Elizabeth Costello Proof J. M. Coetzee, 2003-09-01 J.M. Coetzee's Austerities Graham Bradshaw, Michael Neill,2016-05-06 Representing a wide range of critical and theoretical perspectives this volume examines J M Coetzee s novels from Dusklands to Diary of a Bad Year The choice of essays reflects three broad goals aligning the South African dimension of Coetzee's writing with his late modernist aesthetic exploring the relationship between Coetzee's novels and his essays on linguistics and paying particular attention to his more recent fictional experiments. These objectives are realized in essays focusing on among other matters the function of names and etymology in Coetzee's fiction the vexed relationship between art and politics in apartheid South Africa the importance of film in Coetzee's literary sensibility Coetzee's reworkings of Defoe the paradoxes inherent in confessional narratives ethics and the controversial politics of reading Disgrace intertextuality and the fictional self consciousness of Slow Man Through its pronounced emphasis on the novelist s later work the collection points towards a narrato political and linguistic reassessment of the Coetzee canon Elizabeth Costello J. M. Coetzee, 2013 Elizabeth Costello John M. Coetzee, 2003 Elizabeth Costello is a distinguished and aging Australian novelist whose life is revealed through a series of eight formal addresses From an award acceptance speech at a New England liberal arts college to a lecture on evil in Amsterdam and a sexually charged reading by the poet Robert Duncan the author draws the reader toward its astonishing conclusion The novel is on its surface the story of a woman s life as mother sister lover and writer Yet it is also a profound and haunting meditation on the nature of storytelling Fiction Across Borders Shameem Black, 2010 Theorists of Orientalism and postcolonialism argue that novelists betray political and cultural anxieties when characterizing the Other Shameem Black takes a different stance Turning a fresh eye toward several key contemporary novelists she reveals how border crossing fiction represents socially diverse groups without resorting to stereotype idealization or other forms of imaginative constraint Focusing on the work of J M Coetzee Amitav Ghosh Jeffrey Eugenides Ruth Ozeki Charles Johnson Gish Jen and Rupa Bajwa Black introduces an interpretative lens that captures the ways in which these authors envision an ethics of representing social difference They not only offer sympathetic portrayals of the lives of others but also detail the processes of imagining social difference Whether depicting the multilingual worlds of South and Southeast Asia the exportation of American culture abroad or the racial tension of postapartheid South Africa these transcultural representations explore social and political hierarchies in constructive ways Boldly confronting the orthodoxies of recent literary criticism Fiction Across Borders builds upon such seminal works as Edward Said s Orientalism and offers a provocative new study of the late twentieth century novel Disability and Animality Stephanie Jenkins, Kelly Struthers Montford, Chloë Taylor, 2020-03-26 The fields of Critical Disability Studies and Critical Animal Studies are growing rapidly but how do the implications of these endeavours intersect Disability and Animality Crip Perspectives in Critical Animal Studies explores some of the ways that the oppression of more than human animals and disabled humans are interconnected Composed of thirteen chapters by an international team of specialists plus a Foreword by Lori Gruen the book is divided into four themes Intersections of Ableism and Speciesism Thinking Animality and Disability together in Political and Moral Theory Neurodiversity and Critical Animals Studies Melancholy Madness and Misfits This book will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral scholars interested in Animal Studies Disability Studies Mad Studies philosophy and literary analysis It will also appeal to those interested in the relationships between speciesism ableism saneism and racism in animal agriculture culture built environments and ethics J.M. Coetzee and the Idea of the Public Intellectual Jane Poyner, 2006 J M Coetzee and the Idea of the Public Intellectual addresses the contribution Coetzee has made to contemporary literature not least for the contentious forays his work makes into South African political discourse and the field of postcolonial studies Elizabeth Costello by I.M. Coetzee Kevin Brophy, 2005 Nature and Narrative Markku Lehtimäki, 2025-05-23 The book explores environmental issues in twenty first century Anglophone fiction and how those issues are dealt with by specific literary means It proposes a reciprocal relationship between nature and narrative the idea according to which nature both informs and inspires artistic creations while literary designs and rhetoric also shape our ideas and perceptions of the natural environment It is argued that in order to address design and rhetoric in environmental texts we need a close analysis of those world shaping functions of literary narratives that unite ecocritical and narratological interests The author presents readings of contemporary novels and their varying ways of seeing nature through narrative devices and fictional minds The novels discussed in the book are Hilary Mantel's Wolf Hall Toni Morrison's A Mercy Ian McGuire s The North Water Barbara Kingsolver s The Lacuna Paul Harding s Tinkers and Enon J M Coetzee s Elizabeth Costello Ian McEwan s Solar and Jenny Offill s Weather Fictional Worlds and the Political Imagination Garry L. Hagberg, 2024-05-21 There has been a steady stream of articles written on the relations between political thought and the interpretation of literature but there remains a need for a book that both introduces and significantly contributes to the field particularly one that shows in detail how we can think more freely and creatively about political possibilities by reading and reflecting on politically significant literature This volume offers analytically acute and culturally rich ways of understanding how it is that we can productively think philosophically about political literature and what kind of distinctive conceptual progress we can make by doing so Given the extremely widespread interest in political issues this volume will strike resonant chords far and wide while offering something that has not been done quite in this way and for which the time J. M. Coetzee Anthony Uhlmann, 2020-01-23 J M Coetzee Truth Meaning Fiction illuminates the intellectual and philosophical interests that drive Coetzee's writing In doing so it makes the case for Coetzee as an important and original thinker in his own right Whilst looking at Coetzee's writing career from his dissertation through to The Schooldays of Jesus 2016 and interpreting running themes and scenarios style and evolving attitudes to literary form Anthony Uhlmann also offers revealing glimpses informed by archival research of Coetzee's writing process Among the main themes that Uhlmann sees in Coetzee's writing and which remains highly relevant today is the awareness that there is truth in fiction or that fiction can provide valuable insights into real world problems and that there are also fictions of the truth that we are surrounded in our everyday lives by stories we wish to believe are true J M Coetzee Truth Meaning Fiction offers a revealing new account of one of arguably our most important contemporary writers J. M. Coetzee and Ethics Anton Leist, Peter Singer, 2010-06-01 In 2003 South African writer J M Coetzee was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature for his riveting portrayals of racial repression sexual politics the quises of reason and the hypocrisy of human beings toward animals and nature Coetzee was credited with being a scrupulous doubter ruthless in his criticism of the cruel rationalism and cosmetic morality of western civilization The film of his novel Disgrace starring John Malkovich brought his challenging ideas to a new audience Anton Leist and Peter Singer have assembled an outstanding group of contributors who probe deeply into Coetzee's extensive and extraordinary corpus They explore his approach to ethical theory and philosophy and pay particular attention to his representation of the human animal relationship They also confront Coetzee's depiction of the elementary conditions of life the origins of morality the recognition of value in others the sexual dynamics between men and women the normality of suppression and the possibility of equality in postcolonial society With its wide ranging consideration of philosophical issues especially in relation to fiction this volume stands alone in its extraordinary exchange of ethical and literary inquiry Acts of Visitation María J.
