Canadian Short Story John Metcalf, 2018-09-25 No other person has done more to celebrate and encourage the short story in Canada than John Metcalf. For more than five decades he has worked tirelessly as editor, anthologist, writer, critic, and teacher to help shape our understanding of the form and what it can do. The long-time editor of the yearly Best Canadian Stories anthology as well as a fiction editor at some of the pre-eminent literary presses in the country for more than forty years, he has worked to support and champion several generations of our best writers. Literature in Canada would be far less without his efforts. Sifting through a lifetime of reading, writing, and thinking about the short story in this country and where it fits within the larger currents of world literature, Metcalf's magisterial The Canadian Short Story offers the most authoritative book on the subject to date. Most importantly, it includes an expanded and reconsidered Century List, Metcalf's critical guide to the best Canadian short story collections of the last 100 years. But more than a critical book, The Canadian Short Story is a love letter to the form, a passionate defense of the best of our literature, and a championing of those books and writers most often overlooked. It is a guide not only to what to read but also one of its author's most fervent desires, which aims to make better readers of us all. Selected Black American, African, and Caribbean Authors James Allen Page, Jae Min Roh, 1985

The Routledge Introduction to African American Literature D. Quentin Miller, 2016-02-12 The Routledge Introduction to African American Literature considers the key literary, political, historical, and intellectual contexts of African American literature from its origins to the present and also provides students with an analysis of the most up-to-date literary trends and debates in African American literature. This accessible and engaging guide covers a variety of essential topics such as Vernacular Oral and Blues Traditions in Literature, Slave Narratives and Their Influence, The Harlem Renaissance, Mid-twentieth-century Black American Literature, Literature of the Civil Rights and Black Power era, Contemporary African American Writing. Key thematic and theoretical debates within the field. Examining the relationship between the literature and its historical and sociopolitical contexts, D. Quentin Miller covers key authors and works as well as less canonical writers and themes, including literature and music, female authors, intersectionality, and transnational Black writing.

International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up-to-date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets. Every Goodbye Ain't Gone Aldon Lynn Nielsen, Lauri Ramey, 2006-02-05 Showcases brilliant and experimental work in African American poetry. Just prior to the Second World War and even more explosively in the 1950s and 1960s, a far-reaching revolution in aesthetics and prosody by Black poets ensued, some working independently and others in organized groups. Little of this new work was reflected in the anthologies and syllabi of college English courses of the period. Even during the 1970s, when African American literature began to receive substantial critical attention, the work of many experimental Black poets continued to be neglected. Every Goodbye Ain't Gone presents the groundbreaking work of many of these poets who carried on the innovative legacies of Melvin Tolson, Gwendolyn Brooks, and Robert Hayden. Whereas poetry by such key figures such as Amiri Baraka, Tolson, Jayne Cortez, Clarence Major, and June Jordan is represented, this anthology also elevates into view the work of less studied poets such as Russell Atkins Jodi Braxton David Henderson Bob Kaufman Stephen Jonas and Elouise Loftin Many of the poems collected in the volume are currently unavailable and some will appear in print here for the first time Coeditors Aldon Lynn Nielsen and Lauri Ramey provide a critical introduction that situates the poems historically and highlights the ways such poetry has been obscured from view by recent critical and academic practices The result is a record of experimentation instigation and innovation that links contemporary African American poetry to its black modernist roots and extends the terms of modern poetics into the future International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters

Twentieth-Century American Poetry Christopher MacGowan, 2008-04-15 Written by a leading authority on William Carlos Williams this book provides a wide ranging and stimulating guide to twentieth century American poetry A wide ranging and stimulating critical guide to twentieth century American poetry Written by a leading authority on the innovative modernist poet William Carlos Williams Explores the material historical and social contexts in which twentieth century American poetry was produced Includes a biographical dictionary of major writers with extended entries on poets ranging from Robert Frost to Adrienne Rich Contains a section on key texts considering major works such as The Waste Land North South Howl and Ariel The final section draws out key themes such as American poetry politics and war and the process of anthologizing at the end of the century

The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabulations that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates
