expansion of foreign trade the beginnings of American exploration the evolution of the nuclear family and the flowering of English theater and poetry culminating in the works of William Shakespeare Robert Greene Kirk Melnikoff, 2017-03-02 While Robert Greene was the most prolific and perhaps the most notorious professional writer in Elizabethan England he continues to be best known for his 1592 guip comparing Shakespeare to an upstart crow In his short twelve year career Greene wrote dozens of popular pamphlets in a variety of genres and numerous professional plays At his premature death in 1592 he was a bonafide London celebrity simultaneously maligned as Grub Street profligate and celebrated as literary prodigy The present volume constitutes the first collection of Greene's reception both in the early modern period and in our present era offering in its poems prose passages essays and chapters that which is most singular among what has been written about Greene and his work It also includes a complete list of Greene's contemporary reception until 1640 Kirk Melnikoff's wide ranging and revisionist introduction organizes this reception generically while at the same time situating it in the context of recent critical methodologies Austin Friars J. Lindeboom, 2013-11-11 To anyone at all acquainted with the place which the Dutch Reformed Church in London has occupied during the centuries it will not cause surprise to hear that I hesitated for a moment before accepting the invitation from its Council to relate the history of the Church on the occasion of its four hundredth anniversary Not much time was left and the material was voluminous Only few church communities possess such a wealth of written documents bearing on their past history or have been the centre to the same extent of so many varied activities However there were considerations on the other side which made me decide to undertake the work The extensive archives of the Church are well arranged and well preserved The most important part the voluminous correspondence consisting mainly of letters addressed to the Church Council has been made available in a highly meritorious manner by J H Hessels publication Ec clesiae LondinoBatavae Archivum Only a small part of the often very detailed minutes of the Council meetings has been published but these pUblications by Dr A Kuyper and Dr A A van Schelven cover two very important periods in the history of the Church In addition there are the pUblications of the Marnix Society viz Ruytinck s Gheschiedenissen Hi story and its sequels and the Acta of the Colloquia of the Dutch church communities in England Two Lives Evelyn Waugh, 2005-05-05 Waugh wrote biographies of two very different English Roman Catholics Edmund Campion 1540 1581 a Jesuit priest executed for treason and Ronald Knox 1888 1957 regarded as the most distinguished Anglican clerical to convert to Catholicism since Newman Both books are indispensable to aficionados of Evelyn Waugh s highly polished prose and penetrating intelligence This reissue will introduce these two Waugh classics to a new generation of British Food Colin Spencer, 2019-02-20 A masterful and witty account of Britain's culinary heritage This a readers revised and updated edition of an award winning book recognized as the authoritative work on the subject of British food It is a breathtaking attempt to trace the changes to and influences on food in Britain from the Black Death through the Enclosures the Reformation the Industrial Revolution the rise of Capitalism to the present day There has been a recent wave of interest in food culture and history and Colin Spencer's masterful readable account of Britain's culinary history is a celebrated contribution to the genre There has never been such an exciting broad scoped history of the food of these islands It should remind us all of our rich past and the gastronomic importance of British cuisine A breathtakingly comprehensive wide ranging and fascinating food history Daily Mail A Jesuit Challenge Saint Edmund Campion, 1999 In the year 1581 after four days of debating six leading Anglican divines at the Tower of London Jesuit Edmund Campion 1540 1581 was put to death because he would not deny his faith In 1970 the martyred Campion was canonized a saint A Jesuit Challenge is a book length edition of previously unpublished Catholic manuscript accounts of those debates As corrective historical documents these Catholic manuscripts reveal a quite different picture of Campion and his opponents from that represented in the government's published version and thus offer us a fuller and more balanced understanding of what actually took place In addition to their historical value the Catholic manuscripts also include lively exchanges between Campion and his opponents and provide humanizing details about them As personalized documents they capture the dramatic flavor of a series of spirited debates dealing with the major theological issues separating Protestant England from Catholic Rome in Elizabeth's reign Together with a transcription of the Catholic manuscript accounts Holleran supplies a general historical introduction to the debates a detailed description of the manuscripts brief supplementary commentaries about the debates and a full set of explanatory notes
