Handley, 2011-04-20 This is the first collection to bring environmental issues into a dialogue with postcolonial studies By examining African Caribbean Pacific Island and South Asian literatures and how they depict the relationship between humans and nature Postcolonial Ecologies makes a compelling argument for a more global approach to thinking through our current environmental crisis      Gauchos and Foreigners Ariana Huberman, 2010-12-29 In Gauchos and Foreigners Glossing Culture and Identity in the Argentine Countryside Ariana Huberman discusses the relationship between the gaucho figure and the foreigner in Argentine rural literature The narratives of William Henry Hudson Benito Lynch and Alberto Gerchunoff present English scientists and travelers as well as Jewish and Italian immigrants in direct contact with the gaucho in the Argentine and Uruguayan countryside The book shows how the intent to define and translate terms from the national glossary the gaucho his lifestyle and habitat and from foreign cultures ultimately questions these terms capacity to represent a specific culture It traces a series of writing practices that challenge the concepts of native and foreign as stable categories of representation by conveying identity and culture across multiple linguistic social and cultural registers The reading of these unique practices of translation hopes to offer a fresh approach to the multicultural scope of Argentine literature      White Whole Surazeus Astarius, 2019-03-20 White Whole presents 1 136 lyrics pastorals satires elegies and narrative poems written in 2018 by Surazeus that explore the evolution of the universe since the First Flash from the White Whole      Solariad Surazeus Astarius, 2017-10-15 Solariad of Surazeus Guidance of Solaria presents 114 920 lines of verse in 1 660 poems lyrics ballads sonnets dramatic monologues eulogies hymns and epigrams written by Surazeus 2006 to 2011      Empires of Print Patrick Scott Belk, 2017-05-08 At the turn of the twentieth century the publishing industries in Britain and the United States underwent dramatic expansions and reorganization that brought about an increased traffic in books and periodicals around the world Focusing on adventure fiction published from 1899 to 1919 Patrick Scott Belk looks at authors such as Joseph Conrad H G Wells Conan Doyle and John Buchan to explore how writers of popular fiction engaged with foreign markets and readers through periodical publishing Belk argues that popular fiction particularly the adventure genre developed in ways that directly correlate with authors experiences and shows that popular genres of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries emerged as one way of marketing their literary works to expanding audiences of readers worldwide Despite an over determined print space altered by the rise of new kinds of consumers and transformations of accepted habits of reading publishing and writing the changes in British and American publishing at the turn of the twentieth century inspired an exciting new period of literary invention and experimentation in the adventure genre and the greater part of that invention and experimentation was happening in the magazines International Relations and the Problem of Difference Naeem Inayatullah, David L. Blaney, 2004-08-02 International Relations and the Problem of Difference has developed out of the sense that IR as a discipline does not assess the quality of cultural interactions that shape and are shaped by the changing structures and processes of the international system In this work the authors re imagine IR as a uniquely placed site for the study of differences as organized explicitly around the exploration of the relation of wholes and parts and sameness and difference and always the one in relation to the other The Magic Show Emil Mihelich, 2016-04-13 The saga of Dan Kristich continues First encountered in Around the Horn in 1949 as a five year old boy and then in The Purple Bow in 1962 as a seventeen year old high school senior nearing graduation Dan now finds himself in the early spring of 1973 stuck in Spokane Washington He has returned to his West after working for a year in the East as part of the housing administration at the State University of New York at Stony Brook fifty miles east of New York City on Long Island After experiencing the decadence that seemed to envelop Stony Brook Dan returns to the Great Northwest in this case to The Heart of its Inland Empire only to find in Spokane a Western expression of The Valley of Ashes In 1962 as American astronauts had begun to explore outer space Dan wondered about the existence of the next world that was supposed to house the souls of the faithful departed And now in the early spring of 1973 those same explorers following in the footsteps of Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin have made several voyages to the moon never having found any solid evidence to support the existence of such a world In the absence of any solid definitive evidence Dan reasons life itself may be meaningless after all Standing on the brink of despair Dan phones his friend Charlie and the two of them embark on a night journey through Spokane s pouring rain Ride along with them as Dan continues his search for and finally this time to find the magic that has the potential to restore hope and vitality to any Valley of Ashes Restructuring World Politics Sanjeev Khagram, James V. The Politics of Human Rights Tony Evans,2005-05-20 In the past violations of human rights were commonly portrayed as atrocities perpetrated by tyrannical dictatorships Today the images of torture at Abu Ghraib in Iraq and the treatment of detainees at Guantanamo Bay put the lie to this assumption State violations of human rights have a global reach Tony Evan s introduction to the politics of human rights examines the impact of globalisation on global human rights He argues that the state s role in protecting and promoting rights has been severely weakened under globalisation and that the emerging global order may be a cause of many human rights violations As the value of the market grows the value of individual human rights decreases The Politics of Human Rights departs from traditional interpretations of human rights by focusing on the political economy of human rights rather than on the philosophical or legal aspects

