The Scent of Ancient Magic Britta K. Ager,2022-04-27 Magic was a fundamental part of the Greco Roman world Curses erotic spells healing charms divination and other supernatural methods of trying to change the universe were everyday methods of coping with the difficulties of life in antiquity While ancient magic is most often studied through texts like surviving Greco Egyptian spellbooks and artifacts like lead curse tablets for a Greek or Roman magician a ritual was a rich sensual experience full of unusual tastes smells textures and sounds bright colors and sensations like fasting and sleeplessness Greco Roman magical rituals were particularly dominated by the sense of smell both fragrant smells and foul odors Ritual practitioners surrounded themselves with clouds of fragrant incense and perfume to create a sweet and inviting atmosphere for contact with the divine and to alter their own perceptions they also used odors as an instrumental weapon to attack enemies and command the gods Elsewhere odiferous herbs were used equally as medical cures and magical ingredients In literature scent and magic became intertwined as metaphors with fragrant spells representing the dangers of sensual perfumes and conversely smells acting as a visceral way of envisioning the mysterious action of magic The Scent of Ancient Magic explores the complex interconnection of scent and magic in the Greco Roman world between 800 BCE and CE 600 drawing on ancient literature and the modern study of the senses to examine the sensory depth and richness of ancient magic Author Britta K Ager looks at how ancient magicians used scents as part of their spells to put themselves in the right mindset for an encounter with a god or to attack their enemies through scent Ager also examines the magicians who appear in ancient fiction like Medea and Circe and the more metaphorical ways in which their spells are confused with perfumes and herbs This book brings together recent scholarship on ancient magic from classical studies and on scent from the interdisciplinary field of sensory studies in order to examine how practicing ancient magicians used scents for ritual purposes how scent and magic were conceptually related in ancient literature and culture and how the assumption that strong scents convey powerful effects of various sorts was also found in related areas like ancient medical practices and normative religious ritual      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1983      The Athenaeum ,1858      The Life of the Lord Jesus Christ Johann Peter Lange,1872      Deutschland ,1911      Notes and Queries ,1864      The Extraordinary and the Everyday in Early Modern England A. McShane,G. Walker,2010-05-28 A fascinating collection of essays by renowned and emerging scholars exploring how everyday matters from farting to friendship reveal extraordinary aspects of early modern life while seemingly exceptional acts and beliefs such as those of ghosts prophecies and cannibalism illuminate something of the routine experience of ordinary people      Popular Culture and Popular Movements in Reformation Germany R. W. Scribner, 1988-07-01 The Reformation has traditionally been explained in terms of theology the corruption of the church and the role of princes R W Scribner while not denying the importance of these shifts the context of study of the German Reformation to an examination of popular beliefs and behaviour and of the reactions of local authorities to the problems and opportunities for social as well as religious reform This book brings together a coherent body of work that has appeared since 1975 including two entirely new essays and two previously published only in German
