Fortunato,1982 Pastoral psychotherapy by president of Integrity International Misha Schutt Queering Christian Worship Bryan Cones,2023-11-21 A groundbreaking collection of writings that place queer ritual at the center of the theological conversation In this collection of essays leading scholars in queer theology and liturgical studies explore the ways in which the distinctive theological voices of LGBTQIA Christians challenge and expand thinking and practice around worship in new directions This challenge has expanded in the past decades as obstacles to the full participation of queer Christians particularly in marriage and ordination have fallen Organized into three main parts the volume begins with an introduction to queer engagement with ritual practices continues with a series of case studies that examine queer texts and contexts and concludes with an examination of the horizons of queer liturgical theology and practice Throughout the volume Queering Christian Worship provides new imagination and tools to those who study and curate Christian worship across traditions The Care of Men Christie Cozad Neuger,James Newton Poling,2011-12-01 Men in our culture are experiencing various crises to which pastors and pastoral caregivers are called to respond These crises include changing role definitions and gender expectations as well as diminishing economic opportunities In light of these crises men need new foundations for self esteem and identity and new support for changing With their different experiences and specialties the contributors to The Care of Men examine some crises and provide helpful ideas for caregivers in diverse situations with diverse populations of men Christian Mysticism's Queer Flame Michael Bernard Kelly,2018-09-03 Is the Christian mystical tradition a relic of another time shaped by celibates for celibates unable to engage meaningfully with people of our time who embrace their corporeality and sexuality as crucial aspects of their journey towards union with God This book reflects in serious theological depth and detail on the spiritual and sexual journeys of gay men of mature and committed Christian faith employing the Christian mystical tradition as the lens and the interlocutor in this process This study examines the major themes and stages of the mystical tradition as outlined by Evelyn Underhill but also including more recent work by Ruth Burrows Thomas Merton and Constance Fitzgerald Using methods of qualitative research it then considers the texts of in depth interviews conducted with men most of whom are theologians or spiritual leaders with a deep Catholic faith and all of whom are openly self affirmingly gay Finally it employs Ricoeur s hermeneutical theory to engage in a creative theological conversation between the traditional mystical stages and themes and these men s lives as described in their interviews This is a unique study that brings together ancient spirituality with contemporary lived religion As such it will be of interest to scholars of religious studies theology Christian mysticism and spirituality and queer studies It will be of particular interest to those teach spiritual direction and to all who seek new ways to engage with the spiritual lives of LGBTIQ people A Thorn in the Flesh Caroline J. Addington Hall,2013-03-22 With the vote to bless same sex marriages the Episcopal Church becomes the largest

U S denomination to officially sanction same sex relationships Homosexuality has become a flashpoint at the intersection of religion family and politics A Thorn in the Flesh How Gay Sexuality is Changing the Episcopal Church tells the story of how homosexuality has been used to further conservative political agendas both here and abroad It describes how African and Asian churches have been drawn into a conflict that began in the United States in the Episcopal Church and raises vital questions of whether people with different understandings of authority and truth can live in harmony This provocative book is not a history of the movement for gay inclusion nor a history of the movement for a new conservative Anglican church in the Americas Instead it is a comparison of the conservative and the liberal parts of the church There are those such as the Church of England who have conservative theological orientation and are most likely to oppose fully including gays and lesbians in the church Hall also explores the rapid changes that have happened in Western society in the past fifty years that have led to the acceptance of same sex marriage and homosexuality This change has not come easily and even after nearly four decades gay marriage remains a politically divisive issue in the United States and England

Gays and Grays Donal Godfrey,2007-07-20 Gays and Grays tells the story of a unique Catholic parish Most Holy Redeemer Parish in San Francisco is in the center of the world s first gay neighborhood The Castro This parish was the center of the hostility to the arriving gay population in the 1970s but paradoxically was itself transformed into a welcoming parish The old time parishioners the gray bonded with the new comers the gay particularly in a joint compassionate response to the crisis of AIDS A charismatic pastor FR Tony McGuire also played a key role in the transformation of this interesting parish Most Holy Redeemer was changed from a dying parish to a vital place where gay and straight people together created something new Father Donal Godfrey shows how this parish became prophetic and compassionate through conflict and compromise at times despite opposition from many sources including the institutionalized homophobia of the church and society Rather than becoming embittered the parish opened up to be a place of healing and indeed sanctuary for many This book tells this fascinating story and why it is significant beyond the scope of San Francisco Most Holy Redeemer is a place which has remained within the institution while at the same time challenging it with grace and humor This accessible and moving book is appropriate for all levels of students of congregational studies Sociology of Religion Gay or Queer Studies and Religion courses Moral Combat R. Marie Griffith,2017-12-12 From an esteemed scholar of American religion and sexuality a sweeping account of the century of religious conflict that produced our culture wars Gay marriage transgender rights birth control sex is at the heart of many of the most divisive political issues of our age The origins of these conflicts historian R Marie Griffith argues lie in sharp disagreements that emerged among American Christians a century ago From the 1920s onward a once solid Christian consensus regarding gender roles and sexual morality began to crumble as liberal

Protestants sparred with fundamentalists and Catholics over questions of obscenity sex education and abortion Both those who advocated for greater openness in sexual matters and those who resisted new sexual norms turned to politics to pursue their moral visions for the nation Moral Combat is a history of how the Christian consensus on sex unraveled and how this unraveling has made our political battles over sex so ferocious and so intractable Tending the Flock K. Brynolf Lyon, Archie Smith, 1998-01-01 Many churches are unprepared to face the challenges inherent in family life today Others though have developed innovative and exciting responses In this book case studies provide insights and strategies to help develop a practical theological perspective on family ministry This new perspective represents a fresh and powerful witness to the place of families within contemporary communities of faith The Family Culture and Religion series offers informed and responsible analyses of the state of the American family from a religious perspective and provides practical assistance for the family's revitalization In the Eye of the Storm V. Gene Robinson, 2008 In 2003 Gene Robinson was elected as the Bishop of New Hampshire the first openly gay man to be called to serve in such a position Clearly beloved in his diocese and chosen from a wide selection of candidates the election was entirely proper and the result clear cut yet it sparked a hurricane storm of controversy that has polarised religious opinion on five continents and still rages five years on Here Gene Robinson reflects on his journey of faith his life experiences the concerns that matter most to him as a bishop and the controversy that has rocked the church he loves and to which he is committed Integrating Spirituality into Multicultural Counseling Mary A.
