Decentering Fashion on the Silk Roads Stefanie

Mallon, Galina Mihaleva, 2024-12-30 Decentering Fashion on the Silk Roads focuses on the dynamism of fashion textile craft heritage and sustainability in Central Asia and beyond. The compelling series of accounts provides a comprehensive set of insights and impressions collected from both fashion academics, designers and practitioners from around the globe who journeyed through Uzbekistan and Kazakhstan and from those who live and work in this region. It showcases ways in which local textile craft practices can inform the modern fashion industry into becoming more sustainable. The book opens by exploring the importance of the old Silk Roads crossing through the heart of the world in Central Asia, serving not only as trade routes but also allowing knowledge, art and practices to be transmitted between the Orient and the Occident, enabling ideas to flourish and cultural dispositions to develop from Antiquity until Modernity. The unique set of chapters that follow examine and highlight the growing opportunities and lessons this region has to offer to Western fashion through local artistry and craft and points toward the urgent need to slow down and adopt responsible principles and practices. The book constitutes a warm appreciation of the experiences and grateful thanks to the many communities from all different backgrounds and ages who contributed. This rich travelogue is a refreshing resource for international scholars and postgraduate students studying and researching fashion theory and management in particular. It will also be of interest to anthropologists, cultural studies and textiles scholars.

Fashion Design Process Dr Sukhvir Singh, Amar

Mithapalli, 2024-03-11 Welcome to Fashion Design Process authored by Dr Sukhvir Singh, Professor and Associate Dean of the Faculty of Fashion and Design at SGT University, Gurgaon, and Mr Amar Mithapalli, Head of the Department of Fashion Design at Avantika University, Ujjain. We are thrilled to present this book as a comprehensive guide to the intricate and captivating world of fashion design. Fashion design is more than just creating beautiful garments; it is a dynamic and iterative process that requires creativity, technical skill and a deep understanding of market trends and consumer preferences. In this book, we aim to demystify the design process, providing readers with a roadmap to navigate the complexities of concept development, research, design iteration and final presentation. Throughout the chapters of this book, readers will embark on a journey that explores the various stages of the fashion design process, from inspiration to execution. We draw upon our collective experience in academia and industry to offer practical insights, expert advice and real-world examples that will inspire and empower aspiring designers to unleash their creative potential. Whether you are a student embarking on your journey into the world of fashion design, an educator seeking to enhance your curriculum or a seasoned professional looking to refine your skills, Fashion Design Process offers something for everyone. We hope that this book serves as a source of inspiration and guidance as you embark on your own creative journey in the ever-evolving field of fashion design. We extend our sincere gratitude to our colleagues, students and industry partners whose support and insights have enriched this book.
