Quête ésotérique et création poétique dans Anabase de Saint-John Perse Laurent Fels,2009 Le poème Anabase 1924 constitue une réflexion approfondie sur la création poétique de Saint John Perse dont le présent ouvrage essaie de retracer les différentes tapes Autour de cette exploration des tendues d'un continent que l'on ne saurait localiser avec précision mais aussi d'un inconscient où germent les vers d'une poésie de l'ambiguïté se dégageant un véritable rituel poétique qui vient enrichir le goût pour cette nouvelle science apparue à la fin du XIX<sup>e</sup> siècle qui est la psychanalyse Le poème qui tire son originalité de ses richesses et riques philosophiques psychanalytiques et scientifiques devient un véritable lieu de rencontre d'inspirations et de savoirs divers. L'étude que voici se donne un double objectif : analyser le parcours et rique du poète et dire partir de l'anabase et rieure chevauchée travers un continent puis destruction des terres par la violence et finalement création d'une nouvelle ville pour aboutir cette anabase et rieure qui mène au Moi profond du poète et est le point sensible du front où le poème est tablit. Quelle importance faut-il accorder la dimension psychanalytique lorsque nous lisons Saint-John Perse ? Le poème peut-il être défini comme un miroir de l'inconscient ? Voilà quelquesunes des interrogations qui ont guidé l'auteur du présent livre dans sa lecture et ressante et originale de cette œuvre extrêmement riche.

Orphan Narratives Valérie Loichot, 2007

In Orphan Narratives, Valérie Loichot investigates the fiction and poetry of four writers who emerged from the postslavery plantation world of the Americas: William Faulkner (USA), Édouard Glissant (Martinique), Toni Morrison (USA) and Saint-John Perse (Guadeloupe). She shows how these descendants from slaves and from slaveholders wrote both in relation and in resistance to the violence of plantation slavery. She uses the term 'orphan narrative' to capture the ways in which this violence severed the child from the text and history from a traceable origin: Black or white male or female, Antillean or American, these writers share a common inheritance and transnational connection through which their texts maintain familial temporal and narrative patterns without having any central authority figure. The author specifically cites Saint-John Perse's Eloges (1911), Faulkner's Light in August (1932), Morrison's Song of Solomon (1977) and Glissant's La Case du commandeur (1981) as postslavery texts. Where the actual family is dismembered, these narrative accounts invent new familial links. Reciprocally, biological family ties endure despite the literal and discursive violence inflicted upon them. Breaking new ground in trans-American studies by juxtaposing texts from the francophone Lesser Antilles and the US South, Orphan Narratives will be a valuable addition to Caribbean American and postcolonial studies, not to mention its appeal to scholars and students of Faulkner, Glissant, Morrison and Saint-John Perse.

Postcolonial Francophone Autobiographies

Edgard Sankara, 2011-08-03

Bringing a comparative perspective to the study of autobiography, Edgard Sankara considers a cross section of postcolonial francophone writing from Africa and the Caribbean in order to examine and compare for the first time their transnational reception. Sankara not only compares the ways in which a wide selection of autobiographies were received locally as well as in France but also juxtaposes reception by the colonized and the colonizer to show how different meanings were assigned to the works after publication. Sankara's geographical and cultural coverage of Africa and its diaspora is rich with separate chapters devoted to the autobiographies of Hampat B. Valentin, Mudimb Kesso, Barry Patrick Chamoiseau, Raphaël Confiant and Maryse Condé. The author combines close reading, reception study and postcolonial theory to present an insightful survey of the literary connections among these autobiographers as well as a useful point of departure for further exploration of the genre itself of the role of reception studies in postcolonial criticism and of the stance that postcolonial francophone writers choose to take regarding their communities of origin.

Modern

Language Initiative    Poesies, Saint John Perse Claude Puzin,2002    Poetics of the Native Yosra Amraoui,Botheina Majoul,2021-02-01 Natives Aborigines Indigenous populations and First Nations are all appellations that assert the legitimacy of various antecessors despite the subordinate position granted to them by colonial postcolonial and neo colonial theories In a perpetual quest for agency the native has been framed within a set of representational practices that claim for a redress of grievances Cultural mediatized and historical representations of the native tend to fall within the boundaries of either a bottom up or a top down view that fits within a structuralist paradigm that rarely questions the individual let alone the marginalized However there is a need to examine the systems within which indigenous narratives operate from a post structuralist stance in order to re read indigenous discourses and to celebrate the multiplicity of meanings inherent in them The need for an intercultural pragmatic reading of native discourse therefore reveals itself to be of utmost relevance This volume discusses indigenous literary performances native history and cultural representations of natives and aboriginal discourse from around the world Topics pivot around historicizing the native the role of testimony and primary sources displacement and the denial of native legitimacy and literary mis representations of natives among other themes

