Emblematics in Hungary Éva Knapp, Gábor Tüskés, 2012-10-25 The main aim of the work is to present emblematics in Hungary in its European context and to show the reciprocal influence between that phenomenon and mainstream literature The description of the theoretical and historical development in Hungary is supplemented by a series of case studies examining the effect of emblematics upon various literary genres The final chapter analyzes the link between literary emblematics and the visual arts by looking at a specific example As in most European countries emblematics in Hungary is part of a complex labyrinth of literary modes of thought and expression A relative poverty of theoretical writing went hand in hand with a considerable range of emblematic practice The emblem proved to be a transitional form between the period when signs and motifs were regarded as having specific and fixed meanings and the modern period when we have developed a different and shifting concept of language and meaning At the same time as emblems began to penetrate the more popular levels of national culture and literature they also became more specialized Hungarian emblematics used for the most part existing pictorial and textual combinations of pictures and texts They employed the emblem notably in genres and texts of the genus demonstrativum which referred to matters which were topical at the time

Reahard, 1997 In an attempt to discover the one idea with respect to which Goethe claimed he had worked while writing Die Wahlverwandtschaften taking my cue from Goethe himself I have united the investigational techniques of hermeneutics and complexity or chaos theory and brought them to bear on the structure of several of the mirroring events in the text The overwhelming conclusion of this author is that like those investigating chaos in nature literary theorists must turn to comprehensive approaches if they wish to treat seriously the structure of texts as works which flow from nature the nature of the human mind

This study the first full length investigation in English of the structure of Eichendorff s novels begins by examining Romantic literary theory and its significance for Eichendorff s conception of the Roman His two novels Ahnung und Gegenwart and Dichter und ihre Gesellen are then analysed in the context of both the theory and practice of the Romantic novel and of Eichendorff s other works His conception of the Roman is shown to correspond closely to Romantic theory and to find expression in his novels which reflect in their structure both the seeming confusion of life and its underlying God given order and thereby point beyond themselves to a transcendent significance F rstliche Bauten auf s chsischen Medaillen
