Emako Blue:

Emako Blue Brenda Woods, 2005-12-29 Emako Blue was supposed to be a star She was beautiful and good hearted She was Monterey's best friend She was the only girl Jamal cared about the one who saw through his player act She was the one who understood the burden of Eddie's family She was the best singer anyone had ever heard with a voice like vanilla incense smoky and sweet She was Savannah s rival the one who wouldn't play by the rules She was destined for greatness already plucked from South Central Los Angeles by the record producers She was only fifteen when she died A. Woods, 2004 Emako had a voice that would make her famous one day but she died before her dreams came true Her friends are left alone to mourn her death and share memories of Emako the girl who was supposed to be a star Expecting Excellence in Urban Schools Jelani Jabari, 2013-04-17 One of the most immediate challenges in K 12 schools lies in implementing powerful pedagogy which emotionally intellectually and behaviorally engages students The challenge is compounded in urban schools where higher proportions of underprepared minority students are in classrooms with teachers who find it difficult to not only create bonds but also in packaging pedagogy in relevant interesting and meaningful ways Though many teachers can temporarily tap students interests or episodically engage students in a portion of a lesson the ability to create and sustain an engaging educational practice remains largely elusive This book supplies the missing threads through establishing a framework for student engagement which has been cited as the number one factor impacting achievement It is an easy read written a highly conversational tone with a strong research basis You will explore a 7 step process for emotionally intellectually and behaviorally engaging students with a wealth of specific strategies techniques and tools which create an engaging educational experience Utilizing cornerstones of professional learning communities suggestions are offered for utilizing action research collaborative inquiry journal study and shared practice to integrate ideas into practice Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, Deborah L. Murphy, 2006-12-21 Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults is a biographical dictionary that provides comprehensive coverage of all major authors and illustrators past and present As the only reference volume of its kind available this book is a valuable research tool that provides quick access for anyone studying black children's literature whether one is a student a librarian charged with maintaining a children's literature collection or a scholar of children's literature The Fourth Edition of this renowned reference work illuminates African American contributions to children's literature and books for young adults The new edition contains updated and new information for existing author illustrator entries the addition of approximately 50 new profiles and a new section listing online resources of interest to the authors and readers of black children's literature Death. Loss, and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto, Rajinder Garcha, 2012-11-21 All human beings encounter loss and death as well as the grief associated with these experiences It is therefore important for children and adolescents to understand that such events are inevitable and to learn how to accept loss and cope with their emotions In order to help children through their pain parents and caregivers need access to the proper resources that will help them discuss these topics and educational professionals need reliable resources for creating courses of study on these subjects In Death Loss and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto and Rajinder Garcha identify hundreds of resources that will help educators professionals parents siblings quardians and students learn about coping with the loss of a loved one and the grief process These resources include books Internet sites and media titles aimed at students and those helping them through the grieving process Chapters in this volume include fiction and non fiction titles about the loss of a family member a friend and a pet as well as general reference resources curricular resources and websites Annotations provide complete bibliographical descriptions of the entries and each entry is identified with the grade levels for which it is best suited Reviews from recognized publications are also included wherever possible Anyone interested in locating helpful resources regarding death and grieving will find much of value in this essential tool My Name Is Sally Little Song Brenda Woods, 2007-10-18 Sally Harrison and her family are slaves on a plantation in Georgia But when Master decides to sell Sally and her brother the family escapes to seek shelter with a tribe of Seminoles who are rumored to adopt runaway slaves After a perilous journey Sally's family finds and joins the tribe But while her father and brother easily adjust to Indian ways Sally can t seem to find her place Combining the poetry of Sally s songs with the heartracing tension of the family s escape author Brenda Woods delivers a breathtaking story of a girl caught between worlds Quick and Popular Reads for Teens Pam Spencer Holley, 2009 Compiles and annotates YALSA s Popular Paperbacks for Young Adults and Quick Picks for Reluctant Readers Includes theme lists Book Club Bonnie Kunzel, Constance Hardesty, 2006-03-30 Vibrant dynamic teen book clubs the kind teens eagerly anticipate and attend session after session are teen centered With innovative pragmatic ideas that will attract and retain teen readers this guide provides everything you need to run a successful teen centered book club Covering every step from planning and promoting to how to prompt discussion and keep it civilized this is a one stop source for the teen book club leader Dozens of reproducibles for teens include book lists ground rules and book based activities The book even has directions for evaluating your club and lists of resources for more information Whether you re starting a teen book club trying to revive a flagging program or wish to build on past success if you re involved in a teen book club this guide is a must What s the difference between a teen book club and an adult one Too often the answer is Not much Like so many programs for teens traditional book clubs tend to be scaled down versions of adult clubs If book selection taboo topics and logistical details are the most important things that set your teen book club apart from an adult one you could be missing a huge opportunity Vibrant dynamic teen book clubs the kind teens eagerly anticipate and attend session after session are teen centered They re not merely by for and about teens but are grounded in the admittedly radical idea that the club is not primarily about library programming or even about books but is all about teens their interests and needs their social habits and styles their initiative