The Fortress in the Frost Stephen Hunt,2020-06-01 It is the final years of the 18th century but a world which few would recognise The people of Europe shelter in small islands of safety havens from the enchanted wilderness the strange boundless forests people call the Tumble It is across this demon haunted landscape that the low born officer Taliesin must lead his men caught up in the deadliest of intrigues while fighting wars for a noble class which despises him With vicious murderers from the worst gutters in the Realm marching behind him and the forces of the most powerful nations of the mainland arrayed against him the odds are stacked against Taliesin Heavily Yet he will fight on battling armies sorcerers assassins beastmen and cross into the face of hell itself Not for loyalty or grudging respect for his scheming monarch not even for the small mountain of silver the Island Queen has promised him if he succeeds But because fighting is all he and his pressed band of cut throats and thieves have ever known

Victorian Visions of Suburban Utopia Nathaniel Robert Walker,2020-11-17 The rise of suburbs and disinvestment from cities have been defining features of life in many countries over the course of the twentieth century In Victorian Visions of Suburban Utopia Nathaniel

Walker asks why did we abandon our dense complex urban places and seek to find the best of the city and the country in the flowery suburbs While looking back at the architecture and urban design of the 1800s offers some answers Walker argues that a great missing piece of the story can be found in Victorian utopian literature The replacement of cities with high tech suburbs was repeatedly imagined and breathlessly described in the socialist dreams and science fiction fantasies of dozens of British and American authors Some of these visionaries such as Robert Owen Edward Bulwer Lytton Edward Bellamy William Morris Ebenezer Howard and H G Wells are enduringly famous while others were street vendors or amateur chemists who have been all but forgotten Together they fashioned strange and beautiful imaginary worlds built of synthetic gemstones lacy metal colonnades and unbreakable glass staffed by robotic servants and teeming with flying carriages As varied as their futuristic visions could be Walker reveals how most of them were unified by a single desperate plea for humanity to have a future worth living we must abandon our smoky poor chaotic Babylonian cities for a life in shimmering gardens

Geography and Vision Denis Cosgrove,2012-11-25 Leading geographer Denis Cosgrove provides a series of personal reflections on the complex connections between seeing imagining and representing the world geographically In a series of eloquent essays he draws upon pictorial images including maps sketches cartoons paintings and photographs to explore and elaborate upon the many and varied ways in which the vast and varied earth and at times the heavens beyond have been both imagined and represented as a place of human habitation The essays include reflections upon geographical discovery urban cartography and utopian visions ideas of landscape and the shaping of America wilderness and masculinity conceptions of the Pacific and the imaginative grip of the Equator Extensively illustrated this engaging work reveals the richness of the geographical imagination as expressed over the past five centuries

Taking Root James Ron,Shannon Golden,David Crow,Archana Pandya,2017-11-07 Human rights organizations have grown exponentially across the globe particularly in the global South and the term human rights is now common parlance among politicians and civil society activists While debates about human rights are waged in elite circles what do publics in the global South think about human rights ideas and the organizations that promote them Drawing on large scale public opinion surveys and interviews with human rights practitioners in India Mexico Morocco and Nigeria Taking Root finds that most people are in fact broadly supportive of human rights discourse trust local human rights groups and do not view human rights as a tool of foreign powers However this general public support isn t grounded in strong commitments of public engagement money or local ties to the human rights sector Publics in the global South do donate to charitable causes and organizations but rarely give to local rights groups and these organizations must instead seek aid from foreign sources As the most informative and comprehensive account of public perceptions of human rights available across several regions of the world Taking Root challenges a number of accepted truths held by human rights supporters and skeptics alike

Colonial Tropes and Postcolonial Tricks Lesley Wylie,2009-01-01 This volume offers a new reading of the Spanish American novela de la selva genre often interpreted as a belated imitation of European travel literature Arguing against the commonly held opinion of the genre's derivative nature Colonial Tropes and Postcolonial Tricks examines how novela de la selva fiction reimagined the tropics from a Latin American perspective and redefined tropical landscape aesthetics and ethnography through parodic rewritings of European perspectives Analyzing four emblematic novels of the genre this book considers the crucial place of the jungle as a locus for the contestation of national and literary identity by post independence Latin American writers