Temporality in Life As Seen Through Literature Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2007-05-09 Temporality pervades the dynamic joint of existence and the human being as such As human beings unfold through ontopoiesis each move of which punctuates the temporality of life they whose life experience deliberation planning reflection and dreaming are permeated by temporal motivations and concerns feel that they are engaged in the spinning of a common thread Attributing to that involvement universal laws constant existential validity and power they absolutise hypostasise its rule as a cosmic human factor time Yet today technologies are transforming the temporality of our existence by accelerating intensifying expanding our partaking in the world of life Human communal and social involvement is being challenged in its personal significance to the core of our being What happens to time A basic reinvestigation of the nature of temporality is called for Human creative endeavor especially literature may initiate it Having the human subject the creator at its center literature is essentially engaged in temporality whether that of the mind or of the world of life through the creative process of writing stage directing or the reader's and viewer's reception Out of the cross motivations that the creative mind filters in its temporal synthesis in touch with all the perspectives of existence there surges the deepest significance of life in humanity and culture But first of all life comes to light as timing itself in its logos Tymieniecka

Essays and Lectures by Merab Mamardashvili Merab Slaughter, Alisa Sushytska, Julia Mamardashvili, 2020-11-17 Soviet era philosopher Merab Mamardashvili developed an original and subtle philosophical system distinct from both his orthodox and dissident colleagues This volume provides English speaking audiences with a range of his lectures and writings on ancient philosophy civil society the European project and literature After many decades hiding in plain sight he emerges as a Soviet thinker who writes in the double voiced manner of an ideologically surveilled academic and a potent literary and theoretical innovator independent of his context

Saint-John Perse: Praise and Presence Pierre Emmanuel, Ruth S.

Freitag, Gertrude Clarke Whittall Poetry and Literature Fund, 1971

Saint-John Perse Henriette Levillain, 2013-09-11 Alexis Léger Saint John Perse avait voulu couper l'herbe sous les pieds de ses futurs biographes en rédigeant lui-même en 1972 dans le volume de la Platiade sa biographie sous la forme d'une chronologie de taille. Et il la complète d'une réédition impérative interdiction de relier Alexis Léger le diplomate et Saint John Perse le poète. Ils étaient étrangers l'un à l'autre. De fait après son retour de Chine et malgré le succès international d'Anabase 1924 Alexis Léger semblait avoir renoncé à faire œuvre de poète et sacrifié son don indiscutables à l'ascension d'une carrière fulgurante. La composition des grandes œuvres Exil Vents et Amers n'aurait alors que le fruit d'un accident malheureux une carrière brutalement interrompue par son congédiement en 1940. De l'considérer les poèmes comme la compensation d'une frustration et le Nobel comme une revanche laborieusement obtenue force d'intrigues il n'y eut qu'un pas franchi par l'un de ses rares biographes. Si en quarante ans la critique a volé de la sidération des deux au respect pour faux dans cette biographie littéraire Henriette Levillain nous donne les clés pour comprendre plutôt que de juger le mystère du partage cloisonné entre deux noms deux vies. Les témoignages indiquent comment dit les archives ajoutent une longue familiarité de l'œuvre poétique lui ont permis d'approcher les secrètes tensions de Saint John Perse entre l'appétit de gloire et le besoin essentiel de solitude entre l'attirance instinctive pour la vie partout où elle se retrouve et une angoisse paralysante du vieillissement et de la mort

The Letters of T. S. Eliot T. S. Eliot, 2011-01-01

The first volume of Eliot's correspondence covers his childhood in St Louis Missouri through 1922 when he married and settled in England. Volume two covers the time period of Eliot's publication of The Hollow Men and his developing ideas about poetry

Second Finding Barbara Follett, 2007-09-06 The translation of poetry has always fascinated the theorists as the chances of replicating in another language the one-off resonance of music imagery and truth values of a poem are vanishingly small. Translation is often envisaged as a matter of mapping over into the target language the surface features or semiotic structures of the source poem. Little wonder then that the vast majority of translations fail to be poetry in their own right These essays focus on the poetically viable translation the derived poem that while resonating with the original really is a poem They proceed from a writerly perspective eschewing both the theoretical overkill that spawns mice out of mountains and the ideological misappropriation that uses poetry as a way to push agendas The emphasis throughout is on process and the poem to come Published in English
