Health Consequences Of Modernisation Evidence From Circumpolar Peoples:

The Health Consequences of 'Modernisation' Roy J. Shephard, Andris Rode, 1996-02-23 What are the health consequences of a transition from an active hunter gatherer lifestyle to that of sedentary modern living In this book the impact of modernization is assessed in various populations in the circumpolar regions The hazards of living in polar regions and the adaptations shown culturally behaviourally and physically by the indigenous peoples are examined and the effect of changes in habitual activity diet and general lifestyle due to more urban living patterns on the body composition pulmonary function and susceptibility to disease discussed The implications of this switch are important not only for all those concerned about the survival of indigenous communities around the world but for all of us living in an increasingly sedentary urban environment Anthropologists physiologists and those interested in population fitness will find this a comprehensive and valuable volume
