Michael Hays,Rodolfo Machado,Jorge Silvetti,1995 For almost two decades the work of Rodolfo Machado and Jorge Silvetti has remained at the forefront of theoretical production Their rigorously detailed and exquisitely drawn projects characterize an attitude of aesthetic realism towards materials construction function and the cultural role of architecture Yet the conditions they address and the effects they produce are unprecedented Their projects synthesize seemingly incompatible images uses and typologies Unprecedented Realism is not an illustration of theory Rather what emerges is a constructive theory of architecture that understands the process of design itself as a distinct mode of knowledge as theoretical research that is still irreducibly architectural Unprecedented Realism presents both buildings and urban infrastructures Steps of Providence RI Entrance for Cranbrook Bloomfield Hills Mich Carnegie Mellon University Center Pittsburgh Pershing Square Los Angeles and Times Square New York City Along with the analytic text of K Michael Hays the volume includes critical essays by Alan Colquhoun George Baird Fars el Dahdah and Rodolphe el Khoury please see the Table of Contents Structures and Architecture Paulo J. da Sousa Cruz,2016-10-14 Although the disciplines of architecture and structural engineering have both experienced their own historical development their interaction has resulted in many fascinating and delightful structures To take this interaction to a higher level there is a need to stimulate the inventive and creative design of architectural structures and to persuade architects and structural engineers to further collaborate in this process exploiting together new concepts applications and challenges This set of book of abstracts and full paper searchable CD ROM presents selected papers presented at the 3rd International Conference on Structures and Architecture Conference ICSA2016 organized by the School of Architecture of the University of Minho Guimar es Portugal July 2016 to promote the synergy in the collaboration between the disciplines of architecture and structural engineering The set addresses all major aspects of structures and architecture including building envelopes comprehension of complex forms computer and experimental methods concrete and masonry structures educating architects and structural engineers

Drawing on Architecture Jordan Kauffman, 2019-03-19 How architectural drawings emerged as aesthetic objects promoted by a network of galleries collectors and institutions and how this changed the understanding of architecture Prior to the 1970s buildings were commonly understood to be the goal of architectural practice architectural drawings were seen simply as a means to an end But just as the boundaries of architecture itself were shifting at the end of the twentieth century the perception of architectural drawings was also shifting they began to be seen as autonomous objects outside the process of building In Drawing on Architecture Jordan Kauffman offers an account of how architectural drawings promoted by a network of galleries and collectors exhibitions and events emerged as aesthetic objects and ultimately attained status as important cultural and historical artifacts and how this was both emblematic of changes in architecture and a catalyst for these changes Kauffman traces moments of critical importance to the evolution of the perception of architectural drawings beginning with exhibitions that featured architectural drawings displayed in ways that did not elucidate buildings but treated them as meaningful objects in their own right When architectural drawings were seen as having intrinsic value they became collectible and Kauffman chronicles early collectors galleries and sales He discusses three key exhibitions at the Leo Castelli Gallery in New York other galleries around the world that specialized in architectural drawings the founding of architecture museums that understood and collected drawings as important cultural and historical artifacts and the effect of the new significance of architectural drawings on architecture and architectural history Drawing on interviews with more than forty people directly involved with the events described and on extensive archival research Kauffman shows how architectural drawings became the driving force in architectural debate in an era of change

