 Should Christianity s theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with the voices of Christian communities from around the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from across the globe highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine      Community as Partner Elizabeth T.
