He Loved And Served The Story Of Curtis Kelsey:

He Loved and Served Nathan Rutstein,1982 Curtis Kelsey was a simple man who never went to college and never gained worldly fame But in 1921 at the age of 27 he was asked by Abdu l Baha to come and work in Haifa to install the first electric lighting in the Shrine of the Bab For two months he lived and worked as a member of Abdu l Baha s household an experience that transformed him

From a Gnat to an Eagle Nathan Rutstein,Carol Rutstein,2008 A compelling account of a remarkable man and an illuminating portrait of how a person can be transformed through the power of love dedication and perseverance in the path of personal spiritual development The child of Jewish immigrants in the Bronx Nathan Rutstein was raised in a home devoid of books and ran the streets with gangs as a youth When he was admitted to college on a sports scholarship he seemed headed for a career in baseball but the pursuit of justiceparticularly racial equalitymotivated him to apply himself to his studies and aim for something nobler He emerged from his youth with a deep thirst for personal spiritual growth rooted in the teachings of the Bah Faith Though nothing in his upbringing encouraged him to pursue the life of the mind eventually he became an author a teacher and a tireless advocate for racial equality which became the dominating passion of his life

Prophet's Daughter Janet A. Khan,2005 Prophet s Daughter examines the extraordinary life of Bahiyyih Khanum 1846 1932 the daughter of Baha u llah founder of the Baha i Faith From the mid nineteenth century to the early twentieth century when women in the Middle East were largely invisible deprived of education and without status in their communities Bahiyyih Khanum was an active participant in the religion s turbulent early years and contributed significantly both to the development of its administrative structure and to its emergence as a worldwide faith community Her appointment to head the Baha i Faith during a critical period of transition stands unique in religious history

Historical Dictionary of the Baha'i Faith Hugh C. Adamson,2006-12-21 Growing out of the teachings of the B b who introduced the idea of the coming of a great prophet the one promised in the scriptures of all the world s major religions the Bah Faith was founded by Bah u ll h when in 1866 he publicly declared that he was the One the B b prophesized The 2nd edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Bah Faith presents a general historical overview of both B b and Bah religions as well as a theological overview of the Bah Faith from their inception in the mid 19th century to the middle of 2005 It presents biographical details of the Founders and Central Figures along with numerous leaders and pioneers most of the basic principles and precepts as well as aspects of its organization and administration Through the use of photographs a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on nearly every aspect of the religion and appendixes listing the genealogy of the Founders statistical information and lists of apostles disciples Hands of the Cause Knights of Bah u ll h as well as of more than 930 believers who have contributed to its growth and development this book is a fundamental tool for finding information on all things related to the Bah Faith