A Japanese garden is immediately distinct to the eye from the traditional gardens of an English manor house just as the manicured topiaries of Versailles contrast with the sharp cacti of the American Southwest Though gardening is beloved the world over the style of gardens themselves varies from region to region determined as much by culture as climate In this series of illustrated essays John Dixon Hunt takes us on a world tour of different periods in the making of gardens Hunt shows here how cultural assumptions and local geography have shaped gardens and their meaning He explores our continuing responses to land and reworkings of the natural world encompassing a broad range of gardens from ancient Roman times to early Islamic and Mughal gardens from Chinese and Japanese gardens to the invention of the public park and modern landscape architecture A World of Gardens looks at key chapters in garden history reviewing their significance past and present and tracing the recurrence of different themes and motifs in the design and reception of gardens throughout the world A World of Gardens celebrates the idea that similar experiences of gardens can be found in many different times and places including sacred landscapes scientific gardens urban gardens secluded gardens and symbolic gardens Featuring two hundred images this book is a treasure trove of ideas and inspiration whether your garden is a window box a secluded backyard or a daydream Site, Sight, Insight John Dixon Hunt, 2016-03-07 Site Sight Insight presents twelve essays by John Dixon Hunt the leading theorist and historian of landscape architecture The collection's common theme is a focus on sites how we see them and what we derive from that looking Acknowledging that even the most modest landscape encounter has validity Hunt contends that the more one knows about a site and one's own sight of it an awareness of how one is seeing the greater the insight Employing the concepts tropes and rhetorical methods of literary analysis he addresses the problem of how to discuss understand and appreciate places that are experienced through all the senses over time and through space Hunt questions our intellectual and aesthetic understanding of gardens and designed landscapes and asks how these sites affect us emotionally Do gardens have meaning When we visit a fine garden or designed landscape we experience a unique work of great complexity in purpose which has been executed over a number of years a work that occasionally achieves beauty While direct experience is fundamental Hunt demonstrates how the ways in which gardens and landscapes are communicated in word and image can be equally important He returns frequently to a cluster of key sites and writings on which he has based much of his thinking about garden making and its role in landscape architecture the gardens of Rousham in Oxfordshire Thomas Whately's Observations on Modern Gardening 1770 William Gilpin's dialogues on Stowe 1747 Alexander Pope's meditation on genius loci the D'sert de Retz Paolo Burgi's Cardada and the designs by Bernard Lassus and Ian Hamilton Finlay Follies, Grottoes & Garden Buildings Gwyn Headley, Wim Meulen Kamp, 1999 Chronicles nearly 1450 UK sites which boast follies grottoes or garden buildings of original or eccentric aspect Questioning History Greg Clingham, 1998-07 Traditional eighteenth century paradigms of reason truth and nature underlie modern concepts of self gender sex etc that are challenged today in the name of a more liberated and pluralistic problematics This book is the first of two volumes of essays that identify this postmodern challenge It examines the historiography of postmodern phenomena in relation to the eighteenth century texts that they ventriloquize More essays on the topic are contained in Making History Bucknell Review Vol 42 No 1 Sensory Design Joy Monice Malnar, 2004 Malnar architecture U of Illinois Urbana Champaign and Vodvarka fine arts Loyola U Chicago explore the nature of sensory response to the spatial constructs that people invest with meaning ranging from buildings of various sorts and purposes to gardens to constructions of fantasy These responses can serve as a typology for the design of si Michael Graves Michael Graves, 1999 The Getty Villa Marion True, Jorge Silvetti, 2005 The original Getty Museum housed in a replica of a Roman Villa on a site overlooking the Pacific Ocean is one of Los Angeles's most treasured landmarks Closed for almost ten years while renovations were made to the building and the site itself was transformed into a center for the study of antiquities and conservation the Getty Villa is now set to open late in 2005 The Getty Villa is a lively history of the Getty Museum its renowned antiquities collections and its growth from a small museum in a ranch house in Malibu to its first home in a building designed to replicate what we know of the Villa dei Papiri an ancient Roman villa partially uncovered in Herculaneum Most engagingly this book records the ten year adventure in reconfiguring a beautiful but topographically challenging site into one that could continue to accommodate the splendid Museum building and also provide for an outdoor theater laboratories for conservation work and research offices for staff and visiting scholars and an education program for adults and children This is a story of architectural imagination geographical challenges and legal hurdles all of which have resulted in a truly unique and beautiful site The story is an enlightening and rewarding one for anyone interested in architecture and in the difficulties posed by building on a grand scale in the twenty first century Beautifully illustrated throughout the book includes 250 reproductions of works of art photographs of both the old and the new Getty Museum site plans and architectural elevations
