Embattled Shadows A History Of Canadian Cinema 1895 1939:

Embattled Shadows Oeter Morris,1992-08-06 Other Canadian film producers concentrated their efforts on short productions mostly in government or commercial companies such as Associated Screen News of Montreal The works of Gordon Spalding Bill Oliver and Albert Tessier are discussed in this context Morris concludes with the founding of the National Film Board which under the dynamic guidance of John Grierson was to breathe new life into a moribund industry In a postscript Morris explores some of the reasons for the unique development of Canadian film making particularly its use of natural settings and documentary when virtually the rest of the world s industry was following the Hollywood pattern of studio location and fictional plots and examines the relationship of the early industry to later developments in Canadian film making At a time when Canada s cultural industries are struggling to survive in the wake of the Free Trade Agreement with the United States and under the threat of Free Trade with Mexico Embattled Shadows makes essential reading

Canadian Cinema Since the 1980s David L. Pike,2012-12-06 Award winning author David L Pike offers a unique focus on the crucial quarter century in Canadian filmmaking when the industry became a viable force on the international stage Pike provides a lively personal and accessible history of the most influential filmmakers and movements of both Anglo Canadian and Quebecois cinema from popular movies to art film and everything in between Along with in depth studies of key directors including David Cronenberg Patricia Rozema and Denys Arcand Jean Claude Lauzon Robert Lepage L a Pool Atom Egoyan and Guy Maddin Canadian Cinema since the 1980s reflects on major themes and genres and explores the regional and cultural diversity of the period Pike positions Canadian filmmaking at the frontlines of a profound cinematic transformation in the age of global media and presents fresh perspectives on both its local and international contexts Making a significant advance in the study of the film industry of the period Canadian Cinema since the 1980s is also an ideal text for students researchers and Canadian film enthusiasts

The Cinema of Québec Janis L. Pallister,1995 Quebecois cinema too long neglected and too long unknown by American viewers and often not appreciated on its own terrain receives its well deserved defense in Janis L Pallister s The Cinema of Quebec Masters in Their Own House

Charles Urban Luke McKernan,2015-03-15 Based on original research from Charles Urban s own papers this is the first biography of this influential film maker and innovator It is also a historical study of the development of the non fiction film in Britain and America in the early years of cinema told through the experiences of the leading pioneer of the form Charles Urban was a renowned figure in his time and he has remained a name in film history chiefly for his development of Kinemacolor the world's first successful natural colour moving picture system He was also a pioneer in the filming of war science travel actuality and news a fervent advocate of the value of film as an educative force and a controversial but important innovator of film propaganda in wartime The book uses Urban's story as a means of showing how the non fiction film developed in the period 1897-1925 and the dilemmas that it faced within a cinema culture in which the entertainment fiction film was dominant Urban's solutions some successful some less so illustrate the groundwork that led to the development of documentary film The book considers the roles of film as informer educator and generator of propaganda and the social and aesthetic function of colour in the years when cinema was still working out what it was capable of and how best to reach audiences Luke McKernan also curates a web resource on Charles Urban at www.charlesurban.com Winner of the Kraszna Krausz Moving Image Book Award 2014

Building New Bridges - Bâtir de nouveaux ponts Jeff Keshen, Sylvie Perrier, 2005-06-30 Questions of methodology and the use of sources are fundamental to all academic disciplines In recent years this topic has become far more challenging as scholars are increasingly adopting an interdisciplinary approach to achieve richer and deeper analyses particularly in the humanities and social sciences Building New Bridges Bâtir de nouveaux ponts is a collection of scholarly papers that deals with the first principles of source identification and their effective utilization The contributors to the volume come from a wide range of disciplines and represent both French and English Canada Together they explore and encourage the interdisciplinarity trend around which considerable academic trepidation remains and seek to explain for example how historians and those in English or French analyze texts how scholars approach paintings photography and film and how the study of music relates tempo and lyrics to wider societal trends They utilize their respective research to elucidate means of effectively employing evidences and methods to achieve richer deeper and more nuanced results As a whole the collection provides an excellent primer for scholars of methodology Published in English

