Warsaw Charges Germany With Aggression;
Denies Invasion

WARSAW, Sept. 1 (U.P.)—Germans bombed Warsaw 9 a.m. today (12 p.m. Thursday) (P.S.T.). Simultaneously the Polish government announced today that the Germans had bombed five other places, including the railroad station at Cracow and the towns of Bytom, as well as the towns of Puck and Gdynia.

The Warsaw Foreign Office immediately denounced Germany's aggression against Poland.

BERLIN, Sept. 2. (Friday) (AP)—The German army was ordered to "meet force with force," and Poland was declared dangerous territory for foreigners by Adolf Hitler at 5:30 a.m. today (8:30 p.m. Thursday P.M.T.).

The German position on the subject of the evacuation of the Poles was announced in the Third Reich's official press. The evacuation was said to be a result of alleged Polish violations of the German frontier.

Shortly after this, Nazi Leader Adolf Hitler in a speech to the Reichstag, said that the evacuation of the Poles was a result of the Polish government's failure to comply with the German frontier law.

Additional news news pictures in Berlin and other cities were shown on German radio.

Germany, proclaiming German law in effect, then announced that the evacuation of the Poles was a result of the Polish government's failure to comply with the German frontier law.

Simultaneously, dispatches from Warsaw reported that a number of Polish border towns had been evacuated.

Several ships in the Baltic were reported (the unnamed Chemung liner) or sent by harbors at their own peril.

BRIEF ADDRESSING RECEPTION:

Four and a half hours after creating the die, the President appeared before a specially called session of the Reichstag and in a speech broadcasted throughout the world defended his course and declared "Germany is proud to have 'bought' peace from" in the name of the Polish question.

"I have decided to speak to the Poles in the name of the German people," he said.

Headlines of World War I Patience Coster, 2005 In the form of newspaper headlines accompanied by short blurbs presents important events that occurred around the world from 1910 to 1919 History of the Chicago Tribune, 1922 Folklife Center News, 2002 From the Headlines to Hollywood Chris Yogerst, 2016-09-02 More than any other studio Warner Bros used edgy stylistic and brutally honest films to construct a view of America that was different from the usual buoyant Hollywood fare The studio took seriously Harry Warner's mandate that their films had a duty to educate and demonstrate key values of free speech religious tolerance and freedom of the press This attitude was most aptly demonstrated in films produced by the studio between 1927 and 1941 a period that saw not only the arrival of sound in film but also the Great Depression the rise of crime and increased concern about fascism in the lead up to World War II In From the Headlines to Hollywood The Birth and Boom of Warner Bros Chris Yogerst explores how the only studio with any guts established the groundwork and perfected formulas for social romance dramas along with gangster war espionage and adventure films In this book the author discusses such films as The Public Enemy Little Caesar G Men The Life of Emile Zola Angels with Dirty Faces and Confessions of a Nazi Spy illustrating the ways in which their plots truly were ripped from the headlines While much of what has been written about Warner Bros has focused on the plots of popular films or broad overviews of the studio's output this volume sets these in the larger context of the period an era in which lighthearted fare competed with gritty realism From the Headlines to Hollywood will appeal to readers with interests in film history social history politics and entertainment The Origins of Television News in America Mike Conway, 2009 This is the first in depth look at the development of the television newscast the most popular source of news for over forty five years During the 1940s most journalists ignored or dismissed television leaving the challenge to a small group of people working above New York City's Grand Central Terminal Without the pressures of ratings sponsors company oversight or many viewers the group refused to recreate newspapers radio or newsreels on the new medium They experimented argued tested and eventually settled on a format to exploit television's strengths This book documents that process challenging common myths including the importance of a popular anchor and television's inability to communicate non visual stories and crediting those whose work was critical in the formation of television as a news format and illustrating the pressures and professional roadblocks facing those who dare question journalistic traditions of any era Publisher Folklife Center News American Folklife Center, 2004 Mister Pulitzer and the Spider Kevin G Barnhurst, 2016-06-15 A spidery network of mobile online media has supposedly changed people places time and their meanings A prime case is the news Digital webs seem to have trapped legacy media killing off newspapers and journalists jobs Did news businesses and careers fall prey to the digital Spider To solve the mystery Kevin Barnhurst spent thirty years studying news going back to the realism of the 1800s The usual suspects technology business competition and the pursuit of scoops are only partly to blame for the fate of news The main culprit is modernism from the Mister Pulitzer era which transformed news into an ideology called journalism News is no longer what audiences or experts imagine Stories have grown much longer over the past century and now include fewer events locations and human beings Background and context rule instead News producers adopted modernism to explain the world without recognizing how modernist ideas influence the knowledge they produce When webs of networked connectivity sparked a resurgence in realist stories legacy news stuck to big picture analysis that can alienate audience members accustomed to digital briefs