Books are the medium and the club is the method to achieve the ultimate goal of developing teen readers and leaders Furthermore the teen centered book club has huge potential to further a whole range of library goals from bringing more teen patrons through the door to building community wide awareness and support for the library itself What sets this book apart from the typical book club guide is that it is the only guide that addresses the unique constraints of public and school libraries budgeting impact on the facility and the collection and potential attempts at censorship to name just a few It s also the only guide that takes a teen centered approach putting front and center the idea that as with so many other things book clubs for teens are not merely scaled back versions of adult clubs Whether you are starting a club attempting to revive a flagging program or building on past success this manual offers you innovative pragmatic ideas that will attract and retain teen readers Grades 6 12 Teen Book Clubs offers a fresh new approach for today s teen readers and clear instructions along with tips and ideas for building teen centered book clubs In 12 brief chapters the book covers the teen centered book club what it is and what it takes to make it work putting it together planning and putting the plan in action going public recruiting boosting visibility garnering support 15 cunningly creative types of teen book clubs using book club to develop teen leaders scads of book lists reproducibles and sample discussion prompters tweaking troubleshooting and tips for keeping it civilized evaluations beyond measure resources for more information Filled with practical checklists figures worksheets and reproducibles this is the guide that all teen book club leaders should have The Unsung Hero of Birdsong, USA Brenda Woods, 2020-01-07 The Coretta Scott King Honor winning author tells the moving story of the friendship between a young white boy and a Black WWII veteran who has recently returned to the unwelcoming Jim Crow South For Gabriel Haberlin life seems pretty close to perfect in the small southern town of Birdsong USA But on his twelfth birthday his point of view begins to change It all starts when he comes face to face with one of the worst drivers in town while riding his new bicycle an accident that would have been tragic if Mr Meriwether Hunter hadn t been around to push him out of harm s way After the accident Gabriel and Meriwether become friends when they both start working at Gabriel s dad s auto shop and Meriwether lets a secret slip He served in the army s all black 761st Tank Battalion in World War II Soon Gabriel learns why it s so dangerous for Meriwether to talk about his heroism in front of white people and Gabriel's eyes are finally opened to the hard truth about Birdsong and his understanding of what it means to be a hero will never be the same Zoe in Wonderland Brenda A. Woods, 2016 Introverted daydream prone Zoe is afraid her real life will never be as exciting as her imaginary one

With Just One Wing Brenda Woods,2025-05-27 Coretta Scott King Honor winner Brenda Woods s poignant heartfelt story of an adopted boy and the bird he rescues Everyone expects Coop to be musical like his beloved parents but he s not That s one of the few things he finds awkward about being adopted well that and the fact that he sometimes wonders why his birth mother didn t love him enough to keep him This summer he s stuck at home with a broken arm after falling out of a tree trying to get a closer peek at a mockingbird nest After the eggs in the nest hatch and the fledglings fly away he and his friend

Zandi notice that one of them stays behind Taking a closer look they realize the bird only has one wing Since it won t survive in the wild they adopt it and name it Hop and then learn everything they can about birds so they can care for Hop properly Unfortunately when a hawk injures Hop the vet says it is illegal to keep mockingbirds as pets Faced with a difficult decision about surrendering his beloved little bird to a bird sanctuary Coop starts thinking about his birth mother's motivation in a The Road to Paris Nikki Grimes, 2008-01-10 A Coretta Scott King Honor Book Paris has just moved in with the Lincoln family and she isn t thrilled to be in yet another foster home. She has a tough time trusting people and she misses her brother who s been sent to a boys home Over time the Lincolns grow on Paris But no matter how hard she tries to fit in she can t ignore the feeling that she never will especially in a town that s mostly white while she is half black It isn t long before Paris has a big decision to make about where she truly belongs The Blossoming Universe of Violet Diamond Brenda Woods, 2014-01-09 Coretta Scott King Honor winner Brenda Woods moving uplifting story of a girl finally meeting the African American side of her family explores racism and how it feels to be biracial and celebrates families of all kinds Violet is a smart funny brown eyed brown haired girl in a family of blonds Her mom is white and her dad who died before she was born was black She attends a mostly white school where she sometimes feels like a brown leaf on a pile of snow She s tired of people asking if she s adopted Now that Violet s eleven she decides it s time to learn about her African American heritage And despite getting off to a rocky start trying to reclaim her dad s side of the family she can feel her confidence growing as the puzzle pieces of her life finally start coming together Readers will cheer for Violet sharing her joy as she discovers her A Star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame Brenda Woods, 2010-02-04 If you could get a star on the Hollywood Walk roots of Fame for anything at all what would it be This writing assignment given out in Ms Hart's tenth grade creative writing class sparks a group of nine students to tell his her own story Readers are introduced to Jake and Shante's interracial romance Carlos fear of deportation and Sunday's determination after being sexually assaulted These teens persevere through hardship and heartache laughter and love and in the end their voices shine through inspiring journal entries that answer the question in unusual and unexpected ways Once again Brenda Woods shows a keen understanding of the teenage psyche as she did in Emako Blue winner of the 2005 IRA Children's Choice Young Adult Fiction Award When Winter Robeson Came Brenda Woods, 2022-01-11 The whole world seems to transform during the summer of 1965 when Eden's cousin from Mississippi comes to visit her in L A just as the Watts Riots erupt in this stirring new novel by Coretta Scott King Honor winner Brenda Woods When Eden's cousin Winter comes for a visit it turns out he s not just there to sightsee He wants to figure out what happened to his dad who disappeared ten years earlier from the Watts area of L A So the cousins set out to investigate together and what they discover brings them joy and heartache It also opens up a whole new understanding of their world just as the area they ve got their sights on explodes in a clash between the police and the Black residents For six days Watts is like a war zone and Eden and Winter become heroes in their own part of the drama Eden hopes to be a composer someday and the only way she can describe that summer is a song with an unexpected ending full of changes in tempo and mood School-Based Interventions For Struggling Readers, K-8 Evan Ortlieb, Earl H.