Silent Cinema Paolo Cherchi Usai, 2019-04-04 Paolo Cherchi Usai provides a comprehensive introduction to the study research and preservation of silent cinema from its heyday in the early 20th century to its present day flourishing He traces the history of the moving image in its formative years from Edison's and Lumière's first experiments to the dawn of talkies provides a clear guide to the basics of silent film technology introduces the technical and creative roles involved in its production and presents silent cinema as a performance event rather than a passive viewing experience This new greatly expanded edition takes the reader on a new journey exploring silent cinema in the broader context of technology culture and society from the invention of celluloid film and its related machinery to film studios laboratories theatres and audiences Among the people involved in the creation of a new art form were filmmakers actors and writers but also engineers entrepreneurs and projectionists Their collective efforts and the struggle to preserve their creative work by archives and museums are interwoven in a compelling story covering three centuries of media history from the magic lantern to the reinvention of silent cinema in digital form The new edition also includes comprehensive resource information for the study research preservation and exhibition of silent cinema Canadian Content Ryan Edwardson, 2008-05-24 A nation is given shape in large part through the cultural activities of its builders Historically nationalists have turned to the arts and media to articulate and institute a sense of unique national identity This was certainly true of Canada in the twentieth century Canadian Content explores ways in which nationhood was defined and pursued through cultural means in Canada throughout the last century As a framework for the study Ryan Edwardson distinguishes between three phases of Canadianization support for the arts and cultured mass media during the colony to nation transition the new nationalist empowerment of multi brow culture and the call for state intervention in the mid 1960s and 1970s and the cultural industrialism initiated by the federal government under Pierre Trudeau in 1968 Examining each phase in its turn Canadian Content looks at Canada as an ongoing postcolonial process of not one but a series of radically different nationhoods each with its own valued but tentative set of cultural criteria for orchestrating and implementing a Canadian national experience Considering the relationship between culture and national identity this study offers an idea of what it means to be Canadian and suggests just how adaptable problematic and ongoing the pursuit of nationhood can be

Profiles of Canada Kenneth G. Pryke, Walter C. Soderlund, 2003 This third edition of Profiles of Canada combines depth breadth sophistication and readability to offer the student a comprehensive introduction to Canadian society The editors have brought together contributions from a wide range of disciplines to create a fascinating overview of the various facets of Canadian life and culture The text includes aspects of the Canadian experience not usually found in introductory texts The inclusion of a short story by Alistair MacLeod for example is an innovative departure from the academic writing of the other chapters and provides the student of Canadian society with a sample of the finest in contemporary Canadian writing Editors Dr Kenneth Pryke and Dr Walter Soderlund have carried out a successful update of the earlier editions of this well respected text Aspects of Canada explored in this new edition include regionalism the North demography ethnicity culture and sport

Framing Law and Crime Caroline Joan "Kay" S. Picart, Michael Hviid Jacobsen, Cecil Greek, 2016-04-01 This cutting edge edited collection brings together 17 scholarly essays on two of cinema and television's most enduring and powerful themes law and crime With contributions by many of the most prominent scholars in law sociology criminology and film Framing Law and Crime offers a critical survey of a variety of genres and media integrating descriptions of technique with critical analysis and incorporating historical and socio political critique The first set of essays brings together accounts of the history of the Law and Cinema Movement the groundbreaking genre of post apocalyptic fiction and the policy setting genesis of a Canadian documentary The second section of the book turns to the examination of a range of international or global films with an eye to assessing the strengths frailties and possible functions of law as depicted in fictional cinema After an international focus in the second section the third section focuses on law and crime in American film and television inclusive of both fictional and documentary modes of narration This section s expansion beyond film narratives to include television series attempts to broaden the scope of the edited collection in terms of media discussed it is also a nod to how the big screen although still a dominant force in American popular culture now has to compete to some extent with the small screen for influence over the collective American popular cultural imaginary The fourth section titled brings together various chapters that attempt to instantiate how a Gothic Criminology could be useful as an interpretative framework in analyzing depictions of law and crime in film and television The fifth and final section covers issues of pedagogy epistemology and ethics in relation to moving images of law and crime Merging wide ranging analyses with nuanced scholarly interpretations Framing Law and Crime examines key concepts and showcases original research reflecting the latest interdisciplinary trends in the scholarship of the moving image It addresses not only scholars but also fans and will heighten the appreciation of connoisseurs and newcomers to these topics alike
