Legends & Folklore L. Setford,1977 Legends of Kent Mike Hanagan,Pat Cox,2012-04-17 100 short stories and over 25 images from the stories Myths Legends Ghosts Mysteries of historic Kent Just like anyone else born in Kent we grew up being told stories of the villages where we lived Many were local legends like the ghostly highwayman of Oxney Bottom which spooked generations of children from the village As well the ghost stories there were fascinating legends like Grey Dolphin Did Robert de Shurland really kill his horse on the word of a local witch Was that church in Gravesend really visited by aliens If you ask the locals you will get ten different versions of the story With Kent being the eldest county in England it s reasonable to expect a few famous names and events to have links here yet Kent has an abundance of them Names and events that when you hear them for the first time leaves you thinking wow I didn t know that Did you know about Kent s own Bermuda Triangle what about the Kentish folk who saw battle at Trafalgar or at Rorkes Drift or even the Titanic passenger from Sittingbourne Throughout the generations these stories have been told and re told thousands of times and with each telling the story grows and adapts a little bit more The stories we have written in this book are the versions which we have come to know and love How historically accurate they are could be debated forever although the basic facts of many of the stories are 100% accurate as our research has found We leave you to decide fact or fiction myth or legend or a mixture of all four So join us on a journey across history and through the towns and villages immortalised in Kentish folklore and see how many times you say Wow I didn t know that Folktales and Legends of Kent Geoffrey M.
